Mrs. J. C. Thompson went to Baileyville, Ill., Wednesday to visit her sister Mrs. Kilgour, who is in poor health.

Ed Kresler finished cutting Chas. Halleck's buckwheat Saturday. There was about 15 acres of it and it is well filled.

Joe Brown went down about Olney, Ill., last week to look after a farm with a prospect of moving down there in the spring.

Will Warren has quite a mountain of sand in the street which they have taken out of his cellar. The masons will soon have the walls completed.

Emery Cox moved into John White's house Saturday and Oscar Atwood moved into the house vacated by Cox. Will Gundy moved into his brother Charles house Tuesday.

Mrs. C. A. Gundy moved a part of her household goods to Rensselaer, the first of the week. Her daughter Flossie will remain here with her Uncle Will and go to school.

The long looked and wished for rain came at last Sunday night. It was a good one, but it turned quite cool Tuesday morning. There was considerable crust on the ground in places, owing to the wind which blew pretty freely all night, there was scarcely any frost.

Mrs. Ike Kight returned home Sunday from her visit to No. Dak. Miss Anna Spry, who is a nurse at the insane hospital at Kankakee, also visited No. Dak., and returned with Mrs. Kight and will visit with the latter here a few days before returning to her duties.

Grandpa Spry suffered a very severe accident a few days ago. He somehow or other while climbing in or getting out of his wagon, his foot slipped in a way which caused him to fall on his hip to the ground. He was pretty well jolted besides one hip was so badly bruised up as to make him almost past getting around for a few days.

Bessie Barker, whose sickness we mentioned in our last report, passed away Wednesday morning after a little over a week's sickness. We have not been informed as to the nature of her disease. The family could not realize she was so near death's door until she was called away. She will be missed very much by her folks and her many friends which she had in this place. The bereaved family have the heartfelt sympathy of the community.

BLOOD
We live by our blood, and on it. We thrive or starve, as our blood is rich or poor. There is nothing else to live on or by.

When strength is full and spirits high we are being refreshed—bone, muscle and brain, in body and mind—with continual flow of rich blood. This is health.

When weak, in low spirits, no cheer, no spring, when rest is not rest and sleep is not sleep, we are starved; our blood is poor; there is little nutriment in it.

Back of the blood is food, to keep the blood rich. When it fails, take

SCOTT'S EMULSION

TRAVELS OF THE HEIR-APPOINTED

A Chicago dispatch, speaking of the present pilgrimage of Crown Prince William, says:

Judge Taft is traveling in high state. He has a special train, two Pullmans, a buffet car and a baggage car. He enjoys the constant services of a valet, a physician, a masseur, and a special press agent. Of course no man in the world has spent so much money in the past in traveling as has the former secretary of war, but it was then the money of the people and no one will accuse him today of being as lavish with public funds as he was when he had control of them. Yet as a mere matter of curiosity we would like to question exactly how special trains and a complete retinue of courtiers are being paid for by a man who rather boasts that in all his adult years he has had nothing but the salaries that friendly politicians have secured for him.

Just how expensively Judge Taft traveled when he was secretary of war with the people paying the bills may be seen by his last journey to Cuba. He was gone three weeks and the cost is said to have been $70,000 for the expenses of himself, his servants, retainers, sword-bearers, almoners, etc. Surely a strenuous "Three Weeks."

Finding himself unable to meet Mr. Bryan's arguments, Mr. Taft took refuge in silence. He announced suddenly that he would not answer Mr. Bryan further until he started out on his speaking tour. All who care to read his speeches will see that he is not answering yet.
