It is proper to state, that the private letters received in this city from Madrid give no reason to suppose that the Treaty will not be duly ratified.

From the National Intelligencer.
FROM THE FRIGATE MACEDONIAN.
Letters have been received in this city from Valparaiso, in the month of March, from a perusal of which, the following particulars are gathered:
The United States' frigate Macedonian, captain Downes, arrived at Valparaiso on the 29th of January, after a passage of eighty days from Norfolk, and fifteen from Staten Land. She experienced uncommonly fine weather off Cape Horn; and being becalmed close in with the Cape for several hours, the officers were astonished to find no current: indeed, they did not find the ship to be in the least affected by a current after passing Staten Land. Terra Del Fuego was entirely covered with snow, as far as the eye could extend; but the Cape and small Islands in the neighborhood had none upon them. After passing the straits of Magellan, with continued fine weather, the vessel experienced a gale of wind, of four days continuance, and much bad weather.

At the date of our letter, as the reader already knows from other sources, Lord Cochrane commanded the Chilean navy, consisting of the San Martin, of 60 guns, Lautaro, of 50, O'Higgins, of 50, a corvette, of 22, and three large brigs, was out on a cruise. The Andromache (a British frigate) left at Lima two frigates and two brigs of war, and a Spanish merchant ship, with a million of dollars on board. It was expected every moment to hear of the result of Lord Cochrane's attack on the port of Callao (where we have already heard, he was unsuccessful in his first attempt.) If he should be defeated, it was the opinion of the writer of these letters, that it would be a most unfortunate thing for Chili, as it would hardly be possible for that government to refit and provision a squadron for another cruise. If they made no prize money, and were not paid their wages, the crews would certainly leave the service for when they had last sailed, the men had not been paid for a cruise, and left the port much dissatisfied. Indeed, the crew of the corvette mutinied, and confined their officers, with a view to take the ship to Lima, where they said they should be paid for their services.—However after having possession of the ship for three days, she was retaken by the officers: three men were killed in the contest, five had been since shot without trial, and twenty three remained to be tried.

If the fleet should return, after all, without doing any thing, there was, judging from his incident, little hope of their getting to sea again. Lord Cochrane, it was believed, would do all that he could do with the means he had, and if the wind favored him it was supposed that he might take or destroy the shipping in Callao. All his captains were English, and he had in the squadron about 250 English and Americans, the rest being natives of Chili. General San Martin and Lord Cochrane appeared to be bosom friends; but some appeared to think, have selfish, and not patriotic objects—desire to conquer Peru, not for sake of freedom, but with a view of personal ambition and aggrandizement. To accomplish his views, he they wicked or be they charitable, St. Martin drains Chili to the last dollar. He is removing the Chilean and American officers from the army, & putting in Buenos Ayreans and Englishmen. His enemies say he is a cruel tyrant, and that the people of that country generally fear, & they do not hate him.

O'Higgins the director, is said to be an amiable and good man, but under the influence, if not subject to the control of St. Martin. The Macedonian had been waiting, for some time, for Judge Proctor, who had, however arrived, it was the intention of captain Downes to call at Lima, after his departure from Valparaiso. It was not known what construction would be given to Lord Cochrane's proclamation of blockade, of which we have had notice, in regard to vessels of war. If it was to be extended to ships of war, as it was not the object of captain Downes unnecessarily to enter into any controversy with those people, he intended to delay his entry until the Andromache should have tried the force and validity of the blockade; the more especially as no particular business, besides that of general observation, required the Macedonian to visit Lima. This determination of captain Downes, to avoid rather than court collision, shews a prudence worthy of the character this gallant officer bears in the service.

HEAT.

The excessive heat which has been experienced in this city for some days past, appears to have extended to the northern cities, & probably, also, to those in the south. In this city, the thermometer stood, at 5 o'clock on Sunday evening, in the shade, at 98 degrees, and may, at some hour of the day, have been yet higher. Several sudden deaths have occurred within the three or four last days, from the effects of exposure to intense heat, or from drinking cold water. The precise number of deaths we know not, nor the names of those who died; they were generally emigrant laborers, whose imprudence caused their death.

We had a light shower on Tuesday evening, which served to cool the air a little, but has afforded no relief to the suffering vegetation, which withers before the scorching heat of the sun.

In Philadelphia the thermometer stood, on Monday, at 12 o'clock, at 93; in New-York, on Saturday, at 99; and on Sunday at 101—said to be the greatest heat recorded in this country.

Russian Minister.—The National Intelligencer of Thursday mentions, that "the Russian Minister, whilst on an excursion to Mount Vernon, obtained, from a tree, growing over the tomb of Washington, a small branch sufficient to make a walking stick, which he intends sending to Russia, as a present to the Emperor Alexander, in remembrance of our beloved Washington, with the simple motto of "Mount Vernon" engraved on a small gold plate fixed on its head."
