

List Prizes For Indiana Art Exhibit

Prizes totaling $1500 will be awarded at the 45th annual Indiana Artists Exhibition to be held in Herron Art Museum May 4 through June 1.

The oldest continuously held state art show, this year's exhibit will be judged by a committee including Henry Varnum Poor, New York painter; Joe Jones, painter, Morristown, N. J.; and Hubert Albright, sculptor, Iowa City, Iowa.

Prizes to be awarded are: For the most meritorious work of art in any medium, Art Association prize of $300 and Alumni Association prize of $100.

For the best oil painting: Board of Directors prize, $200; Keeling & Co. prize, $150; and J. I. Holcomb prize, $100.

For the best water color painting: Mrs. Edgar H. Evans prize, $100; Junior League prize, $100; and Art Association water color prize, $50.

For the best portrait in a pictorial medium: Portrait prize, $200.

For the best piece of sculpture: Morris Goodman prize, $150.

Tarkington Award

For the most popular work, chosen by ballot, the Booth Tarkington prize of $50.

The Tarkington prize again will be presented by Mrs. Tarkington as a memorial to the late Indiana author and art connoisseur, who for many years was chairman of the board of fine arts of the Art Association of Indianapolis.

Wilbur D. Peat, director of the museum, announces that Apr. 14 is the last day the museum will honor entry forms, and Apr. 16 is the last day that entries will be received. Works will be accepted in the following media only: Oil, water color, tempera, casein, pastel and encaustic, and in sculpture, any durable material such as wood, bronze, plaster, plastic or terra cotta.

A preview dinner will be held May 3 under the auspices of the Alumni Association of Herron Art School.

Bert Boyd, Grain Agent, Dies in South

Bert A. Boyd, Indianapolis' first grain commission agent, died last night at Hendersonville, N. C., where he had lived since 1934.

Born in Richmond, Mr. Boyd opened the first grain commission business here in 1902. He was associated with the Indianapolis Board of Trade and Indiana Grain Dealers' Association 27 years.

He was elected president of the grain association in 1913 after serving as treasurer. He served nearly 30 years as a member of the Board of Trade's governing committee.

Retiring in 1927, Mr. Boyd traveled throughout Europe and South America. He moved to Hendersonville after the death of his wife, Frances.

He belonged to the Ancient Landmarks Masonic Lodge, Scottish Rite, Murat Shrine and Indianapolis Rotary Club.

Funeral arrangements are incomplete here. Burial will be in Crown Hill Cemetery.

Deputies Seize 29 Slot Machines In Greenfield

GREENFIELD, Mar. 31—State and local police and sheriff's deputies struck another "follow-up" blow at the Alpine Amusement Co. when they seized 29 slot machines in a week-end raid here.

Four pinball machines also were confiscated in the raid on the home of Clarence Windgassen, whom Hancock County Sheriff Armin Kleiman described as the local representative of the Alpine firm.

Officers estimated value of their haul at more than $15,000.

Gambling equipment worth $400,000 had been grabbed in a raid on Alpine Amusement's big warehouse at Connersville Mar. 21.

And 51 slot machines and other gaming devices valued at $40,000 were seized in a raid on the home of one of the raid's incorporators at Connersville last Wednesday.

"With another five slot machines we got in a raid last December, we now have about $20,000 worth of Alpine's property right here," Sheriff Kleiman said.

"The raid at Windgassen's home was a follow-up of those at Connersville," the sheriff added. The raid was made on a search warrant.

Windgassen was free on $500 bond.

Ex-Policeman's Home Looted by Burglars

A $4000 mink coat and a $500 watch were overlooked by a burglary team which looted an ex-policeman's home in a week-end flurry of crime here.

Meanwhile, two burglars escaped after a running gun battle with police, two safes were carried off, robbers held up two service stations, and two men were arrested after their story didn't convince police.

Working by flashlight, burglars ransacked the home of George Liese, 2302 English Ave., late Saturday, grabbing about $300 in personal goods, but overlooking the mink coat, watch and a money box containing $85.

Drop Electric Mixer

According to Mr. Liese, former city policeman, who now owns a tavern, he surprised the veges at their work when he returned home Saturday night. In their haste to get away, one dropped an electric mixer on the back steps.

He said the money box had been laid out by the burglars, but left behind in their rush to get away. They did take two pairs of Mrs. Marie Liese's shoes valued at $40 and a suitcase loaded with other small articles. Burned match stubs were scattered throughout the house, he said.

Early today police closed in on the Central Tavern, 1833 Central Ave., in response to an automatic burglar alarm.

Two men, who had tried open the front door, fled in opposite directions as police arrived.

Returned Fire

Chasing one man, Patrolman Gerald Viles fired one shot, then two more shots sounded. Officer Viles thought his partner, Patrolman James Burke, also was shooting. Later, he discovered it was the yegg returning his fire.

The other thief, chased by another squad of police, nearly hanged himself running into two
