

activities of the day, to observe in each other the genuine sentiments of patriotism. The day ushered in by the discharge of cannon. A procession was formed at 12 o'clock, consisting of a numerous body of the citizens of the county, conducted by colonel Jacob Thomas Grand Marshal, and Mr. Epaphroditus Northam deputy marshal. The procession moved to the preaching stand a short distance from town, where the declaration of independence was read by Dr. H. J. Patterson, and an appropriate oration delivered by Joseph P. Pirsson, Esquire; after which the procession returned in the same order to town and partook of an elegant dinner provided by Charles Eastin. Major Richard Hopkins was chosen president, and capt. James L. White vice president of the day. The cloth being removed the following toasts were drunk, accompanied by occasional discharges of cannon.

1. The day we celebrate, its dawn gave life to liberty and death to tyranny.
2. The Constitution of the United States—When that instrument was formed, wisdom presided, and justice wielded the pen.
3. The memory of George Washington, the father of his country.
4. The State of Indiana—May her politics be measures and not men.
5. The patriots of S. America—May Heaven give success to their efforts so long as they are made in support of the rights of man.
6. The heroes of the Revolution.
7. The Star Spangled Banner.
8. Thomas Jefferson; the enlightened statesmen the profound scholar and philosopher.
9. The President of the U. S.
10. Desvitt Clinton governor of New York; the able friend and patron of improvement.
11. The army and navy of the United States.
12. The heroes who fell in the late war—They will live in the memory of their countrymen.
13. The fair sex—Virtue's reign is the triumph of human nature.

Among the volunteer toasts were the following:

By major Hopkins the pres't. The tree of Liberty; its branches have spread from east to west, may they reach the south.

By the orator J. P. Pirsson, Esq.—The memory of Franklin.

By col. Thomas the G. M. General Harrison—He fought the battles of his country; may his name be remembered, and his merit rewarded.

By Major Hopkins—The orator of the day.

By J. P. Pirsson, Esq.—The Great and patriotic state that produced a Fulton, a Clinton, a Jay, a Hamilton, a Bainbridge, and a Hull.

By Capt. White the V. P.—The state of Kentucky.

The festivities of the day concluded with a ball at Mr. James Burton's house which was conducted with much propriety and taste.

From the Cincinnati Gazette.

For some weeks past the disordered state of our currency has produced an extraordinary degree of excitement in the public mind, calculated more to magnify the evil than to furnish relief. This excitement has been effected principally by the cupidity of a few brokers, who appear to have the regulation of our money concerns as arbitrarily in their power as their avarice could wish. These men, aided by their agents in different parts of the country, are preparing the minds of the people for scenes of disgraceful violence.

Propositions have been made to a respectable citizen to join a mob to enter and plunder the vaults of the Miami Exporting Company, and the two articles in the last Inquisitor appear intended to fan the embers to a flame. We regret, every considerate man must regret the tendency of such publications. They are not calculated to remedy the evil. Time and the natural course of business will bring our currency to a sound state; but intemperate measures, instead of producing this result, will involve the country in calamities of which the present embarrassments are but a faint shadow.

Philadelphia, June 21.

Much stir was occasioned last evening, by a discovery indicating a plot to rob the Philadelphia Bank. This bank has been once robbed, (about 4 years since) by a fellow who conceived the design, and put it in execution, of getting into the vault from the culvert under the street. At that time, he entered the sewer in Market street, and groped his way about two hundred yards, till he came opposite the vault. We have collected the following circumstances relative to the present attempt:

Monday, after night-fall, a person was seen to enter the sewer in Hudson's alley, and, as the fellow who before committed the robbery had been recently released from the penitentiary, the circumstance excited alarm. Yesterday morning, guards were placed at all the outlets of the common sewer, and a search was set on foot. In the afternoon, the persons employed to ransack the sewers discovered mining tools, consisting of a crow-bar, a mattock, and a shovel; an umbrella handle, containing a dirk, and a small batteau, that had been carried in from the river; a bottle of spirits, a great coat, some oil, &c. Guards were still kept at the outlets last night, as it was supposed the robbers might be somewhere concealed in the subterraneous passages. It was rumored, that the witness to a person entering the sewer, identified him with Robinson, the robber above alluded to. The batteau, of course, was concealed for the purpose of transporting the contents of the vault of the bank, & perhaps firstly, to carry away the dirt.

Union.

We had hoped, that, in the progress of time, the title of Columbia would have attached itself, exclusively, to our country. It would have been an appropriate and convenient designation for familiar converse and for ordinary purposes; the title which our Constitution has proclaimed, of "the United States of America," though well enough adapted to official purposes being too inconveniently long for ordinary use. But the title of "Republic of Columbia," having been assumed by the confederated provinces of Venezuela and New Grenada, will oblige us to forego this wish. Some word, of two or three syllables, to represent the Union of these states, and to distinguish them from other "United States," is a want, which, however trivial it may now appear, must, some time or other, be supplied—perhaps by an amendatory constitutional provision.

Nat. Intel.

FROM SPAIN.

