

For Women

Betty Blatz Is Wed to Edward Walker

Miss Betty Jean Blatz (left) and Edward B. Walker were married this morning in Holy Name Catholic Church. The couple's parents are Mrs. Herbert J. Blatz, Beech Grove, and Bernard L. Walker, Cannelburg. (Miner-Baker photo). Wade LaRue Neal, son of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Neal, Detroit, formerly of Indianapolis, took Miss Janet Mary Stephenson as his bride last Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Stephenson, Arlington, Va., are the bride's parents. The rite was read in the Mount Olivet Methodist Church in Arlington. (Hessler photo).

Post Chapel Is Scene Of Wedding

Vows uniting Miss Caroline Gibson and Lt. Joseph Easterbrook Collins will be read at 4:30 p.m. today in the Post Chapel, Ft. Benjamin Harrison. The Rev. Fr. John Minta, St. Francis de Sales Catholic Church, will officiate.

Col. and Mrs. John H. Gibson, Ft. Benjamin Harrison, are the parents of the bride. Col. Gibson is commanding officer of the Fort. The bridegroom is the son of US Chief of Staff, Gen. J. Lawton Collins, and Mrs. Collins, Washington.

Mrs. Sammie Homan, Ft. Bragg, N. C., will be the bride's only attendant. She will wear green taffeta. Jerome Estes, Washington, will attend the bridegroom.

Japanese Silk
The bride will wear an embroidered Japanese silk over satin gown. A princess type crown will hold her full-length veil. She will carry an arm bouquet of white flowers.

A reception in the Officers' Club will follow the ceremony. The bride chose a gold suit and brown accessories for her wedding trip south. The couple will live at Ft. Bragg, N. C.

The bride attended the University of Nevada and was graduated from Ohio State University. She is a member of Kappa Alpha Theta Sorority. The bridegroom is a graduate of the United States Military Academy, West Point, N. Y.

Couple Motors East

Motoring East after their marriage today in the St. Catherine of Sienna Catholic Church were Mr. and Mrs. Robert R. Gindling.

The Rev. Fr. Aloysius Barthel officiated at the 10 a.m. double-ring service.

The bride was Miss Joann Ruggier, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Kellermeyer, 1318 Wade St. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gindling, 5049 Mathews St., are the bridegroom's parents.

Attendees were Miss Maryanne Miller, maid of honor; Mrs. Paul Meier and Mrs. Ray Brown, bridesmaids; Miss Betsy Bach, Barrington, Ill., junior bridesmaid, and Beebee Surge, Niles, Mich., and Ruth Ann Foster, flowergirls.

They wore hyacinth blue and pink taffeta dresses.

Best man was Walter Click Jr. Ushers were John Surge, Niles, and Frank Allen.

The bride was gowned in traditional white satin. The dress' molded bodice was accented with a sweetheart neckline edged with seed pearls. The three-tiered fingertip illusion veil attached to a satin half-hat fell over the cathedral train. Her cascade bouquet was white roses and orchids.

There was a breakfast in the Hawthorn Room and a reception in the Hotel Lincoln.

After Oct. 29 the couple will be at home at the Wade St. address.

Family Hour Guests Named

Patrons, pupils and teachers of School 28 will be guests at the Children's Museum's family hour from 2 to 4 p.m. tomorrow.

Assisting Mrs. Eva Y. Wilcox, principal, will be Mrs. Mervin Nelson, president of the Parent-Teacher Association; Mardames Meredith Stader, John Hendrick, Lester Ryan, Carl Davis, Charles Janis, Eugene Briner, Phil Bird, H. J. Perry, Vera Neuerburg, Nellie Ryan and J. W. Briner.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Clark, 1002 Villa Ave., announce the engagement of their daughter, Mary Ann, and John J. Kestler. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Kestler, 1121 Reid Place. No date has been set for the wedding.

