28th Division GIs Get Uniforms, Pay

CAMP ATTERBURY, Oct. 2 (UP)—Pennsylvania's infantrymen were all spruced up today in new clothes with money in the pockets. The clothes—new Army winter uniforms—became the uniform of the day, while the money represented the 28th Division's first allowance.

STRAUSS SAYS:

THE LINING OF THIS TOPCOAT IS

MILUM!

BECAUSE—it's new—and because it is introduced as the "miraculous new lining that multiplies the warmth of even the lightest fabric—without adding an ounce to its weight."

—we are pleased to present MEN'S GABARDINE TOPCOATS lined with MILUM

MILUM—should remind you—that The Man's Store keeps itself posted and stocked on the new in topcoats—inside and out. —as well as a world of others including features like those from the Hebrides Islands—and Men of Aran Tweeds that have a heritage of centuries! "The best as your price"—that's the idea. Prices begin at 39.75—and go up into a couple of hundred or so.

Instead of letting the bodily heat pass through to the colder air outside—MILUM deflects and reverses the heat back to the body. MILUM (made by Deering Milliken) is a treatment for the back of the coat lining—which adds practically nothing to its weight.

ALL-WORSTED GABARDINE TOPCOAT MILUM lined by GLENEAGLES

are $60

$170 Salary Wins Speeder Leniency

An 18-year-old speeder won leniency from "anti-hot rod" Judge George Ober. Speedway magistrate who has been handing out short jail sentences to youthful traffic offenders.

Reason: The youth said a jail sentence would cost him his $170 per week job.

"I wouldn't want any youngster to lose a job like that," said the amazed judge. "I gave him a heavy $50-and-costs fine and took his license instead."

Officials of the company where the teen-ager is employed confirmed the salary and said: "He's an unusually hard-working boy."
