Reds Reject Plan For Exchange Of POWs

Unsuitable,
They Report
To Allies

By United Press
PANMUNJOM, Korea, Jan. 8.—The United Nations rewrote its war prisoner exchange program today in an attempt to meet Communist objections, but the Reds said it still is "unacceptable."

Communist "negotiators" in the prisoner subcommittee nevertheless were unusually amicable in contrast to their recalcitrant hostility yesterday.

The Reds also were less antagonistic in the truce supervision subcommittee, but they still stubbornly refused to agree to a ban on airfield repair and construction during an armistice.

EIGHTH ARMY HEADQUARTERS, Korea, Jan. 8 (UPI)—Counter-attacking Communists recaptured two bitterly-contested positions in western Korea today only a few hours after United Nations forces ousted them.

The Reds took one objective in a furious hour and 20-minute assault at two-battalion strength and recaptured the second in an hour and 39 minutes with one battalion. Both battles ended almost simultaneously.

Only a few hours earlier United Nations forces had stormed back into the strategic advanced positions west of Korangpo they had lost to the Reds Dec. 28 and had since fought for in see-saw battles. The first objective fell in a 15-minute fight and the second after 10 minutes.