Paul Goodin Takes Bride

In a traditional ivory satin gown Miss Catherine Moran was married to Paul A. Goodin at 10 a.m. today. The Rev. Fr. Michael Holtzleiter officiated in the St. Joan of Arc Catholic Church.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Daniel G. Moran, 4344 College Ave., and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Goodin, 2217 Station St.

The bride chose Miss Jerry Sheets maid of honor, and Mrs. Garland Lewis, Miss. Colleen Jones and Miss Patricia Welch, bridesmaids. They were dressed in gold and emerald green satin.

Home Reception

Attending the bridegroom were Thomas F. Watts, best man, and William J. Catellier, J. Joseph Patterson and James A. Moran, usher.

The bride's empire style gown was fashioned with a draped back which extended into a cathedral train. A Juliet cap held her two-tiered fingertip veil. She carried a cascade bouquet of white orchids and ivy.

A breakfast in the Hunter's Lodge, Marott Hotel, and a reception in the home of the bride's parents followed the wedding.

The bride attended St. Mary's College, South Bend, and was graduated from Marian College.

The bridegroom attended Indiana University.

They wore hyacinth blue and pink taffeta dresses.

Best man was Walter Click Jr. Ushers were John Surge, Niles, and Frank Allen.

The bride was gowned in traditional white satin. The dress' molded bodice was accented with a sweetheart neckline edged with seed pearls. The three-tiered fingertip illusion veil attached to a satin half-hat fell over the cathedral train. Her cascade bouquet was white roses and orchids.

There was a breakfast in the Hawthorn Room and a reception in the Hotel Lincoln.

After Oct. 29 the couple will be at home at the Wade St. address.

Three Become Brides in Nuptial Ceremonies

Robert Gindling took Miss Joann Ruggier as his bride in the St. Catherine of Sienna Catholic Church. The latter-day Saints. Mrs. Margaret Burkhardt, 2326 N. Newland Ave., is the bride's mother, and Mrs. Henry Gindling, 5049 Mathews Ave., is the bridegroom's mother.

Zalman photo.

Miss Judith Burkhardt and Earl Brown were married Sept. 8 in the Church of Jesus Christ of the Latter-Day Saints. Mrs. Margaret Burkhardt, 2326 N. Newland Ave., is the bride's mother, and Mrs. Florence Beiter, Baltimore, is the bridegroom's mother.

Porter photo.

Robert Gindling took Miss Joann Ruggier as his bride in the St. Catherine of Sienna Catholic Church. The latter-day Saints. Mrs. Margaret Burkhardt, 2326 N. Newland Ave., is the bride's mother, and Mrs. Florence Beiter, Baltimore, is the bridegroom's mother.

The Bridal Scene—

Miss Jo Ann Summers Richard Montgomery Are Married Today

Miss Betty Blatz Is Wed To Edward B. Walker; W. G. Price Takes Nancy McCalley As Bride

Clubs, restaurants and hotels were the scene of wedding receptions today.

A reception in the Meridian Hills Country Club followed the marriage of Miss Jo Ann Summers and Richard Marlan Montgomery at 3:30 p.m. today. Dr. Jean S. Milner officiated in the Second Presbyterian Church.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Paul R. Summers, 47 E. 52nd St., and Mr. and Mrs. T. Marlan Montgomery, Seymour.

The bride chose Miss Jean Summers, maid of honor, and Miss Janet Wood, Lake Bluff, Ill. Misses Patricia Lewis, Mary Ann Porteous and Barbara Evans, bridesmaids. The bridesmaids' purple taffeta frocks matched the hyacinth taffeta dress of the honor attendant.

Attending the bridegroom were William Steel, Greensburg, Pa., best man, and Dr. Paul Schneck, Cincinnati; Ted Stevens, Los Angeles; Robert Maddox, Louisville, Ky., and Henry Montgomery, Seymour.

The bride's Chantilly lace gown extended into a cathedral train. A matching satin halo held her fingertip veil. She carried a bouquet of valley lilies, orchids and stephanotis.

