

In Hollywood—

Zsa Zsa Says No Cheesecake

By Erskine Johnson

HOLLYWOOD, Mar. 31.—Exclusively Yours: Zsa Zsa Gabor will go as far as the movie censors will allow in her strip-tease scene in MGM's "Lili," but she's putting: "No cheesecake pictures, please!"

"I don't sink I have to do cheesecake. Why should I? I don't want it. It's enough at Hollywood underdresses me in my fourth movie."

The Gabor answer to movie-town meow-girls who say that her anti-cheesecake policy is dictated by a realization that the rest of Zsa Zsa doesn't match her Helen-of-Troyish face:

"I have a very good figure. I up over those rumors that she's had to wear a bathing suit and be approved by six producers before I got his new part. One producer looked at me and said it was a pity she didn't sell tickets for a city event."

LIZ TAYLOR's new hubby can start blushing. A local theater is billing him as "Michael Wilding—Mr. Elizabeth Taylor." Big buzz in London, incidentally, is that Liz and Mike already are hiring the nursery. Director Arthur Lubin's given up trying to snag Mike West for a movie "mother" role. She's saying she'll do a "Diamond Lil" character, or none at all.

Shelley Winter's latest word on her romance with Vittorio Gassman: "He's doing great things for the temperament." . . . Sammy Davis Jr., a big click on Eddie Cantor's TV show, has been signed for Tony Martin's next musical at RKO. . . . It's wedding bells in September for Frank Westmore, youngest of the make-up clan, and Ginger Clayton, a red-haired skater with the Ice Follies.

BORIS KARLOFF on the plot of "The Black Castle": "In the opening scene I bury a man alive and then on it gets gruesome. Karloff goes to England for a movie in August. It may be Poe's 'The Telltale Heart.'"

Scott Brady's quoting a movie chorus girl who said she could hardly wait to see "Viva Zapata." She told Scott: "I remember Viva well."

KATHRYN GRAYSON is about to give MGM publicity chiefs a reason for gulping headache tablets. For the first time in her career, she's hiring an independent press agent—though her studio contract strictly forbids it. . . . Wally's daughter, Carol Ann Beery, has pulled out

Mrs. Myerson Greeted Here

Mrs. Golda Myerson, Minister of Labor of the State of Israel, was greeted by more than 400 persons who attended the dinner in her honor at the Claypool Hotel last night.

Making a plea for Americans to help Israel to help itself, Mrs. Myerson asked support of the $500 million Israel Bond Issue.

Eddie Cantor addressed the dinner meeting by long distance phone from Hollywood. Yesterday was proclaimed "Golda Myerson Day" by both Gov. Henry F. Schriener and Mayor Clark. She was presented the key to Indianapolis by the city controller, acting in the Mayor's absence.

Civic Group Begins Scrap Metal Drive

A scrap metal drive sponsored by the Woodruff Place Civic League begins today with a house-to-house survey. Collections of scrap are scheduled for Saturday and Sunday.

Money obtained from sale of the scrap will be used by the league to buy trees for fall planting. Clarence J. East, 851 West Drive, is head of the drive.

John Payne's Groans After Couple of Live TV Shows in New York

"They give you a script that weighs as much as the telephone book and eight days to memorize your lines. It's day and night stuff. But when you've stuffed down that many lines, you get a new confidence as an actor. You feel you're learning your trade."

CLAUDETTE COLBERT is eating canned U. S. baby foods in her dressing room at a British film studio and surprised Londoners are gasping, "Blimmy."

LOU COSTELLO was having trouble conquering a scene for "Abbott and Costello Meet Captain Kidd," in which he kisses Fran Warren and she swoons. "Come on, Lou," urged Director Charles Lamont after several takes.

"Look, Charlie," grinned Lou, "I'm no Errol Flynn. I need time for these scenes."

Nine Rescued Off Arctic Floe

PT. BARROW, Alaska, Mar. 31 (UP)—Nine men who had been stranded on an Arctic ice floe 779 miles north of here since Thursday were rescued by a ski-equipped patrol bomber. All survivors were in good condition, the Navy reported today.

The successful pickup was made yesterday by Cmdr. V. J. Coley, officer-in-charge of the Navy's "Operation Ski Jump," designed to set up oceanographic and weather stations on the polar ice cap.

Cmdr. Coley radioed the base here that he, as co-pilot and six other men were able to land their twin-engine craft after bad weather had blocked previous attempts.

The marooned men were taken aboard along with 2000 pounds of scientific equipment from the downed R-4D, which was abandoned. The men are being returned here.
