

TODAY IN BUSINESS

by HAROLD H. HARTLEY
Times Business Editor

BUSINESS ISN'T ASLEEP at the ballot box anymore. It's in there pitching.

But business just got wise in the last few years as to how to do it.

Business leaped too heavily on lobbies, depending on taking over the legislators after they're elected.

They found labor matched their lobbies, threatened office holders with defeat, and swung a mighty club in the law halls.

Then labor found a way of raising election funds effectively and fast. Unions didn't pass the hat. They assessed members. And that's something business hasn't got around to, but may soon.

THE STATE C. O. F. C. believes that a lot of things go wrong in politics because the voter is confused, fed borderline truths, or pamphlets which have no truth in them at all.

So the State C. O. F. C. has its participation program which goes right down to the local level of ringing doorbells, town meetings. It reaches the man in his home.

THE PLAN IS WORKING like a charm. In Kokomo and New Castle, for instance, the people became aware of which candidates were qualified and which were not.

But business will have to raise more money. There are fewer to give, fewer to work. It's a tougher job. But in Indiana business is on the way to your front door and to the polls.

Grain Merger

THE GET-TOGETHER of the Cleveland Grain Co. with the interests of Sam Harrell and associates was really a trade of management and facilities.

But there was cash involved, some $230,000 plus a grain inventory of $1,800,000.

In simple language the Cleveland company needed a tie-in with the C. B. Harrell Brothers country elevators to get the grain. Together the two companies can store more than 6,000,000 bushels.

Kurt F. Pantzer, director of the Indiana company and Charles N. Wells, both of Barnes, Hickam, Pantzer and Boyd handled the legal details with Homer H. Cochran representing both the Ohio and Indiana companies.

ARTHUR C. WATKINS, Cleveland, president of the Cleveland Co., continues. But after that there's an officer mix. Charles R. Barkley, Cleveland, vice president; Edwin K. Shepper, vice president; Edwin K. Shepper, vice president and treasurer, Indianapolis; R. T. Crenkowski, vice president; and Evans M. Harrell, secretary, Winchester.

Keep an eye on this Harrell operation. It's big time and getting bigger.

Off to Everywhere

THOSE TWO globe-trotters, Ed Dowling and Elmer Krueger were off today in seven league air boots to tramp the dust around the world.

They waved and winked good-bye as they boarded Eastern Airlines Flight 186 for Chicago at Weir Cook Municipal Airport.

Tonight they were to be in Los Angeles, then off to Tokyo, Hong Kong, Bangkok, Calcutta, Delhi, Karachi, Istanbul, Rome, Switzerland, Germany, Vienna, Paris, Spain, Portugal and back home Nov. 18 after the votes are counted.

THEY TRAVEL LIGHT and fast, see a lot in a hurry.

And you can go and do likewise if you have $1700 plus tax to the cost and food and hotel money. That's the standard fee for globe girders.

One place they won't get in is Russia. Ed did the last time, you know, and made the big magazines. But the word is that the Reds have locked the door this time.

Three Ways

GOATLED ROGER BABSON said today up in the evergreen mountains of New Hampshire that inflation is a "form of dishonesty."

The 75-year-old economist who put his finger on the 1929 depression ahead of time said inflation

Barkley Takes Sly Dig At Gary Republican

GARY, Oct. 2 (UP)—Vice-President Alben Barkley took a sly dig at a locally prominent Republican when he addressed the United States Appeal meeting here yesterday.

Dr. Philip Rosenbloom, high in UJA affairs and Gary GOP circles, moved through a group of Democrats with the remark: "I guess I'm a lone Republican."

"Brother, if you're a Republican you really are alone," the Veep cracked.
