

"FOLLOW THE WISE FEW RATHER THAN THE FOOLISH MANY"

A very small percentage of humanity know the need to care for real teeth until some friend or other source suggests advice that is accepted and acted upon.

It only requires a little effort to be one of these few, and you will have a possession that many would give a fortune to own. The first step to follow these few is a careful examination of your teeth. What should be done and what should not be done, is a matter of importance that a dentist with long experience can best decide. What my patients tell their neighbors, brings people to my office to ask for an examination.

You will be glad to know what I will tell you about your teeth.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Brief Items of Interest to City and Country Readers.

To-day's markets—Wheat, 87c; Corn, (new) 50c; Oats, 43c; Rye, 65c.

Vote for Honest "Tom" Marshall for governor.

Mrs. L. W. Hunt returned to St. Joe, Mich., Saturday after a visit with J. J. Hunt and family.

Break up the republican machine by voting the democratic county ticket from top to bottom.

Miss Fame Haas returned Friday evening from a six weeks visit with relatives in Charleroi, Penn.

Louie Ramp visited his family in Chicago over Sunday, where his wife has been visiting for a time.

Miss Ethel McCarthy is visiting her sister, Mrs. Roy Chisum, at Englewood, Ill. She will be absent for some time.

John Marner, son and daughter, of East Chicago spent Sunday and Monday with Mr. and Mrs. Walter Forbes.

George Putts will shuck corn near Dwight this season for Gus Kanna, a son of Michael Kanna west of town, for whom he husked last season.

Berl Richardson of Sharon, Wis., has written his father Thomas Richardson of the birth and death of a son last week. The child lived but two days.

Len Lefler is now running a candy business at Lafayette and has moved to that city. He still retains his store at Crawfordsville.

A. E. Bolser had a sale Saturday at which he sold all the household furniture that was used in his late residence. He will go to St. Louis, Mo., in the near future.

J. E. Sullenbarger's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Sullenbarger of Greenville, Ohio, returned home Saturday after a short visit with their son in Barkley tp.

The Presbyterian church is being repaired again, this time it is a cement approach and steps at the front entrance. This will add to the convenience and appearance of it.

James Grow of Logansport, only living brother of Henry Jackson Grow of this city, was over to visit his brother Saturday and Sunday, returning home Monday morning.

Gus and Mrs. Grant went to Franklin Monday to visit and to pack and move some household goods here. They will begin house-keeping in town in the near future.

The tallest smokestack in the city was "stood" up Saturday at the Babcock & Hopkins elevator. This stack is 95 feet high and is expected to very materially increase the draught of the furnaces under the steam boilers.

Van Huff, who has been acting in the capacity of tinner for Gumm, Hart & Co., has secured a position with the Warner Bros. at Rensselaer. He went to work Tuesday, but will not move his family until after election.—Goodland Herald.

Comrade S. E. Yeoman sold five car loads of fruit trees this season, and received a telegram from his nursery at Kalamazoo, Mich., Monday to come and superintend the packing and selection of the trees that will be sent to his customers.

P. L. Fuller and Ed Heath were over from Oxford Monday and the former made arrangements to open a box ball alley in the Leopold room on South Van Rensselaer street. See ad elsewhere. Messrs. Fuller & Son come highly recommended as gentlemen who will conduct a nice place.

John Renicker can not see his way clear to go to Florida this winter, as he had fully intended to do. He will load his car Saturday or Monday for North Manchester and will occupy his recently purchased farm next year. His brother Levi will go to Florida, for the winter at least, but just when he has not determined at, this writing.

Mrs. P. C. Pursley of Britton, So. Dak., visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter May, here from Friday until yesterday, when she returned to Britton. The account of the accidental death of her husband, who was well known here, appears in another column. She will remain in Dakota for the present and look after her late husband's business interests there.

Mr. and Mrs. N. S. Bates returned yesterday from a three weeks visit with their daughter, Mrs. Albert Bouk, at Norwich, No. Dak.

C. B. Repogle's mother and step-father, Mr. and Mrs. E. Warden of Monticello, visited him over Sunday. Mr. Warden is a red-hot democrat, and is doing all he can to boost the Bryan and Marshall cause along.

The Nanton News of Alberta, Canada, of Oct. 22, states that Samuel H. Duvall and his son Charles have sold their livery business at that place. Mr. Duvall is well known here and is a brother of Mrs. Mary D. Eger and C. W. Duvall of this city.

A drizzle of rain set in Friday evening and continued all night, laying the dust if nothing more. There was also quite a little drizzle all day Monday, but not enough water has fallen as yet to moisten up the ground to any depth.

