

'They're All Mine,' Says Pop—

Quads Born on Farm Reported 'Doing Well'

By United Press

MURFREESBORO, Ark., Jan. 15—Quadruplets—three boys and a girl—born in the three-room home of a low-income farm family, were reported "doing well" today after their surprised father rushed them to a hospital in the family car.

The infants, identified simply as "A, B, C and D" at the Howard County Memorial Hospital, were placed immediately in an incubator after they arrived, wrapped in blankets in the arms of George Ponder, their father.

Mrs. Ponder, a 38-year-old woman, "felt fine," her doctor reported. The Ponders already have eight children, four boys and four girls.

Superintendent of Nurses Nancy Ramage said the babies "seem to be doing well. They're very tiny, but we hope they will live."

The births began about 7 p.m. last night. The delivery was at them.

Delivered by Dr. M. B. Duncan, who tended by Dr. M. B. Duncan, who delivered seven of the Ponders' other children.

No Complications

The first to be born was the girl. Ten minutes later the first boy arrived, 20 minutes after that the second, and at 7:45 o'clock the last child was born—all of them normally and without complications, Dr. Duncan said.

Within 15 minutes, the doctor and Mr. Ponder took them in his car to Nashville, 15 miles away. It took him almost an hour to get to the hospital over the rough hills.

"I've got four babies," he announced breathlessly at the hospital. "They're all mine."

Doctors and nurses quickly placed the babies in two incubators without stopping to think of names for the four babies.

Two Officers Killed at San Quentin

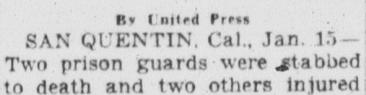

Officer Wiget

Officer Mackin

Burwell

Rogers

By United Press
SAN QUENTIN, Cal., Jan. 15

Two prison guards were stabbed to death and two others injured by an enraged convict, wielding one blade of a 12-inch pair of shears.

Prison officials said that Eugene Burwell, 24, a convict from Los Angeles, was motivated to kill his brother because he felt himself the object of long-standing discrimination.

They said Burwell, accompanied by another prisoner, James A. Rogers, 22, executed the slayings in a stealthy silence as a basketball game was being played between the prison team and an Army squad from San Francisco last night.

Harley O. Teets, newly-appointed warden, identified as the assailant, was stabbed to death by an enraged convict, wielding one blade of a 12-inch pair of shears.

He grabbed me," said Sgt. B. Dalba, New York, N. Y. "He had come down the hill for more ammunition. There was a funny look in his eyes. He said 'I got an even dozen'."

Brother Killed in February

Asked why he had made his one-man attack on a position held by 70 Reds, Pvt. Rosser said nervously:

"My kid brother was killed with the 1st Cavalry Division last February."

Cpl. Jack Watson of New Albany, Ind., said:

"The last I saw of him he was over the ridge in a puff of smoke. He appeared and then disappeared. It was better than any picture I ever saw."

Pvt. Rosser killed all the

Avenges Kid Brother's Death—

Soft-Spoken GI Kills 16 Reds Single-Handed

By United Press
ON THE CENTRAL FRONT, Korea, Jan. 15—A soft-spoken Ohio infantryman has avenged his "kid" brother's death and his buddies said today, probably won the Congressional Medal of Honor as well.

Pvt. Ronald E. Rosser, 24, Crooksville, O., would say little of his one-man charge up a Red-held hill in which he killed 16 Communists.

But, his buddies told of his ferocious attack, how he fired his carbine with one hand and hurled grenades with the other. Twice he swarmed up the hill in a haze of mortar and small arms cross fire.

"He was just like a madman up there," said Lt. Charles W. Williams, Holbrook, Mass., leader of the patrol which—Pvt. Rosser sparked.

"I saw him when he came down for the first time," Cpl. Stan J. Kalas, Chicago, said. "He looked satisfied as if he had accounted for something."

"He grabbed me," said Sgt. B. Dalba, New York, N. Y. "He had come down the hill for more ammunition. There was a funny look in his eyes. He said 'I got an even dozen'."

In Korea since Aug. 15, 1951, Pvt. Rosser has been in the Army since 1946. He suffered a slight wound in his left forefinger in his charge.

"I heard him shout 'I'll be waiting for them at the top,' when he ran up the hill," said Lt. James K. Blackman, Hartsville, S. C.

In Korea since Aug. 15, 1951, Pvt. Rosser has been in the Army since 1946. He suffered a slight wound in his left forefinger in his charge.

"I've never seen anything like it," Pvt. Smith said. "All the time he was running up the hill he was yelling and urging the men on."

"I heard him shout 'I'll be waiting for them at the top,' when he ran up the hill," said Lt. James K. Blackman, Hartsville, S. C.

