

Two Seized In Death of Shop Owner

BLOOMINGTON, Ill., May 22.—A clothing shop proprietor was beaten to death yesterday in his store and police held two men for questioning.

Sam Lomasky, 38-year-old Polish-born merchant, was found lying in a pool of blood on the floor of his store. He was pronounced dead upon arrival at a hospital.

Police picked up three men for questioning within an hour after the discovery, but released one later. They held Aaron Westerfeld, 22, and John Woods, 26, although both denied knowledge of the killing.

Police said they believed Mr. Lomasky was the victim of an attempted robbery. They found more than $400 in the store's cash register.

Political Roundup

Sen. Duff Coming Here June 4 To Spark Ike's Battle For Indiana

Eisenhower-for-President forces counter attacked in the bitter Taft-Eisenhower political battle in Indiana today with the announcement Sen. James H. Duff (R. Pa.) would come here to spearhead the fight.

County Clerk H. Dale Brown, top Eisenhower strategist in Indiana, disclosed Sen. Duff would put in an appearance here after it was announced Sen. Robert A. Taft and his campaign manager, David S. Ingalls, would be in town on the eve of the Republican State Convention.

Taft and Eisenhower forces are fighting for Indiana's 32 delegates to the GOP National Convention. Results of the primary and district elections indicate Sen. Taft will wind up with at least 28 delegates.

Sen. Duff, one of the original backers of Gen. Eisenhower for President along with Gov.

Thomas Dewey of New York, is into the Senatorial race soon. Scheduled to make a dinner address at the Columbia Club to either Congressman Winfield Dunn, Evansville, or former state delegates June 4. He was Congressmen Andrew Jacobs, Indianapolis, several weeks ago to spark an Eisenhower rally, but was unable to attend, so Mr. Ingalls is due here June 5. Sen. Taft will be host at a reception for delegates June 6 in the Claypool Hotel's Chateau Room.

Democratic Lineup

Mounting pressure is being exerted on Gov. Schricker to run for Senator as the new Democratic state committee gets organized.

The Governor is being approached on all levels—precinct workers and top party leaders—to get in and fight for victory in the fall.

If the Governor does not jump

William Wilson, Crawfordsville, has been mentioned for Secretary of State. Some local Democrats want Judge Phillip Bayt, former Mayor, to run for this post, but he has declined.

Deane Walker, Culver, would like to get his old job back as Superintendent of Public Instruction.

Miss Eudora Kelly, Nashville, is a candidate for re-election as Reporter of the Supreme Court.

Mr. Denton has the Democratic nomination for Congress now. If he steps out to run for the Senate, it will pave the way for State Sen. Leo Stemple, Jasper, to run for Congress from the Eighth District.

Other Democratic candidates: Spencer Walton, Mishawaka, has been mentioned for Lieutenant governor.

Elmer Hoenh, Jeffersonville, and Earl Everett, Muncie, both would like to be state treasurer.

Republican leaders who have joined in a "stop Fortune" drive for Lieutenant governor have as candidates for Governor. The politicians feel delegates will not nominate two men from same area and they realize Mr. Fortune is leading the field.

Others in race are Harold Handley, La Porte; Kenneth E. Blackwell, Franklin; Milford E. Anness, Metamora and Samuel Johnson, Anderson. More are comes from the same county expected.

Fugitive Draws Longer Sentence

A slippery prisoner who escaped from sheriff's deputies while being taken to the state farm last fall was placed behind bars today.

Judge Harry O. Chamberlin, Criminal Court 1, sentenced 26-year-old Robert Lewis, alias Wayne Miller, to 1 to 5 years in the state reformatory.

The fugitive, who pleaded guilty to escape, was traced early this month to Chicago where he was arrested and later returned

Morticians Hear Talk On Color Use

Effective use of color in industrial plants was discussed by George D. Gau at the Indiana Funeral Directors Association convention today at the State Fair Grounds. Mr. Gau is president of Color Analysis and Design Evaluation in Chicago.

Installation of officers is set for tonight following a banquet at Athenaeum Turners. Tomorrow delegates will view 75 exhibits at the Fair Grounds.

Lavelle Farmer, funeral director in Kalamazoo, Mich., yesterday told the convention: "Management and personnel should be on the same team, headed for the same goal post." To management he suggested: "Delegate authority to employees and they will take an interest in your business."