Mrs. Elhanan Potts was given a birthday dinner by her children in honor of her fiftieth birthday anniversary, Sunday. All the children were present except Miss Pearl. She was presented with a handsome mirror by her husband and children, and a silver thimble was presented to her by her sister, Mrs. Miner.

Zern Wright was up from Forest Sunday, where he is assisting E. V. Ransford in disposing of a large stock of goods which he got in a recent trade. He went back Monday afternoon and took with him 3,000 double-page bills printed by The Democrat, the second batch, which will be distributed by two lightning speed autos. A mammoth sale is now on and will continue to Nov. 1, at which time it is thought the entire stock will be disposed of.

Mrs. Alice M. Corbin, wife of Frank Corbin, now of Brook but formerly of Jordan tp., died last week after an illness of nearly one year, aged about 33 years. She was born in Hallsville, Ohio, Dec. 16, 1876, and was married to Mr. Corbin about three years ago, being his second wife. She was a highly respected lady and the husband and step-children, to whom she had been a mother, have the sympathy of the community in their bereavement.

L. W. Snider and wife of Chicago, surprised their old friend Captain Hagins of this city, Saturday. Mrs. Hagins was indisposed and the Captain had just been down town for his mail. When he arrived at the house he found his guests in the kitchen. Mr. Snider, who is chief clerk to the superintendent of the Pullman Palace Car Co., and who learned the "trade" with the Captain, returned to Chicago Sunday while Mrs. Snider remained until Monday.

Learning the "combination" is all the go now, and it is nothing new to see the old and the young down on their knees endeavoring to work the combination of the various postoffice boxes. Just keep one fact in your mind and you will have no trouble: Turn toward the right one revolution to the first number on your card, then turn to the left to the other number, then turn the little button on the box to the left and your box is open. The half numbers mean the lines on the dial after the figure; the full numbers mean the figures on the dial.

H. J. Bartoo has sold the Morocco Courier to Rev. Builta, a Christian preacher, who takes possession at once. During the five years Bro. Bartoo has been at the Courier's helm he has prospered and has given his patrons a good paper. He announces he will go about Nov. 25 to the Pacific coast, Seattle, Wash., it is reported, but whether he will re-engage in the newspaper business is not stated. The Democrat wishes Bro. Bartoo and family well wherever they may cast their lot, and to the new editor it extends the hand of fellowship.

Emmet Pullin shipped a pair of elk and deer to Logansport Tuesday morning. Some weeks ago The Democrat made mention of the sale of these animals by Mr. Pullins. They were crated and shipped by express, and the express-messenger may thank his stars that they were in crates, as otherwise he wouldn't have been worth 30 cents in two seconds after they were in the car if it had been possible to have got them there. Elk are one of the most dangerous of the horned or hoofed animals, and woe to the unarmed hunter that is overtaken by one of these maddened mammoth-horned brutes. They can fight at either end, with their hind feet, their fore feet or their horns, and their powerful frames will prevail against any other beast found in this country, unless it be the moose, to which it is closely allied.

SOMEBODY BLUNDERED.

Through some as yet unexplained manner, Congressman Flood of West Virginia, who was to speak at Remington Monday night, failed to put in an appearance there, much to the disappointment of the democrats who had all arrangements made for the meeting. No word was received from him, and it is probable a mix-up in dates was the trouble.

Chairman Littlefield took the matter up with the state committee yesterday afternoon over the long-distance phone, but too late for us to publish what they had to say about it.

Vote for Farmer Algie J. Law for State Senator.

BIG DEMOCRATIC MEETING AT PARR.

There were between fifty and sixty persons from here went up to Parr Saturday night to the democratic speaking, including the Healy Orchestra, the Marshall Glee Club and the drum corps. The north-bound evening train stopped there to take these people up, and the 11:05 south-bound night train stopped to bring them back. Everybody had a fine time and with the turnout from Parr and those in that vicinity the school house was packed almost to suffocation, and a great many were unable to get into the room at all.

Speeches were made by Arthur Tuteur—and by the way this is Arthur's maiden political campaign, and he did fine, speaking without notes and having an excellent command of the English language—Guy Gerber, the candidate for joint-representative of Jasper and White counties, who also made a good talk and a fine impression, and attorney E. P. Honan, who made the principal talk of the evening. Mr. Honan is an old campaigner, of course, and received much applause.

Much of the success of the meeting was due to the efforts of Steve Brunahan, who is a whole host in himself, and we wish there were a dozen democrats like him in every township in Jasper county.

The Healy Orchestra and the Glee Club enlivened the meeting also with music and campaign songs, and if there was anyone present that was sorry for having gone we have not heard of them. Of course it was a little tantalizing to Logan Wood and some others of the g. o. p. leaders to see such a turnout, but they smiled and tried to look cheerful even if they did not feel that way.