In Korea since Aug. 15, 1951, Pvt. Rosser has been in the Army since 1946. He suffered a slight wound in his left forefinger in his charge.

"I heard him shout 'I'll be waiting for them at the top,' when he ran up the hill," said Lt. James K. Blackman, Hartsville, S. C.

In Korea since Aug. 15, 1951, Pvt. Rosser has been in the Army since 1946. He suffered a slight wound in his left forefinger in his charge.

"I heard him shout 'I'll be waiting for them at the top,' when he ran up the hill," said Lt. James K. Blackman, Hartsville, S. C.

In Korea since Aug. 15, 1951, Pvt. Rosser has been in the Army since 1946. He suffered a slight wound in his left forefinger in his charge.

"I heard him shout 'I'll be waiting for them at the top,' when he ran up the hill," said Lt. James K. Blackman, Hartsville, S. C.

In Korea since Aug. 15, 1951, Pvt. Rosser has been in the Army since 1946. He suffered a slight wound in his left forefinger in his charge.

"I heard him shout 'I'll be waiting for them at the top,' when he ran up the hill," said Lt. James K. Blackman, Hartsville, S. C.

In Korea since Aug. 15, 1951, Pvt. Rosser has been in the Army since 1946. He suffered a slight wound in his left forefinger in his charge.

"I heard him shout 'I'll be waiting for them at the top,' when he ran up the hill," said Lt. James K. Blackman, Hartsville, S. C.

In Korea since Aug. 15, 1951, Pvt. Rosser has been in the Army since 1946. He suffered a slight wound in his left forefinger in his charge.

"I heard him shout 'I'll be waiting for them at the top,' when he ran up the hill," said Lt. James K. Blackman, Hartsville, S. C.

In Korea since Aug. 15, 1951, Pvt. Rosser has been in the Army since 1946. He suffered a slight wound in his left forefinger in his charge.

"I heard him shout 'I'll be waiting for them at the top,' when he ran up the hill," said Lt. James K. Blackman, Hartsville, S. C.

In Korea since Aug. 15, 1951, Pvt. Rosser has been in the Army since 1946. He suffered a slight wound in his left forefinger in his charge.

"I heard him shout 'I'll be waiting for them at the top,' when he ran up the hill," said Lt. James K. Blackman, Hartsville, S. C.

In Korea since Aug. 15, 1951, Pvt. Rosser has been in the Army since 1946. He suffered a slight wound in his left forefinger in his charge.

"I heard him shout 'I'll be waiting for them at the top,' when he ran up the hill," said Lt. James K. Blackman, Hartsville, S. C.

In Korea since Aug. 15, 1951, Pvt. Rosser has been in the Army since 1946. He suffered a slight wound in his left forefinger in his charge.

"I heard him shout 'I'll be waiting for them at the top,' when he ran up the hill," said Lt. James K. Blackman, Hartsville, S. C.

In Korea since Aug. 15, 1951, Pvt. Rosser has been in the Army since 1946. He suffered a slight wound in his left forefinger in his charge.

"I heard him shout 'I'll be waiting for them at the top,' when he ran up the hill," said Lt. James K. Blackman, Hartsville, S. C.

In Korea since Aug. 15, 1951, Pvt. Rosser has been in the Army since 1946. He suffered a slight wound in his left forefinger in his charge.

"I heard him shout 'I'll be waiting for them at the top,' when he ran up the hill," said Lt. James K. Blackman, Hartsville, S. C.

In Korea since Aug. 15, 1951, Pvt. Rosser has been in the Army since 1946. He suffered a slight wound in his left forefinger in his charge.

"I heard him shout 'I'll be waiting for them at the top,' when he ran up the hill," said Lt. James K. Blackman, Hartsville, S. C.

In Korea since Aug. 15, 1951, Pvt. Rosser has been in the Army since 1946. He suffered a slight wound in his left forefinger in his charge.

"I heard him shout 'I'll be waiting for them at the top,' when he ran up the hill," said Lt. James K. Blackman, Hartsville, S. C.

In Korea since Aug. 15, 1951, Pvt. Rosser has been in the Army since 1946. He suffered a slight wound in his left forefinger in his charge.

"I heard him shout 'I'll be waiting for them at the top,' when he ran up the hill," said Lt. James K. Blackman, Hartsville, S. C.

In Korea since Aug. 15, 1951, Pvt. Rosser has been in the Army since 1946. He suffered a slight wound in his left forefinger in his charge.

"I heard him shout 'I'll be waiting for them at the top,' when he ran up the hill," said Lt. James K. Blackman, Hartsville, S. C.

In Korea since Aug. 15, 1951, Pvt. Rosser has been in the Army since 1946. He suffered a slight wound in his left forefinger in his charge.

