4 Escape as Car Plunges in Canal

Women Waded Out In Knee-Deep Water

Four women driving home from church service went for an unscheduled wading party last night in Indianapolis Water Co. Canal.

The automobile in which they were riding plunged 10 feet over a concrete embankment and landed upright in the canal after another crowd of it at 15th and Mills Sts.

Driver of the car was Mrs. Mary Glover, of 402 W. 28th St. Her passengers were Mrs. Ruth McHenry, 1811 Sheldon St., and Mrs. Florida Smith and Mrs. Smith's daughter, Mrs. Louella Malone, both of 461 W. 28th St.

Stepped on Gas

Mrs. Glover told police that, as the other car crowded her vehicle, "somebody screamed." The sound so unnerved her that she stepped on the accelerator instead of the brake, turned too sharply and drove the car off the embankment.

The car landed on all four wheels in knee-deep water, enabling the women to wade to the bank. It was undamaged.

Mrs. McHenry and Mrs. Smith were treated at General Hospital for slight injuries. The others were unhurt.

Labor Shrugs Off Clay Resignation

'Complaints Deeper Than Personalities'

WASHINGTON, Mar. 31 (UP)—Labor leaders shrugged off today the resignation of Gen. Lucius D. Clay as special aid to Mobilization Director Charles E. Wilson.

Although they have criticized Clay as being partly responsible for what they call the "anti-labor" mobilization program, union leaders did not regard Gen. Clay's action as a victory for labor. They agreed it probably wouldn't have too much effect on getting labor back into the mobilization program.

Gen. Clay, who resigned late yesterday, denied that labor's charges influenced his decision to quit. He said he took the job in Mr. Wilson's office on a three-month leave of absence as chairman of the Continental Can Corp., New York. The leave expires tomorrow.

There was no indication who would succeed Gen. Clay as one of Mr. Wilson's top assistants.

Hopes for Quick Action

Gen. Clay told the United Press he could not understand labor's criticism "because what few relations I've had with unions have been most cordial." He hoped labor's boycott of the mobilization effort would be ironed out "very quickly."

An AFL spokesman appeared to sum up labor's reaction to Gen. Clay's resignation by saying that "our complaints go much deeper than personalities, and into fundamental differences that probably can be settled only by President Truman."

He said, however, that Gen. Clay's withdrawal "may make things easier" for a reconciliation between labor and the mobilization chiefs.

'Not Significant'

James B. Carey, CIO Secretary-Treasurer, said Gen. Clay's resignation was not "very significant" unless it foreshadows "more teamwork" in the mobilization program. He hinted that labor would violently object to a "big business" man as Gen. Clay's successor.

President Walter P. Reuther of the CIO United Auto Workers said Gen. Clay's action "means little."

Labor's dispute with the Office of Defense Mobilization, he said, is a "fight over principles, not personalities."
