SPURIOUS BILLS.

A considerable quantity of spurious bills, drawn upon the Utica Bank, and signed John H. Winkles, president, and A. Woodbine, clerk, but which on cursory inspection, appear to be bills issued by the Bank of Utica, are in circulation in this quarter. We learn from the westward, that great quantities of these bills have been put off in Ohio and Kentucky, and that many merchants, supposing them to be Utica bank notes, have been induced to purchase them for western money, to a very large amount.—Your.

THIS is to forewarn all persons from trading for, or taking an assignment on notes given by me to William Hunt and co. for two lots sold in a fraudulent manner, in the town of New-London, Jefferson county, State of Indiana, two notes each for fifty dollars, due August 10th, 1817. For the above notes I am determined not to pay unless compelled by law.

JOSEPH FOWLER.

signment on two notes given by me to William Hunt, M'Farland and company, for a Lot in the town of New-London, known by its number Five, in Jefferson county, State of Indiana; as they cannot make a title to the Lots, and I am determined not to pay the above unless compelled by law.

One note for 110 dolls. and a 1-2 due the 10th of August 1816, the other for the same, due August 10th 1817.
