

THE DAYLIGHT AND MODEL

Clothing & Dry Goods Establishments

ARE NOW OPEN FOR BUSINESS.

Our new methods of doing business gives entire satisfaction to our old customers and has gained for us many new patrons. This establishment has lately been built new and fitted up in the latest modern style. The rear part of these colossal rooms are lighted in such a manner that goods will show up as good as in the front of the store.

I have recently stocked up with an entire new and fashionable line of goods, Consisting of . . .

Dry Goods, Clothing,
Boots and Shoes,
Hats, Caps and
A Fine Line of Ladies' and Gent's Furnishing Goods.

Customers will save from 10 to 25 per cent. as my PRICES ARE UNDER ALL.

I pay no rent, but receive between four hundred and five hundred dollars per month from my business properties, and my experience and knowledge of the wants of the public together with my ability to purchase for cash only, makes it possible for me to sell goods for less money than others. Therefore I kindly invite you one and all to give this Great Establishment an early call and save money by so doing. I will quote prices to you which will insure a sale every time.

Thanking you for past favors and a continuance of your patronage in the future, I remain,

Yours To Save Money,

A. LEOPOLD, the Rensselaer Merchant.

—B. J. Gifford, Jasper county's benefactor, has got about three miles of his grade for the railroad done. It looks like Mr. Gifford is going to see what kind of a country he can make out of northern Jasper. First of all he digs a good dredge ditch and drains the land and gets it into good trim for cultivation, and then builds a railroad to haul the produce to market. Now you hear the cry, "Hurrah for Gifford!"

FARMERS' PICNIC.

Held at Wheatfield, Jasper County, Ind., August 27, 1898.

The meeting was called to order by John Greves, who made a few remarks before proceeding to elect officers for the day, after which the following officers were then filled: Chairman, E. T. Biggs; Secretary, Wm. D. Myers; Ass't Secretary, S. D. Clark. The chairman then proceeded to appoint a committee on resolutions, which consisted of Hon. I. D. Dunn, J. F. Petit and S. D. Clark. Music was then given by the Wheatfield choir.

The meeting at 11:00 a. m. adjourned until 1:00 o'clock p. m.

Dinner served at 12:00 M. The assembly was called together for the afternoon session at 1:00 o'clock p. m., by the chairman. After music by the Wheatfield choir, the chairman introduced Judge Simon P. Thompson, who gave a very able and appropriate address. Other speakers of the day were Hon. I. D. Dunn, D. H. Yeoman, A. Halleck and L. Stong, each entertaining the audience very pleasantly.

In the conclusion of speech making, Judge Thompson again took the stand and exhibited some of the products of Jasper county.

The committee on resolutions being ready to report, the following resolutions were read by the secretary and adopted by the Institute:

RESOLVED: That the purpose of this meeting has been that the people of Jasper county and surrounding localities might unite in having a sociable time as farmers, merchants, mechanics and citizens, and giving plans of work in the different professions of trade, especially that of farming.

RESOLVED: That the farmers of northern Jasper county has made rapid growth in developing the country and they should have due credit for their untiring efforts in making these improvements.

RESOLVED: That the citizens of the town of Wheatfield receive the thanks of this assembly for their hospitality in providing dinner for the people.

RESOLVED: That Judge Thompson, Hon. I. D. Dunn, D. H. Yeoman, A. Halleck and L. Strong receive the hearty thanks from this people for their help in making this Association a success.

RESOLVED: That we, the citizens of northern Jasper county shall continue to hold an annual Farmers' Association, and that this meeting shall choose a chairman, secretary and treasurer, whose duty will be to arrange and plan for the next annual Farmers' Association.

E. T. BIGGS, Chairman.
Wm. D. MYERS, Secretary.
S. D. CLARK, Asst. Sec.
