

THIS is to forewarn all persons from trading for, or taking an assignment on notes given by me to William Hunt and co. for two lots sold in a fraudulent manner, in the town of New-London, Jefferson county, State of Indiana, two notes each for fifty dollars, due August 10th, 1817. For the above notes I am determined not to pay unless compelled by law.

JOSEPH FOWLLER.

Aug. 25th, 1817. 36-3w

THIS is to forewarn all persons from trading for, or taking an assignment on two notes given by me to William Hunt, McFarland and company, for a Lot in the town of New-London, known by its number Five, in Jefferson county, State of Indiana; as they cannot make a title to the Lots, and I am determined not to pay the above unless compelled by law.

One note for 110 dollars, and a 1-2 due the 10th of August 1816, the other for the same, due August 10th 1817.

JOHN MILLER.