Herald office, Norfolk, June 16. Since our last, we have received late intelligence from Spain. The report of the committee of Foreign Relations, authorising the President to take possession of Florida, had been received at Madrid, from the Spanish Charge des Affairs, at Washington, upon which a Council of State was held, on the 23d of April, who recommended a solemn protest to be entered, but no hostilities to take place, as they confessed themselves not in a situation to do any thing. The President's Message, which must have reached Madrid previous to the assembling of the Cortes, will change their tone, and no doubt conciliate the angry feelings which the report, as might have been expected, has given rise to.

Mr. Forsyth was not in Madrid when the report of the committee of Foreign Relations arrived, having left there four days before, (April 15th) for Paris, on a visit to Mr. Gallatin. Of course, no official communication on the subject has been made by him to the government of Spain. Indeed, until instructions could be received from Washington, he could have held, no further intercourse with that government.

One of our letters, of the date of May 1st, says, "The revolution in Spain will bring your merchants to ruin, if they continue shipping provisions in hopes of obtaining war prices for them.—In Cadiz there is no demand, and in Gibraltar, of four cargoes of flour that have arrived there, the sales have been from 64 to 54, and the latter price cannot be obtained for a cargo from Alexandria, now in the bay—over five dollars will not be given. Beef and pork, butter and lard, no sale. A revolution in Spain cannot affect the price of provisions, with all Europe at peace, and a superabundance to supply her with."

Two Patriot privateers have lately been in the Mediterranean, doing some mischief; one of them, under the Artigas flag, and commanded by Don Ricardo Luna, which being translated into plain English, means, Drakey Moon.

CHARLESTON, June 14.

From St. Augustine.—A serious disturbance took place at St. Augustine on Friday the 2d inst. An officer of the regiment of Malaga, it appears, had struck a soldier belonging to the regiment of Catalonia, stationed there, which so exasperated the latter regiment that they sallied out in a mass in the evening, threatening vengeance against all belonging to the former regiment. Many guns were discharged into some of the houses, but no lives lost. The Governor finally succeeded in restoring order in the garrison; but 25 men of the Catalonia regiment deserted with their arms, during the tumult, and arrived at St. Mary's on Wednesday last, where they disposed of their arms, uniforms, &c. and proceeded on to Savannah.

The United States, schoonera Tartar, Lieut. Paine and Revenge, Lieut. McClunie, sailed from St. Mary's on the 6th, to examine the entrances into St. Andrew's Sound, or other places on the Southern coast.

The particulars of the piratical proceedings of the seamen now in confinement at Georgetown and this place, are gradually developing. A letter received yesterday, from the former place, states, that one of the six in confinement there has turned states' evidnce; that much property belonging to them has been seized, and that several of their accomplices have escaped into the interior.

One of those confined here, (the boy) who states that his name is John Steele and that he is from Sunderland, in England, asserts that they are a part of the crew of the Buenos Ayrean brig of war Gen. Rondeau, lately commanded by David M. L. Miles, of Baltimore; that they have been cruising in the Mediterranean, where a boy of the name of Perkins, of Boston, was landed upon an Island by captain Miles. It will be remembered by our readers that this vessel boarded, on the 11th of April, off Cape Palos, in the Mediterranean the ship Garonne, which arrived at New-York 26th ult. from Trieste, and requested to be reported.

Courier.

FROM THE SPANISH MAIN.

New York, June 19.

We learn the following by the brig General Brown, which left Porto Cabello 30th ult.

The expedition from Margareta still had possession of Rio de la

Hache, but the Royalists were in strong force in their neighborhood, and cutting off the Patriots daily. The conspiracy to take the life of General Morillo and his principal followers, discovered at Valencia, originated with the creoles. The governor of Valencia, and six others, suspected of being engaged in the conspiracy, had been shot, and a number more were yet to suffer.

Cumana and Barcelona remained in quiet possession of the Royalists.

It was said two divisions of Spanish troops had marched against Santa Fee.

Gen. Bolivar was said to be at achaguas, with a new supply of men and money. Gen. Paez, with his division, was at San Fernando.

Morillo's head quarters were at Valencia; Morals was at Calabozza.

Remarkable Phenomena at Christiana.

The following curious details have been received from Christiana, in Norway: On the 7th instant, the barometer rose to the extraordinary height of 29 inches, 16 lines, which has not taken place for a great number of years. The sea was eight feet lower on that day than it has been for the last 20 years. Professor Hansteen, who measured its height, made also some experiments on the intensity of the magnetic force, and found the needle in such agitation that he could obtain no fixed result from his experiments. These different phenomena appear to portend some extraordinary revolution in nature.

We have been informed that there is a rumor in circulation, that captain John Meek is a candidate for lieutenant colonel. We are authorised to state, that he is not, nor has he any intention of holding a poll for that office.

J. T. BROWN, A. P. M. Madison, July 3, 1820. 185

FOR SPECULATORS.

A great bargain may be had if application be made soon in valuable mill property, six miles North of Madison, on the main fork of Indian Kentucky. The improvements consist of a fulling mill now ready for business, with all its apparatus, and a grist mill nearly finished a cabin and some cleared land. The seat and situation for business is not excelled by any in Jefferson county. For further particulars apply to the subscriber living on the premises. It will be sold with the quantity of land that may suit the purchaser.
