

I was afterwards appointed District Attorney for the territory and since the formation of the constitution, have twice elected your representative in Congress. This fellow citizen's political history. No part of the scene is shaded with anti-

It is all of recent occurrence. It happened among you. The history of my life from cradle to the present day can be easily written. Most of the materials necessary would be in the recollection of those who have known me from childhood. This history would not be in it there would be no incident—no disgraceful one. And in answer to the question, I might say, that I have "one" very much "for my use."—have no "distinguished" of which to "boast."—no claim to other virtues, those of an "honest" man. Have no "vested right" present the people of Indiana better than what they gave me the first Monday of last month.

Yours very respectfully,
WILLIAM HENDRICKS.

City for Hendricks, 2203—The editor of the Western Sun, ought to know more about the western counties than we do, stated in his paper of the 6th inst. the aggregate number of votes for Mr. Hendricks, in the counties heard from, to be 6171—his majority in those counties

EXECUTIVE APPOINTMENTS.

Isaac Blackford, Esq. Judge of the Supreme Court in the place of John Johnston, deceased.

William Hoggatt, Quarter Master General of the Militia of the state of Indiana.

It is with pleasure we learn from a letter dated Washington City, to a gentleman of this place, that it is the current report there that the hon. Henry Clay will be prevailed on to take charge of the War Department.—

"UNCLE SAM."

This expression, which originated in the late war, from the initials "U. S." on the soldiers' knapsacks, has come into general use. The Indians at the west, from hearing it often used, have imbibed the idea that it is actually the name of the President—and while at Sackatt's Harbor a considerable number of Indians and Squaws, crowded around the President, wishing, as they expressed it, "to shake hands with UNCLE SAM."

Pensacola and East Florida.

The interest felt by our fellow-citizens in the different parts of the U. States, in reference to this country, induces us to lay before our readers some information respecting it. We have cause for believing that the country alluded to will be in possession of the U. States before Christmas next. We are also informed that a distinguished commercial gentleman, who has important connections both with the Spanish Government and in the U. States, and now residing at Havana, has written to the same effect.

Several gentlemen who have been at Pensacola within a few days past, state that the same impression prevails at that place, both among those in power and the citizens, and that on the part of the latter, the circumstance is hailed as a consummation devoutly to be wished. If the event should take place, which we in every point of view deem important & desirable, it will give to the U. S. the best and almost the only harbor in the Gulph; the most healthy situation in the southern section of this country; an important naval depot; an extremely advantageous commercial position; will leave us without any contiguous foreign government in which criminals, refugees from justice, can with impunity seek protection from punishment, and will render the Alabama territory among the most desirable sections of the U. States for residence and business of every description.

Sound Doctrine.

Extract of a letter from a distinguished revolutionary patriot, to his friend in this state, written in May last.

"I hope, with you, that the policy of our country will settle down with as much navigation & commerce only as our exchanges will require, and that the disadvantage will be seen of our undertaking to carry on that of other nations. This, indeed, may bring gain to a few individuals and enable them to call off from our farms more laborers, to be converted into laqueis and grooms for them; but it will bring nothing to our country but wars, debts, and dilapidation. This has been the course of England, and her examples have fearful influence on us. In copying her, we do not seem to consider, that like premises produce like consequences. The Bank Mania is one of the most threatening of this imitation. It is raising up a monied aristocracy in our country, which has already set the Government at defiance, and although forced to yield a little on the first essay of their strength, their principles are unyielding. These have taken deep root in the class from which our legislature are drawn, & the sop of Cerberus, from fable, has become history. Their principles lay hold of the good, their pelf of the bad; and thus those whom the constitution had placed as guards to its portals are sophisticated or suborned from their du-

At Bruges, the populace, taking advantage of the absence of the troops yesterday proceeded to acts of violence, the pillage of houses, Magazines of Corn, and the Baker's shops, particularly those suspected of buying up the Corn, and, notwithstanding every exertion on the Public Authorities, these outrages were not put a stop to till five in the afternoon. The garrison was kept on foot during the night, and have been reinforced by six companies from this place in the course of the day. The immediate cause of this commotion is said to have been the seizing a hungry child whilst carrying off a Loaf of bread from a Baker's. A crowd immediately collected & rescued the child, and then spread over town with cries of "BREAD—NON EXPORTATION OF GRAIN—OR NO KING."—They had no arms, but used stones, and it is not yet known whether any person was seriously hurt, or any of the Ringleaders taken.
