injunction, or other proceedings whatever, shall progress, and be carried on, in the respective court or courts, in the same manner as is now provided by law, and all proceedings had therein, in as full and complete a manner as if this constitution were not adopted. And appeals and writs of error, may be taken from the circuit court, and general court, now established in the Indiana territory, to the supreme court in such manner as shall be provided for by law.

Sec. 8. The president of this convention shall issue writs of election, directed to the several sheriffs of the several counties, requiring them to cause an election to be held for governor, lieutenant-governor, representative to the congress of the United States, members of the general assembly, sheriffs, and coroners, at the respective election districts in each county, on the first Monday in August next: Which election shall be conducted in the manner prescribed by the existing election laws of the Indiana territory; and the said governor, lieutenant-governor, members of the general assembly, sheriffs, and coroners, then duly elected, shall continue to exercise the duties of their respective offices for the time prescribed by this constitution, and until their successor or successors are qualified, and no longer.

Sec. 9. Until the first enumeration shall be made, as directed by this constitution, the county of Wayne shall be entitled to one senator, and three representatives; the county of Franklin, one senator, and three representatives; the county of Dearborn, one senator, and two representatives; the county of Switzerland, one senator, and two representatives; and the county of Jefferson and Switzerland, one senator; and the county of Jefferson two representatives; the county of Clark, one senator and three representatives; the county of Harrison, one senator and three representatives; the counties of Washington, Orange and Jackson, one senator, and the county of Washington, two representatives; the counties of Orange and Jackson, one representative each; the county of Knox, one senator and three representatives; the county of Gibson one senator and two representatives; the counties of Posey, Warrick and Perry, one senator, and each of the aforesaid counties of Posey, Warrick, and Perry, one representative.

Sec. 10. All books, records, documents, warrants and papers, appertaining and belonging to the office of the territorial treasurer of the Indiana territory, and all monies therein, and all papers and documents in the office of the secretary of said territory, shall be disposed of as the general assembly of this state may direct.

Sec. 11. All suits, actions, pleas, complaints, prosecutions, and causes whatsoever, and all records, books, papers and documents, now in the general court, may be transferred to the supreme court established by this constitution: And all causes, suits, actions, pleas, complaints, and prosecutions whatsoever, now existing or pending in the circuit courts of this territory, or which may be therein at the change of government, and all records, books, papers and documents, relating to the said suits, or filed in the said courts, may be transferred over to the circuit courts established by this constitution, under such rules and regulations as the general assembly may direct.

Done in convention at Corydon, on the twenty-ninth day of June, in the year of our Lord eighteen hundred and sixteen, and of the Independence of the United States, the fortieth.

In witness whereof we have hereunto subscribed our names.

Strayed or stolen from the subscriber in Madison, Indiana, about the beginning of last summer, a light bay mare eleven years old, about fifteen hands high, a natural pacer, heavy made, rides clumsily; I believe one, if not both of her hind feet are white:—Also about the 8th instant, a bright bay mare six years old, about fifteen hands high, a natural trotter, shod before; her back has been hurt some time ago with the saddle.

Whoever will bring home or give information to me of either of said mares, so that I can get them, shall be liberally rewarded; and all reasonable expenses will be paid, by