Break up the republican machine by voting the democratic county ticket from top to bottom.

Jasper Guy or Remington makes farm loans at 5 per cent interest with no commission but office charges. Write him. tf

Vote for Bryan and Kern, the people's champions.

Woman Interrupts Political Speaker.

A well dressed woman interrupted a political speaker recently by continually coughing. If she had taken Foley's Honey and Tar it would have cured her cough quickly and expelled the cold from her system. The genuine Foley's Honey and Tar contains no opiates and is in a yellow package. Refuse substitutes. A. F. Long.

SAME OLD GAME

unless he wants to be, and surely there are not many of this kind.

The last week of the campaign has now been entered on, with everything indicating complete Democratic success. Mr. Taft's visit to the state will not, in the opinion of careful observers, lose the Democrats a vote. Many people turned out to see him at the places where his sumptuous train stopped. They gazed upon Mr. Taft's ample proportions, got a glimpse of his numerous retainers, attendants, servants, physicians, bodyguards and so forth, and then watched the departure of the train with unconcealed indifference. No real enthusiasm was anywhere shown. It was mere curiosity that drew the crowds. When it comes to voting, large numbers of Republicans who turned out to "see Taft" will cast their votes for Bryan.

Now mark this and see if it does not look like the Democratic part of the campaign is "going some." Something like a thousand Democratic speeches will be made in the state during the week. The Kern special will be out six days, covering all parts of the state. Several notable speakers will go along with Mr. Kern throughout the trip. Mr. Bryan will be in the state all day Saturday on a special train. Itineraries for other noted speakers are being arranged. Nothing like the finish that the Democrats are putting on their campaign was ever seen in Indiana before. The spirit back of it can mean nothing but victory.

Vote for Honest "Tom" Marshall for governor.

FOR NOVEMBER.
(Copyright 1908, by C. H. Rieth.)

A table and a pitcher,
A tumbler and a stand,
A man in double-breasted clothes,
And music by the band;
A last appeal to reason,
A crowd with cheering draft—
Some folks think it's Bryan,
And others think it's Taft.

A speaker on a Pullman,
A little pantomime,
A hasty diagnosis of
The perils of the time;
A farewell and a promise,
A benediction aft—
Some folks think it's Bryan,
And others think it's Taft.

A man with twenty dollars,
Another man with ten,
A swift exchange of challenges,
And two excited men;
A show-down and a wager,
A banknote and a draft—
Some folks think it's Bryan,
And others think it's Taft.

A homestretch and a tumult,
A spyglass and a shout,
A feverish excitement while
They try to make them out;
A flying dust cloud leading,
A second cloud abaft—
Some folks think it's Bryan,
And others think it's Taft.

In the old Roman calendar November was the ninth month. Blessings fell early, and the empire gave thanks just before the first frost; but about 700 B. C. the trusts left the people so little to be thankful for after nine months that it was decided to wait a while and see if anything would come of the Roman elections. Numa accordingly made November the eleventh month and had Thanksgiving fall with the first snows, notwithstanding the month gets its name from the Latin novem (nine.)

The frisky colt will sniff the air and hear the whistling quail, and the festive calf will indicate the zenith with his tail. The frost will paint the forest with a deep and redder dye, the hired man will shuck the corn, the pumpkin vine will pile, the politicians will hit up their office-holding feud, and the modest maple tree will blush and come out in the nude.

And then the presidential race
Will hold its royal sway,
And everyone will exercise
His liver, anyway.
He'll bounce it up and down between
His pancreas and gizzard,
And waltz it through his inner works
From A around to Izzard,
And even though his present race
May prove to be in vain,
He'll have the health and strength to run
Sometime, perhaps, again.

At any rate the candidates will dash into the stretch, and both Bills-o'-the-Wisp will make themselves quite hard to catch. They'll spurt in spirited response to many wild arousers, and fan the dust up with the slack downhanging from their trousers. They'll come in sight exhibiting a score of fancy paces, and only hit the trembling earth in four or five high places. The air will darken with the flight of gravel, dirt and sods, and the crowd will sound its battle cries and give and offer odds. And Teddy meanwhile will wedge in quite close beside the track, with something that he has concealed within a paper sack, and when his entry charges down, hot-footing like the wind, T. R. will hang a horse-nest next upon him down behind.

And then there will be doings on
This agitated sphere—
The earth will pitch and buck to beat
A frenzied Texas steer.

The sun will spin around and around
And blow up once or twice,
The moon will turn a very dark
And bloody ball of ice,
And no one will remain to see
Who won the race for vice.

