GOP Takes Over Key State Offices

ing Purdue University's 18th annual high school "debaters" conference.

However, the Governor was represented by his executive secretary, Arthur Campbell.

Mr. Fleming left 30 minutes before the ceremony started.

Mr. Propst, however, stayed to see his successor take the oath of office.

Mr. Smith's move into the Secretary of State's office, which has been a Republican domain since 1938 except for Mr. Fleming's two years, will cause a big shift in political patronage.

The Secretary of State, at the Governor's pleasure, is Commissioner of Motor Vehicles, and thus controls the lush auto license branches.

Under Mr. Fleming most of the branch managers were Democratic Party officials. Most of the announced appointments by Mr. Smith to those posts have been leaders in the Republican Party.

Gov. Schricker has said the Bureau of Motor Vehicles would remain under the jurisdiction of the Secretary of State's office despite the Republican election victory.

The Nov. 7 Republican sweep caused the wholesale political job changes.

But, because of Indiana's staggered system of starting Statehouse terms, the change-over from Democrat to Republican won't be completed until Mar. 15, when Wilbur Young, Osgood, becomes Superintendent of Public Instruction, replacing Deane E. Walker, Culver.

But there still will be some Democrats left in the Capitol, unlike the situation two years ago before Mr. Fleming took office. Gov. Schricker, Lt. Gov. John A. Watkins, Attorney General J. Emmet McManaman and Supreme Court Reporter Eudora Kelly all were elected in 1948 for four-year terms, and thus can't be out of a job before 1953.

And, even a complete Republican sweep again in 1952, wouldn't erase all the Democrats. Supreme Court Judge Paul G. Jasper, Ft. Wayne, was elected two years ago for a six-year term.

The biggest contingent of Republicans, eight, will be sworn in Jan. 1. They are Judges Frank E. Gilkison, Washington, Arch N. Bobbitt, Indianapolis, and Floyd S. Draper, Gary, on the Supreme Court; Wilbur Royste, Indianapolis; Donald Bowen, Bloomington; Harry Crumpacker, Michigan City, and Harold E. Achner, Anderson, Appellate Court, and Clerk of Court Thomas C. Williams, Jeffersonville.

The new treasurer, William L. Fortune of Carmel, replaces F. Shirley Wilcox, New Albany, Feb. 10.

Wild Triplets Open Mile-O-DimesMayor, Fire Chief Attend Ceremony

If the public contributes a full mile of dimes before Christmas there will be 89,760 coins on the sidewalk. Each line of the Mile-O-Dimes is 88 feet long . . . there are 17 dimes to a foot . . . 60 lines make a mile.

Every one of the coins will be used to buy clothing for hundreds of needy children who are appealing to The Times Clothe-A-Child for warm garments to protect them this winter.

To meet this year's need, it will require a full mile of dimes . . . plus increased contributions to Clothe-A-Child's mail fund.

How generously the public contributes to the Mile-O-Dimes today, tomorrow and over the week-end will largely determine whether the shivering youngsters begin receiving their warm clothes next week.

List Still Growing

Times-shoppers are ready to take children to the stores. The list of names of those children who need clothes badly is growing day by day.

How can you help bring a happy, warm Christmas to these poor children?

ONE: By placing one or more dimes on The Times Mile-O-Dimes.

TWO: By sending a check or money order for any amount to Clothe-A-Child, The Indianapolis Times, 214 W. Maryland St. All contributions will be listed individually in The Times.

THREE: By telephoning RI-5551 and volunteering as a Clothe-A-Child donor. Donors are individuals and organizations that take one or more children to the stores and spend their own money to buy the clothes the children need.
