

LATE FROM AFRICA.

Extract of a letter from the American Consul at the Cape de Verd Islands to the Editors of the Boston Patriot; dated Villa da Prava, St. Jago, Cape de Verds, April 21, 1820.

The Venezuelan privateer captured with her two prizes by his Britannic Majesty's ship Myrmidon, Capt. H. Leeke, & carried to Sierra Leone, I am informed by Capt. Leeke, who arrived here on the 11th instant, was the A—, formerly the Baltimore, of Baltimore, commanded by Capt. Simeon Metcalf, of Saybrook, Connecticut.

The prizes to the privateer were Spanish slave ships, captured near Cape Mount. Capt. Metcalf engaged eight slave vessels, and, after a severe engagement of two hours and forty minutes, succeeding in capturing the two, six having made their escape, when, the next day, he fell in with, and was captured by the Myrmidon.

Came into this harbor, in company with the Myrmidon, on the 11th instant, a large beautiful schooner, copper fastened and coppered, upwards of 200 tons burthen, mounting ten guns, her tender, captured, near Cape Mount, under portuguese colors, having one slave on board. She was commanded by Capt. Green, and owned, as some of the crew testified in court, and from papers found on board in Bristol, R. I. After condemnation, Captain Leeke purchased her for his tender; but yesterday disposed of her here, at a very large advance.

The United States, ship Cyane Captain Trenchard, has gone down to Sherbro; and the Rev. Mr. Bacon purchased of Captain Leeke a pilot boat schooner, in which he will proceed, with some officers of the Cyane, along the coast to Cape Mount, before a spot is determined on to settle. Capt. Leeke thinks the idea of settling at Sherbro will be abandoned, in consequence of the shallowness of the water, not being of sufficient depth in the harbor for ships of war. Why have they abandoned the thought of settling at Bulam? The island is fertile, having a good harbor, and situated to command the trade of the natives up Rio Grande, and considerable from the Cambia. It is far the best place in Africa to found a colony.

Since the arrival of the Commissioners for the trial of slave vessels at Sierra Leone, 32 of that description have been captured and condemned. The inhuman traffic is now carried on to an alarming extent. Twenty vessels were reported the other day to be in Bissao and Cassao, Rio Grande, all for slaves.

Doctor Dorkett, with twenty men, part of the expedition into the interior of Africa, have arrived at Tombuctoo, where they were seized and confined, & stripped of all their clothing, and all communication with Major Gray, at the entrance of the Niger cut off. Major Gray has been robbed of all his amber and coral; but camels have lately been dispatched with a supply to enable him to proceed.

A MAN LOST.

LEFT Simsbury, Hartford county, Connecticut, four years ago last February, & came into the western country, a man named ERASTUS ROBERTS; now about thirty six years old. He is an active shoemaker by trade, of small stature, strait built, cole black hair, with large black whiskers and beard, his face rather flat, pale look, talks rather slow and is very fond of fishing and hunting. He carried with him his kitt of tools and worked some time in Cannonsburgh and about Wheeling, and went down the Ohio river. He was last heard from at Limestone Ky. and set out from there to go to Illinois, or some part of that country. He left a wife and six children, whose anxiety for him is extreme. He said his views were to find him a place. Louisville was talked of and the state of Illinois. It has been reported that he has married another wife but it is not credited. Any person who can give any information of him, whether he be dead or alive, will confer a great favor on a disconsolate family and numerous connections, if dead, by telling where, when and in what manner he died, &c. &c. and if living, where he is, what doing, and such other information as may be interesting to his family, by addressing a letter to Mr. Joel Holcomb, Esq. of Granby, in the State of Connecticut.

All printers in the state of Ohio, Kentucky, Indiana, Illinois, and Missouri, who will give this two or three insertions in their papers, will serve the cause of humanity, and receive the grateful thanks of his family and friends.

C. POSTLEY'S

Patent Cooking Stoves, or Portable Kitchens.

MANUFACTURED & sold by H. MILLER & Co. in Second street, two doors from the corner of Wood street, Pittsburgh; and also at their store, corner of Main and Columbia streets Cincinnati.

This stove with fixtures complete, comprises every necessary article of apparatus for an extensive cooking establishment.

The different sizes are calculated to do the cooking for small and large families, public houses and steam boats, and are so extremely simple in their construction, as to be managed with ease by a child, twelve or fourteen years of age.

With this stove may be cooked by baking, roasting, boiling, and by steam, a sufficiency of meat, fish, fowls and vegetables, to make a dinner for from 5 to 100 persons, while at the same time may be baked from one to eight good sized loaves of bread.

A wooden vessel containing from twenty to fifty gallons of water, can also be kept boiling, for the purpose of washing, &c. all these are done simultaneously and with one small fire!

The circumstance of these stoves having got into very general use at the eastward within two or three years past, particularly in the cities of N. York and Baltimore, with the rapid sale and general approbation they have met with since their first introduction last winter, west of the mountains, are sufficient testimonials of their utility and advantage.

The subscribers having purchased of the patentee, the right for making and vending said stoves in the western country, are ready to execute with punctuality and despatch all orders, at their manufactory, as above, where also may be had CAST and SHEET IRON STOVES, suitable for parlours, offices, stores and bed-rooms, to which boilers may be attached if wanted.

The proprietors, in order to accommodate persons residing in different parts of the country, have appointed agents, as follows: OHIO—N. C. Findley, Zanesville; James Effinger, Lancaster; J. McCoy, Chillicothe. KENTUCKY—A. M. January & Co. Maysville; J. & P. Dudley, Frankfort; J. B. Bowels, Louisville; and Luther Stephens & Co. Lexington. Tennessee—Joseph Littleton, Nashville. ## ABSCONDED

From the subscriber on Sunday the 17th instant, a young man named JAMES HILTON. Said Hilton is about 20 years of age, light hair blue eyes and a little stoop shouldered, very much of a down insignificant look, five feet 10 or 11 inches high. Said Hilton agreed to stay with me two years from last Christmas, and in violation of the tenure of his engagement he has went off about 15 dollars in my debt; he has also left a doctor's bill of 20 dollars unpaid, besides some other small debts. This is to warn all persons from employing or trusting him, particularly Boss haters as it is most likely he will apply to them for work. He is no part of a workman. I expect he has gone to Kentucky where he will try to impose on some one as he has on me, agreeing to stay a length of time and work for low wages for insight.