The bride wore a blue tweed suit and black accessories for her motor trip to Sea Island, Ga. After Nov. 10, the couple will live in Seymour.

The bride is a graduate of Wellesley College and the bridegroom was graduated from Princeton University and the Harvard University Law School.

Walker-Blatz

In a double ring ceremony Miss Betty Jean Blatz was married to Edward B. Walker. The Rev. Fr. J. F. Patterson officiated at 9:30 a.m. today in the Holy Name Catholic Church.

Parents of the couple are Mrs. Herbert J. Blatz, Beech Grove, and Bernard L. Walker, Cannelburg.

Miss Hilda Blatz and Miss Lillian, the bride's only attendants, were dressed in pompadour rose and forest green satin.

The bridegroom chose Jerome Walker, Owensboro, Ky., best man, and John Gibbons and Carl Sahn, ushers.

The bride's traditional white satin gown extended into a cathedral train and was accented with seed pearls. An illusion half hat held her fingertip veil. She carried a prayerbook topped with a white lily, stephanotis and ivy.

A breakfast and reception in the Whispering Winds Restaurant followed the ceremony.

Price-McCalley

The Rev. Fr. Thomas Clarke, Chancellor of the Evansville diocese officiated today at the marriage of Miss Nancy Jeanne McCalley and William G. Price, his nephew. The ceremony was read at 10 a.m. in the St. Philip Neri Catholic Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. McCalley, 638 Eastern Ave., and Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Price, 1518 Hoefgen St., are the parents of the couple.

Attending the bride were Mrs. Kenneth Funke, matron of honor, and Mrs. Richard Bosler, Miss Loretta Hickey and Miss Elizabeth Price, bridesmaids. They wore blue satin.

The bridegroom was attended by William Kjovsky, best man, and Richard E. McCalley, Joseph Webb and Daniel Sweeney, ushers.

The bride's slipper satin gown was accented with Chantilly lace and the hoop skirt fell into a cathedral train. Flowers held her fingertip veil. She carried a white lily, stephanotis and ivy.

A breakfast in the Hawthorn Room and a reception in the home of the bride's parents followed the ceremony. The couple left for a trip to the Smoky Mountains.

The bride attended Marian College and was graduated from St. Vincent's Hospital School of Nursing. The bridegroom attended Butler University.

White chrysanthemums banked the altar today for the marriage of Miss Charlotte Wirth and Joseph L. Filer.

The bride's slipper satin gown was accented with Chantilly lace and the hoop skirt fell into a cathedral train. Flowers held her fingertip veil. She carried a white lily, stephanotis and ivy.

A breakfast in the Hunter's Lodge, Marott Hotel, and a reception in the home of the bride's parents followed the wedding.

The bride chose Miss Jerry Sheets maid of honor, and Mrs. Garland Lewis, Miss. Colleen Jones and Miss Patricia Welch, bridesmaids. They were dressed in gold and emerald green satin.

Home Reception

Attending the bridegroom were Thomas F. Watts, best man, and William J. Catellier, J. Joseph Patterson and James A. Moran, usher.

The bride's empire style gown was fashioned with a draped back which extended into a cathedral train. A Juliet cap held her two-tiered fingertip veil. She carried a cascade bouquet of white orchids and ivy.

A breakfast in the Hunter's Lodge, Marott Hotel, and a reception in the home of the bride's parents followed the wedding.

The bride chose Miss Jerry Sheets maid of honor, and Mrs. Garland Lewis, Miss. Colleen Jones and Miss Patricia Welch, bridesmaids. They were dressed in gold and emerald green satin.

Home Reception

Attending the bridegroom were Thomas F. Watts, best man, and William J. Catellier, J. Joseph Patterson and James A. Moran, usher.

The bride's empire style gown was fashioned with a draped back which extended into a cathedral train. A Juliet cap held her two-tiered fingertip veil. She carried a cascade bouquet of white orchids and ivy.

