

To Subscribers.

Those gentlemen who have not taken their papers a way from this office, are respectfully requested to call for them, as the editor will not consider himself bound to keep a regular file, to be delivered once, twice or thrice in the year. That mode of doing business certainly was not contemplated, nor does the editor believe that it is implied in the conditions. There are five subscribers who have not yet had any of their papers.

Last Notice.

The subscriber will attend once more in Madison, at Mr. Maxwell's tavern on the first Monday of August next, for the purpose of taking a list of the taxable property that has not yet been listed. Those who have not given their lists are hereby notified to attend on said day and give a list as the law directs.

JAMES BURNS,
Lister for Madison township.

REMOVAL.

William Wallace,

TAILOR,

Respectfully informs the friends of an old soldier, that he has removed his shop from the white house on Main Cross-street, to the store house lately occupied by Mr. Boicourt, on Second-street, next door to Doctor Heath, where the old soldier will do his work on the shortest notice and the lowest price—He thanks his friends and the public for their liberal support one year that is past, and hopes a continuance of the same.

All those indebted to him will make immediate payment, as it is out of his power to lay out of his money any longer.

July 9, 1817. 29tf

JUST PUBLISHED,

And for sale at the German printing Office;

Lancaster, Ohio,

By the Groce, Dozen or Single, the Ohio Kentucky and Indiana GERMAN ALMANAC FOR 1818. Containing the Astronomical calculations and a variety of useful and entertaining pieces, and as to the quality of paper, workmanship, & the matter it contains the publisher flatters himself, that it will be exceeded by few (if any) German Almanac published to the eastward.

Storekeepers and others who purchase to sell again, may be supplied on as reasonable terms as they can be procured elsewhere.— Considerable sums of money are sent every year from the Western country for german Almanacs which in all probability will be forever lost to it; it therefore becomes the duty as well as the interest of every citizen to encourage such manufacturers as will retain the money in the country.—

JOHN HERMAN.

Lancaster June 5, 1817.

The Printers in Indiana & Ky. are requested to copy the above, and the favor shall be reciprocated when an opportunity offers.

Bacon hams will be received at market price.

Remedy for difficulty of Hearing

Dr. D. Green,

TAKES the liberty of informing the people, that he has discovered a very easy mode of assisting those who are hard of hearing.

Knowing that providence has permitted a remedy to grow to every disease, he has made it his study, this number of years past to try to find out this remedy.

At length he flatters himself being successful, more so, than any other man yet.

The remedy generally gives help, except to very old people who begin to lose their eye sight about the time that the hearing becomes weakened. To all others, it as yet, has seldom failed, restoring that great blessing of hearing.

The Medicine, with directions, can be sent to the patient by post or otherwise to any place, however distant. At the same time, it may be somewhat satisfactory to those distressed to know that they may pursue their business, to eat and drink what tastes best.

The preparing, transmission, postage, &c. of the remedy, will come to about five dollars.

This inclosed in a letter, with cover all expense to the patient.

One great object is to diffuse its benefits as far as possible; therefore, all printers who will give the above an occasional insertion, shall receive its advantages to themselves, or relatives, in thus assisting to place it within the reach of the distressed.

DOCTOR D. GREEN.