The election will be held on the 2d, and the trusts will hold an all-night prayer meeting on the 2d. Mr. Bryan will cast his vote for Mr. Taft at Lincoln. Mr. Taft will return the courtesy at Cincinnati, and Mr. Rockefeller will receive the news at Cleveland. The quadrennial ass who wheels another quadrennial ass through town on a wheelbarrow will start from the Postoffice at 10 o'clock on the morning of the 4th, followed by 90 boys and the Foolkiller. The complete returns will be in by the 15th.

The annual show-down between city and country life will be complete by the 20th, when the farmer will have his cellar stocked with potatoes, turnips, kraut, honey, nuts, hams, side meat, souse, popcorn, pickles, pig's feet, applebutter, lard, sweet potatoes and sorghum, and the city man will enter the winter with his cellar stocked with ten tons of hard coal and two gas meters.

THEY STILL KNOW NOTHING

Members of the Elkins Family Continue To Be in the Dark About That Marriage.

Pittsburg, Oct. 27.—An attempt to reach Senator Stephen B. Elkins at his home at Elkins, W. Va., was unsuccessful, owing to the senator's absence.

MISS KATHERINE ELKINS.

on a campaign tour of the state. To his secretary were read the latest reports concerning the alleged engagement of the Duke of the Abruzzi and Miss Katherine Elkins, and he replied: "We know nothing of the reports that the Duke of the Abruzzi announced his engagement at Turin today, and that a wedding will occur in November. We don't think it is true, however."

"The report from Chicago that Mrs. Elkins has confirmed the engagement of her daughter to the Italian nobleman is untrue. Mrs. Elkins has not given an interview regarding this matter. Furthermore, she will not give an interview. As for the report that Cardinal Gibbons will visit Elkins, W. Va., next week, we know nothing of such a visit here."

Baseball in the Line of Duty.

Danville, Ind., Oct. 27.—Charles C. Clark, a local groceryman, has been granted a pension of $6 a month for injuries received while in the Spanish-American war. In a baseball game he was struck in the face with a ball, which injured the malar bone. The injury is affecting the sight of his eyes, and he is entitled to a pension, as athletics come under the line of duty.

Vote for Farmer Algie J. Law for State Senator.

For Rent:—80 acre improved farm in Barkley tp., well tilled; cash rent. Enquire of Geo. McElfresh, Rensselaer, Ind., or the owner, Geo. Schreiner, Box 180, Sheridan, Ill.

Vote for Guy Gerber for Joint-Representative.

The Greening Nursery Co., Monroe, Mich., known to be the largest growers of Trees in the World, writes us that they want a good live agent in this section to solicit orders for their trees, shrubbery, etc. Experience not necessary. They offer good pay weekly, and furnish canvassing outfit free. We advise any man or woman in our community, who has some spare time to take orders to write them for particulars immediately. Mention this paper when writing.

Vote for Honest "Tom" Marshall for governor.

The man who made election bets, Relying on his knowledge, Will write a sad note to his son, Withdrawing him from college. The football season will wind up, The class room claim its braves, And the faculty will order flowers And decorate the graves.

A double fleeced lined coat of hair will come in style for dogs, and the farmer will put on the pot and kill his fattened hogs. The air will teem with shouts and squeals, and sundry flavors sweet, the good housewife will render lard and scrape and pickle feet, the spared old hens will get a note of terror in their cacklings, and the children will refresh their tumbs with good old-fashioned cracklings.

Mr. Roosevelt's annual proclamation advancing the price of turkey 10 cents a pound will be issued about the middle of the month. He will urge us to give thanks that 55,000,000 cubic feet of earth were excavated at Panama in October.

The sad-faced gobbler will address
His young and tearful flock,
And clip for memories sweet sake
A small and tear-stained lock,
And then, with many sighs, will lay
His head upon the block.

Until the 25th November will be under the zodiacal sign of Scorpio. People born in Scorpio are cross at supper, and it is better, if possible, to be born after the 25th, when the month is under the sign of Sagittarius the Archer. Sagittarius people are only cross at breakfast, when everybody is.

The flower for November is the chrysanthemum, which signifies that Japan received our fleet without starting anything. The moon will be full on the 8th.

Along about the 29th
The Duke of the Abruzzi
Will get it all fixed up that he
Shall wed his tootsey-wootsey;
And Elkins pere will dance a jig
And dream of wedding cake,
While everybody else makes bets
On whether it will take.

And then December will blow in
With cold and Christmas glee, and old King Coal, the merry old soul, will thunder out, "Pay me!"

Foley's Honey and Tar cures coughs quickly, strengthens the lungs and expels colds. Get the genuine in a yellow package. A.
