

U.S. Collects $27 Million In Drive Against Racketeers

M'Grath Asks Special Grand Jury Action in 93 Federal Areas

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7 (UP)—Internal Revenue Commissioner John B. Dunlap disclosed yesterday that Treasury agents have collected $27,360,000 in the past eight months in a wholesale crackdown on racketeers.

Mr. Dunlap made his announcement on the heels of an order by Attorney General J. Howard McGrath to get up immediately special grand juries in each of the 93 federal districts to break up organized crime and racketeering.

Mr. McGrath announced the creation of a special racket unit to co-ordinate the drive and directed U. S. attorneys in each district to hit at the underworld at every level with the goal of ending evils exposed by the Senate crime investigating committee.

Officials feel that the two-pronged drive—the Internal Revenue Bureau and the Justice Department—will have the effect of both collecting outstanding taxes and of driving many racketeers out of business.

Hit Big Bosses.

Mr. Dunlap said the bureau has been conducting an extensive drive on the big bosses and small fry of the underworld to make them pay income taxes. He said the money collected has come from back taxes, tax penalties and interest on unpaid taxes.

Resume Search For Missing Plane On Lake Michigan

MILWAUKEE, Jan. 7.—The Coast Guard cutter Sundew stood by today to resume the search for a private plane missing in Lake Michigan with a physician and three of his children aboard.

The cutter returned to port here yesterday after finding articles from the plane on the surface of "rubbish" ice 10 miles off the coast of Racine, Wis. The spot was marked with a buoy.

Identification of the plane was made from the log book which was found along with the other debris. The plane itself was not located.

THE LIGHT CRAFT was piloted by Dr. George Thill, 48, a prominent Milwaukee physician. He was flying home from a Florida vacation.

His wife, Marion, also was en route from Ft. Lauderdale, Fla., with the couple's fourth child. She was to arrive last night. She had not yet heard of the tragedy.

The couple's four children are Lois, 18; Nancy, 16; James, 13; and Mary Beth, 12. Which three were with Dr. Thill was not known.

Dr. Thill was last heard from Saturday when he radioed Billy Mitchell Field in Milwaukee and said he was coming to land. Earlier, he stopped to refuel at Evansville, Ind., where airport officials said he was accompanied by two girls and a boy.

Hoodlums Score Victory—One-Man Crime Crusader, Badly Beaten, to Pull Stakes

NORTHLAKE, Ill., Jan. 7 (UP)—The Chicago underworld won a victory yesterday.

It is chasing Robert H. Niemeyer out of town.

Mr. Niemeyer, 47, was a one-man citizen crusader in this Chicago suburb until several months ago, when he was beaten almost to death by hoodlums.

Now he said he has had enough and will move away as soon as he can find a place to go.

His brutal beating with baseball bats generated a wave of public indignation and fears by high officials that the private citizen no longer is safe. He speaks out against organized crime.

Blame Crime Syndicate

Police said the beating undoubtedly was the work of crime syndicate hoodlums, but they have not been able to find the culprits.

Mr. Niemeyer was a salesman for a dairy who moved his family to Northlake 11 years ago. He took an active interest in his community, but soon decided that syndicate gambling flourished altogether too freely.

He made investigations of his own and turned his information over to police.

Then, last Oct. 3, four hoodlums forced him into a car and took him to a lonely road. There they clubbed him with baseball bats, starting at the shoe tops and working up to the shoulders.

Badly Beaten

Mr. Niemeyer suffered broken legs, kneecaps, arms, thighs and shoulders, as well as internal injuries. "Miraculously, he recovered."

No one knows whether the hoodlums meant to kill him—as the syndicate has pulled off several slayings recently to choke off threats to its organization—merely teach him a lesson.

Mr. Niemeyer, who came home from a hospital just before Christmas, said he had learned his lesson.

"It's hard for me to measure the suffering and anxiety caused by the results," he said slowly. "I don't know if it's worth it."

He said that what happened to him has "aroused people, but it's hard to tell how long their ardor will last."

Must Leave Home

In the end, he said, he has decided that he must leave his home.

"It was the place where we were always going to stay, but now we feel we've got to let it go," he said.

SOME FUN—Officer Edward Colseth catches Stephen Hirsch (left) and Franklin Narbert, both 12, as they were about to "pepper" him with snowball barrage in Chicago today. Kids throughout the city were having a great time playing in the freshly fallen snow.

