

SALEM HOTEL.

THE subscribers beg leave to inform their friends and the public, that they have received possession of the Salem Hotel, lately kept by Mr. Kelso;—they hope by their united exertions to give general satisfaction to all those who may please to favor them with their patronage. To the comfort and convenience of travellers every exertion shall be used within the power of good waiters, and a careful and experienced hostler.

The bar shall be constantly supplied with good Wine and Liquors of all kinds.

JOSEPH JENKINS & Co.
Salem, (Ind.) Oct. 18. 45-3m

N. B. The business of Merchandizing will be continued as usual—their Store is next door to the Hotel, where they have at present, and will constantly keep on hand a general assortment of MERCHANDISE, which they will dispose of on moderate terms for Cash—or the usual credit to those customers who have been heretofore punctual in their payments.

J. J. & Co.

Joseph Jenkins having taken into partnership Mr. P. Callan, the business will in future be carried on under the firm of
JOSEPH JENKINS & Co.

William return—return to your beloved Wife & prattling Children.

WILLIAM WEST, who lived in Xenia, Green County, Ohio, did on the 8th day of January last, leave his wife and two children, and that too, without a house or home, or any thing to support them—he left home on pretended business, but has forgot to return. He passes for a single man, but believe him not for he is married. He is fair complected, fair hair, blue eyes, somewhat freckled, a brown spot on one of his arms, which may be seen when he is at work, he is a cabinet maker to trade, about six feet high slender man. I wish he would return to me, his loving wife.

ELIZA WEST.

Xenia, Aug. 23.

It is hoped that the printers throughout the U. S. will give the above an insertion in their respective papers, for pity's sake, as I am unable to pay them, and they shall have the prayers of
ELIZA WEST.