"I heard him shout 'I'll be waiting for them at the top,' when he ran up the hill," said Lt. James K. Blackman, Hartsville, S. C.

In Korea since Aug. 15, 1951, Pvt. Rosser has been in the Army since 1946. He suffered a slight wound in his left forefinger in his charge.

"I heard him shout 'I'll be waiting for them at the top,' when he ran up the hill," said Lt. James K. Blackman, Hartsville, S. C.

In Korea since Aug. 15, 1951, Pvt. Rosser has been in the Army since 1946. He suffered a slight wound in his left forefinger in his charge.

"I heard him shout 'I'll be waiting for them at the top,' when he ran up the hill," said Lt. James K. Blackman, Hartsville, S. C.

In Korea since Aug. 15, 1951, Pvt. Rosser has been in the Army since 1946. He suffered a slight wound in his left forefinger in his charge.

"I heard him shout 'I'll be waiting for them at the top,' when he ran up the hill," said Lt. James K. Blackman, Hartsville, S. C.

In Korea since Aug. 15, 1951, Pvt. Rosser has been in the Army since 1946. He suffered a slight wound in his left forefinger in his charge.

"I heard him shout 'I'll be waiting for them at the top,' when he ran up the hill," said Lt. James K. Blackman, Hartsville, S. C.

In Korea since Aug. 15, 1951, Pvt. Rosser has been in the Army since 1946. He suffered a slight wound in his left forefinger in his charge.

"I heard him shout 'I'll be waiting for them at the top,' when he ran up the hill," said Lt. James K. Blackman, Hartsville, S. C.

In Korea since Aug. 15, 1951, Pvt. Rosser has been in the Army since 1946. He suffered a slight wound in his left forefinger in his charge.

"I heard him shout 'I'll be waiting for them at the top,' when he ran up the hill," said Lt. James K. Blackman, Hartsville, S. C.

In Korea since Aug. 15, 1951, Pvt. Rosser has been in the Army since 1946. He suffered a slight wound in his left forefinger in his charge.

"I heard him shout 'I'll be waiting for them at the top,' when he ran up the hill," said Lt. James K. Blackman, Hartsville, S. C.

In Korea since Aug. 15, 1951, Pvt. Rosser has been in the Army since 1946. He suffered a slight wound in his left forefinger in his charge.

"I heard him shout 'I'll be waiting for them at the top,' when he ran up the hill," said Lt. James K. Blackman, Hartsville, S. C.

In Korea since Aug. 15, 1951, Pvt. Rosser has been in the Army since 1946. He suffered a slight wound in his left forefinger in his charge.

"I heard him shout 'I'll be waiting for them at the top,' when he ran up the hill," said Lt. James K. Blackman, Hartsville, S. C.

In Korea since Aug. 15, 1951, Pvt. Rosser has been in the Army since 1946. He suffered a slight wound in his left forefinger in his charge.

"I heard him shout 'I'll be waiting for them at the top,' when he ran up the hill," said Lt. James K. Blackman, Hartsville, S. C.

In Korea since Aug. 15, 1951, Pvt. Rosser has been in the Army since 1946. He suffered a slight wound in his left forefinger in his charge.

"I heard him shout 'I'll be waiting for them at the top,' when he ran up the hill," said Lt. James K. Blackman, Hartsville, S. C.

In Korea since Aug. 15, 1951, Pvt. Rosser has been in the Army since 1946. He suffered a slight wound in his left forefinger in his charge.

"I heard him shout 'I'll be waiting for them at the top,' when he ran up the hill," said Lt. James K. Blackman, Hartsville, S. C.

In Korea since Aug. 15, 1951, Pvt. Rosser has been in the Army since 1946. He suffered a slight wound in his left forefinger in his charge.

"I heard him shout 'I'll be waiting for them at the top,' when he ran up the hill," said Lt. James K. Blackman, Hartsville, S. C.

In Korea since Aug. 15, 1951, Pvt. Rosser has been in the Army since 1946. He suffered a slight wound in his left forefinger in his charge.

"I heard him shout 'I'll be waiting for them at the top,' when he ran up the hill," said Lt. James K. Blackman, Hartsville, S. C.

In Korea since Aug. 15, 1951, Pvt. Rosser has been in the Army since 1946. He suffered a slight wound in his left forefinger in his charge.

"I heard him shout 'I'll be waiting for them at the top,' when he ran up the hill," said Lt. James K. Blackman, Hartsville, S. C.

In Korea since Aug. 15, 1951, Pvt. Rosser has been in the Army since 1946. He suffered a slight wound in his left forefinger in his charge.

"I heard him shout 'I'll be waiting for them at the top,' when he ran