A 'New Milk' Coming Out

By Harold Hartley

THERE'LL BE a new milk out tomorrow. New bottle, too.

It ought to make the cow ashamed, feeling like a loafer. It will have all the vitamins you need, all except one.

For that you eat an orange.

Democratic Fight Here In 2d Round

By JOE ALLISON

Embattled Marion County Democrats, locked in a faction fight for party control, are expected to open the second round tonight in the Indiana Democratic Club.

In the meeting, called by retiring County Chairman Paul McDuff, the factions will seek support for their candidates for the party helm.

Three candidates have been named for the job, to be filled in a party vote Wednesday.

Organization supported Democrats, headed by Mr. McDuff, are W. Dan Kibler and Harry Gasper.

Opposing and supported by Judge Phillip Bayt and former Congressman Andrew Jacobs is David M. Lewis.

The battle was forced into the open last week when Mr. McDuff revealed he would retire and indicated he would support Mr. Kibler.

The Bayt-Jacobs faction is seeking to oust Mr. McDuff and his supporters, charging them with responsibility for the thumping party defeat in the fall majority election.

Mr. Jacobs also charges he is fighting to rout National Democratic Chairman Frank E. McKinney and National Committee man Frank McHale from influence in the county.

Speculation Gov. Schricker will support the Bayt-Jacobs group was given added strength today when it was revealed Thomas Hent, state labor commissioner, lent his office to the group for a policy meeting yesterday.

Hint Schricker 'Protection'

Bayt-Jacobs supporters have been depending on rumors the Governor will offer "protection" to Statehouse workers who support the anti-McHale forces.

The meeting today will be of ward and township chairmen and precinct committeemen from the 16th to 26th wards and the nine townships. Party workers from the First to 15th Wards met in a shouting, first-shaking session Saturday.

Key battle in the Wednesday election will be the Bayt-Jacobs demand for use of voting machines and a voice in the convention rules committee.

U. S. Narcotics Chief Bares New 'Red Front'

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7 (UP)—Federal Narcotics Commissioner Harry J. Anslinger called attention yesterday to what he facetiously described as a "new Communist front."

He said federal agents in Hawaii recently made a large haul of heroin from Red China when they arrested a woman carrying a "large quantity in her false teeth."

Mr. Anslinger also reported that the bureau's hopes of making large-scale arrests in the islands as part of last week's general narcotics roundup were dashed when the Hawaiian underworld was tipped off in advance.

Truman and Winnie Down To Business

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—President Truman and British Prime Minister Winston Churchill began today their formal conferences which may have far-reaching effects on future world events.

After a week-end of reviewing the general international situation, the two leaders plan to get down to brass tacks on specific issues at their four "plenary sessions" at the White House today and tomorrow.

Before the day is over many specific subjects will have been put in the mill. The procedure is for both sides to submit memoranda expressing each side's views for subsequent work by specialists.

Mr. Churchill and Mr. Truman will be surrounded by their top diplomatic, military and economic advisers.

The formal agenda still is flexible, but already includes just about every major issue. Prominent among them is Mr. Churchill's strident attack on the Atlantic Pact organization, which is expected to get considerable attention.

The British leader already has been assured of support from Mr. Truman for a major Anglo-American campaign to make future meetings of the 12-pact Allies smaller, less unwieldy and more effective.

Hog Prices Dip Here

Trading in hogs at the Indianapolis Stockyards today was moderately active. Barrows and gilts were 25 cents to mostly 50 cents lower than on Friday.

Steers, yearlings and heifers were moderately active and holding fully steady. Cows were steady early. Late bids were tending to run a little lower.

Slaughter lambs were slow and about steady. Good to choice prime woolled natives brought $30-$31.

Total sales and prices: Hogs, 13,000; yearlings active, barrows and gilts, 25 to mostly 50 cents lower than on Friday, $18.75 to $19.75; steers, 240-275 pounds, $12.50-13.50; yearlings, 115-135 pounds, $11.75-12.75; cows, 115-135 pounds, $11.75-12.75; heifers, 115-135 pounds, $11.75-12.75; calves, 115-135 pounds, $11.75-12.75; lambs, 115-135 pounds, $11.75-12.75; natives, 115-135 pounds, $11.75-12.75.