A breakfast in the Hunter's Lodge, Marott Hotel, and a reception in the home of the bride's parents followed the wedding.

The bride chose Miss Jerry Sheets maid of honor, and Mrs. Garland Lewis, Miss. Colleen Jones and Miss Patricia Welch, bridesmaids. They were dressed in gold and emerald green satin.

Home Reception

Attending the bridegroom were Thomas F. Watts, best man, and William J. Catellier, J. Joseph Patterson and James A. Moran, usher.

The bride's empire style gown was fashioned with a draped back which extended into a cathedral train. A Juliet cap held her two-tiered fingertip veil. She carried a cascade bouquet of white orchids and ivy.

A breakfast in the Hunter's Lodge, Marott Hotel, and a reception in the home of the bride's parents followed the wedding.

The bride chose Miss Jerry Sheets maid of honor, and Mrs. Garland Lewis, Miss. Colleen Jones and Miss Patricia Welch, bridesmaids. They were dressed in gold and emerald green satin.

Home Reception

Attending the bridegroom were Thomas F. Watts, best man, and William J. Catellier, J. Joseph Patterson and James A. Moran, usher.

The bride's empire style gown was fashioned with a draped back which extended into a cathedral train. A Juliet cap held her two-tiered fingertip veil. She carried a cascade bouquet of white orchids and ivy.

A breakfast in the Hunter's Lodge, Marott Hotel, and a reception in the home of the bride's parents followed the wedding.

The bride chose Miss Jerry Sheets maid of honor, and Mrs. Garland Lewis, Miss. Colleen Jones and Miss Patricia Welch, bridesmaids. They were dressed in gold and emerald green satin.

Home Reception

Attending the bridegroom were Thomas F. Watts, best man, and William J. Catellier, J. Joseph Patterson and James A. Moran, usher.

The bride's empire style gown was fashioned with a draped back which extended into a cathedral train. A Juliet cap held her two-tiered fingertip veil. She carried a cascade bouquet of white orchids and ivy.

A breakfast in the Hunter's Lodge, Marott Hotel, and a reception in the home of the bride's parents followed the wedding.

The bride chose Miss Jerry Sheets maid of honor, and Mrs. Garland Lewis, Miss. Colleen Jones and Miss Patricia Welch, bridesmaids. They were dressed in gold and emerald green satin.

Home Reception

Attending the bridegroom were Thomas F. Watts, best man, and William J. Catellier, J. Joseph Patterson and James A. Moran, usher.

The bride's empire style gown was fashioned with a draped back which extended into a cathedral train. A Juliet cap held her two-tiered fingertip veil. She carried a cascade bouquet of white orchids and ivy.

A breakfast in the Hunter's Lodge, Marott Hotel, and a reception in the home of the bride's parents followed the wedding.

The bride chose Miss Jerry Sheets maid of honor, and Mrs. Garland Lewis, Miss. Colleen Jones and Miss Patricia Welch, bridesmaids. They were dressed in gold and emerald green satin.

Home Reception

Attending the bridegroom were Thomas F. Watts, best man, and William J. Catellier, J. Joseph Patterson and James A. Moran, usher.

The bride's empire style gown was fashioned with a draped back which extended into a cathedral train. A Juliet cap held her two-tiered fingertip veil. She carried a cascade bouquet of white orchids and ivy.

A breakfast in the Hunter's Lodge, Marott Hotel, and a reception in the home of the bride's parents followed the wedding.

The bride chose Miss Jerry Sheets maid of honor, and Mrs. Garland Lewis, Miss. Colleen Jones and Miss Patricia Welch, bridesmaids. They were dressed in gold and emerald green satin.

Home Reception

Attending the bridegroom were Thomas F. Watts, best man, and William J. Catellier, J. Joseph Patterson and James A. Moran, usher.

The bride's empire style gown was fashioned with a draped back which extended into a cathedral train. A Juliet cap held her two-tiered fingertip veil. She carried a