

Meat Loaf Is Always Welcome

Extend Beef Protein
With Milk and Bacon

By GAYNOR MADDOX
A NEW MEAT LOAF recipe is always welcome these days when meat prices are high.

This recipe, by an old friend of this column, Lucy M. Maltz of Corning, N. Y., extends the beef protein with protein of milk, bread and bacon.

EASY MEAT LOAF

One and one-half pounds ground beef, one and one-half cups soft bread crumbs, one cup top milk, three tablespoons chopped onion, three tablespoons catsup, one-quarter teaspoon poultry seasoning, one and one-half teaspoons salt, one-quarter teaspoon pepper, 3 slices bacon.

Mix together ground beef, bread crumbs, milk, onion, catsup, poultry seasoning, salt and pepper. Spread in a two-quart heat-resisting glass loaf pan.

Cut bacon slices in two; arrange on top of meat mixture. Bake in moderate oven, 350 degrees F., for about one hour.

Lucy gives us another little item—this time for dessert. It's a party feature—rich, delicate and seasonal.

PINEAPPLE MOUSSE

One-half cup sugar, one tablespoon lemon juice, one cup shredded pineapple, one cup whipping cream, two tablespoons water, two egg whites, maraschino cherries for garnish (four-ounce bottle).

Add sugar and lemon juice to shredded pineapple; stir thoroughly. Whip cream; fold into pineapple mixture. Add water to egg whites and beat until stiff. Fold gently into pineapple mixture.

Arrange thin slices of maraschino cherries around inside of eight glass custard cups, five-ounce size. Pour in the pineapple mixture. Freeze in the freezing unit of refrigerator for about four hours or until firm all the way through.

Serve in the cups in which the mousse was frozen. The top of each dessert may be decorated with maraschino cherries. Serves eight.

Your child does some damage to a neighbor's house or yard while the neighbor is away from home.
WRONG: Decide to say nothing about the matter, if the neighbor doesn't.
RIGHT: Take the child with you to explain to the neighbor what happened and to offer to do what you can to make amends.

You are writing a letter to invite a friend to visit you in your home.
WRONG: Make no mention of how long you expect the visit to be.
RIGHT: In the wording of your invitation be sure to say whether you are asking the friend to spend a weekend, a week or two weeks.

Camp Group Conducts Campaign

Plan Drive Against
Shoppers' Hoarding

Local Camp Fire Girls will participate in the "Hoarding is Harmful" campaign sponsored by the national organization, Miss O. C. Bangsberg, Camp Fire leader, announced today.

Mrs. Richard W. Bialock, national president, notified President Truman that Camp Fire Girls would ask shoppers throughout the country to sign the following pledge:

"I promise to purchase only what is necessary for the normal everyday needs of my family. I will not hoard items such as sugar, fats, nylons or canned goods."

Wise Buying

Local members will not ask shoppers to sign pledges here, but they will conduct a "talking" campaign to discourage over-buying. Miss Margaret Champlin, chairman of the leaders association, announced that detailed information is being distributed to leaders in this area.

This campaign fits in with the year round Camp Fire program wise buying in home craft and giving service to and for the community through its citizenship craft are two of the group's policies.

This program also stresses two most important things each Camp Fire Girl learns: conservation of resources and consideration for the needs of others.

Waterproof Matches

If you're a hunter or a fisherman, you should always carry waterproof matches on your trips. Why not waterproof them yourself merely by dipping them in shellac and then allowing the matches to dry?

Designing Woman— Three Ideas

By ELIZABETH HILLIER
HERE ARE three good problem-solving ideas in one corner furniture arrangement:

For the bedroom, the arrangement makes use of lazy corner space to fit a dressing table into a room that might otherwise be too small for one.

For the living room, the same furniture set-up without the mirror can be used as a desk.
And for the dining room there are two possibilities—the use of the furniture as a space-saving corner side-board and server in the small dining room, or as a desk again to make an office corner of the seldom-used end of a larger dining room.

MULTI-PURPOSE furniture like this which adapts to many rooms and solves space problems made news in the recent previews of home furnishings in Grand Rapids.

You'll see these particular pieces in the stores soon now, along with other furniture to match that also makes good arrangement easier.

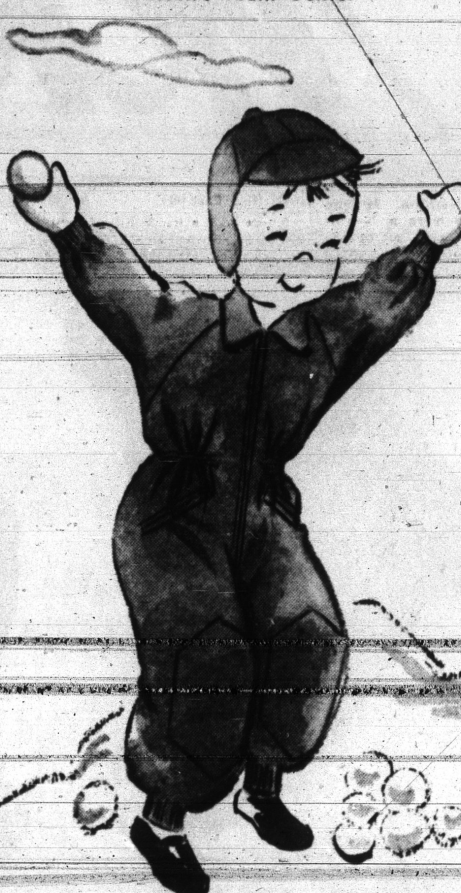

And rearrangement, too, because the separate units can be arranged in so many ways.
