

Severe Snow And Sleet Storm Rages Across New England

Cuts Path Through East To the Coast

By United Press

A severe snow and sleet storm raged across New England Saturday after blanketing the Midwest with snow and ice that broke communications lines and glazed highways dangerously.

The storm cut along a path from western Pennsylvania through upper New York State to the Atlantic Coast.

Portland, Me., was buried under a 12-inch snow cover, six inches of which fell in a six-hour period, and it was still snowing heavily. The southern reaches of New England suffered severe glazing. New York City and coastal areas to the south were doused by rain.

18 Inches of Snow in Maine

Some parts of northern Maine had 18 inches of snow on the ground.

Two persons died while shoveling away snow in northern New England. One hardware store in Concord, N. H., which had 10 inches of snow, sold 67 shovels in six hours.

The weather bureau warned against unnecessary travel in Maine and New Hampshire. Freezing temperature was forecast for tomorrow.

The storm was blamed for at least nine traffic deaths and scores of injuries in the Midwest.

Southern Illinois was hit hardest with thousands of homes and business firms cut off from power and communications. Only one long distance line was open to Cairo, Ill., and all service was knocked out to nearby cities.

1000 Homes Without Heat

More than 1000 homes in the Cairo area were without light, heat or telephone service.

The Midwest was promised a comparatively mild week-end but forecasters warned that a storm was "trying to get started" over Missouri and could follow the same path as the present blow.

Another storm was sweeping inland of the Pacific along the Oregon and Washington coasts and forecasters said it would bring snow to the northern Rockies Sunday. It might, they said, move into the northern plains Monday if it picked up strength.

The warmer weather in Iowa created a fog in which four young persons were killed when they drove their automobile into the side of a freight train near Oran, Iowa.

45 Hurt in Train Wreck

Forty-five persons were injured, four seriously, when a Chicago "L" train crashed into the rear of another train on snow-packed tracks.

Most of the other deaths in the Midwest resulted when autos or trucks skidded on highways.

Forecasters said the ice extended from Kansas east through Ohio into the area hit by the storm Saturday. Sub-zero temperatures kept the ice from thawing in Kansas and western Missouri but forecasters said states east of there might have temperatures "a few degrees above" freezing Sunday.

Gun Victim Blames Self

By United Press

CLEVELAND, Jan. 5 — The wife and ex-sweetie of a garage mechanic who trapped him "keeping company" with a 17-year-old baby sitter and shot him four times were charged today with "shooting to kill" although the victim refused to prosecute.

"I blame no one but myself," 30-year-old Andrew O'Conor said from his hospital bed where he is reported in fair condition.

Nevertheless, police lodged charges against his wife, Doris, 28, and Mrs. Mary Virzi, 28, the spurned sweetheart, who lived in the same house with the O'Conors and their five children. O'Conor, detectives said, would be subpoenaed to testify when he is able.

The third female in the "love trap" shooting, Velma Ash, 17, was released by police after she was kept in jail overnight. Police said they learned the teenager came here from her home in Marfrance, W. Va., last August to act as a baby sitter for relatives here.

Soviet Press Blast 'Horrors' in Japan

MOSCOW, Jan. 5 (UPI) — The Soviet press charged today that the "horrors" of the American occupation of Japan have produced the highest death rate and the lowest birth rate in that country in half a century.

Extraordinary attention was given Japanese affairs by all segments of the press here for the fifth successive day, following Generalissimo Josef Stalin's New Year's message to the Japanese people.

Pravda and other newspapers devoted almost a full page to reports of the favorable reactions in Japan, China, Korea, India, Iran and East Europe to Stalin's message expressing sympathy with the Japanese people and their aspirations for "independence."

Cardinal in Formosa

TAIPEI, Formosa, Jan. 5 (UPI) — Francis Cardinal Spellman of New York arrived here today from Tokyo to confer with Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek and other Nationalist China officials.
