

To all whom it may concern.

I shall apply to the register of the land office, at Jeffersonville, for a certificate for the south east quarter of section 26, in the 9th range, of the 5th town, as I had obtained said certificate and have lost the same by fire.

DAVID BRUTON.

June 28, 1817. 27-13W

Indiana Territory Jefferson County.

This day personally appeared before James Stott, one of the justices assigned to keep the peace for the county aforesaid, David Bruton and made oath that he obtained a certificate from the register of the land office at Jeffersonville, for the south east quarter of section 26, in the ninth range of the 5th town, of the district of land offered for sale at Jeffersonville; which certificate was destroyed by fire in his house which was burnt. Given under my hand and seal this 12th Feb. 1817.
