MAC K SEES VICTORY
Democratic National Chairman
Declares That Bryan Will Carry East and West.
REPORTS SHOW RISING TIDE
Ohio, Indiana and New York in the Democratic Column.
Norman E. Mack, chairman of the Democratic national committee, is confident of the election of Mr. Bryan as president. In a statement summing up the situation he said:
"Three weeks ago it was apparent that the tide had turned toward Democracy, and that every outward evidence pointed to a Democratic victory in November. The situation is far better now than then, and I am confident in the belief that Mr. Bryan will be elected president. In fact, the campaign, from the Democratic viewpoint, has steadily improved with each succeeding week. As Mr. Bryan has presented the issues in various sections of the country, the people have become more and more convinced that his election is for the permanent prosperity and best interests of the nation."
"Of the many reports I have received from the various states there has not been one discouraging to our cause. On the other hand, all of our information has indicated that there will be a remarkable decrease in the Republican vote, and this statement applies alike to the banner Republican state of Pennsylvania as well as to states like New York, Ohio, and Indiana. Mr. Bryan will not only receive the majority of the electoral vote, but one of the greatest popular votes ever given a candidate."

Says Fight Is Won.
"The fight is won, but we must keep everlastingly at it for the remaining two weeks of the campaign. Our reports have been of such an encouraging nature that I have at times had fears lest some of those on duty would, in their enthusiasm, let up in the fight, and my parting word to those at headquarters is that they continue their efforts just as aggressively as if the contest had to be won in the declining days of the campaign."
"The Democratic party has a greater membership than the Republican party. The only question with us in recent years has been to get our folks together in harmonious and united phalanx. I do not believe there is a Democrat in the entire country who is outside of the breastworks in this campaign, and that is the greatest reason to my mind why Mr. Bryan will be inaugurated president on March 4 next. I will not attempt to give figures, but I will say now that New York, Ohio, and Indiana are Democratic this year, and my prediction does not take into consideration a number of other states that will swing from the Republican to the Democratic column on election day."

Republicans Pass the Lie.
Republican campaign managers have been endeavoring to create the impression that James Duncan, first vice president of the American Federation of Labor, is not in sympathy with the labor movement advocated by Mr. Gompers, urging union labor to support its friends and defeat its enemies in the present campaign. Mr. Duncan was advised of this fact and asked to state his attitude in the matter. His reply is explicit and gives the lie to the Republican managers who have been seeking to place him in a false light.
List of Trust Allies.
The Republican national committee is sending out a letter asking for "cash contributions," in which the declaration is made that "the election of Judge Taft and James S. Sherman is essential to the welfare of the country."
The letter is of interest by reason of the character of the men whose names appear on the letterhead, and who make this appeal. Here are the men who sign the letter informing the people of the country that Bryan's election will be dangerous:
Charles F. Brooker, head of the brass trust and vice president of the New York, New Haven & Hartford railroad, against which a government suit is now pending in the Federal courts.
Charles Nagel, of Missouri, one of the general attorneys of the Standard Oil company. This Standard Oil representative is in charge of Republican national campaign headquarters in Chicago.
Frank O. Lowden, multi-millionaire son-in-law of the late George M. Pullman, and now head of the great Pullman Palace Car trust, to which the traveling public pays tribute.
T. Coleman Du Pont, the head of the powder trust, which is fighting a suit against dissolution.
Boise Penrose, the political "boss" of the corrupt political machine in Pennsylvania.
George R. Sheldon, the personal representative of J. Pierpont Morgan, in the capacity of director in all his trust companies, and who collected trust money for the election of Governor Hughes of New York.
William Nelson Cromwell, the legal representative of Edward H. Harriman and probably the greatest trust lawyer in the United States.
Fred W. Upham, the "fat fryer" for the Republican party in the west, and the man who wrote letters to corporations whose property he assessed by virtue of his position as a member of the board of review in Chicago.
Farmers and Business Men Know.
This is a fine outfit to advise the farmers and business men in the west how to vote. Two of the signers are heads of corporations which are fighting for their existence in the courts. Of course these men think Bryan's election dangerous; that is natural when one becomes acquainted with their connections. But there is not a legitimate business man in the nation, small or large, who has any reason to fear a Democratic victory.

REPUBLICANS HOWL CALAMITY
Seek to Destroy Public Confidence in Futile Effort to Defeat
Bryan.
Facing inevitable defeat and with a full knowledge of the fact that Bryan's election is as certain as anything reasonably can be in politics, the Republicans have been forced to resort to the last refuge of political cowards—to the calamity howl. They are now engaged in telling the country that panic and ruin will follow the election of Mr. Bryan. Instead of being patriotic citizens anxious to restore business confidence—a confidence which has been lost under a Republican administration—to subserve their own political selfish purposes they are vainly endeavoring to prolong the present business depression. The question naturally suggests itself: Why is it necessary to restore confidence? Why is it necessary to bring back business prosperity? What has become of confidence, what has become of prosperity? Both, under a Republican administration, have disappeared. Why is another Republican administration necessary to insure a return of confidence and prosperity?
The very same men who, today, are going about the country still further destroying confidence by preaching calamity, are the men, who, four years ago said that the Republican party must be successful in order that there might be prosperity. The Republican party was successful, but instead of bringing prosperity it brought panic, business depression and commercial stagnation. Whatever may be said of the present panic, it cannot be denied that it is a Republican panic. The Republican party is in full possession of the government and must accept the responsibility. How, then, can a continuation of the Republican party in power cure the evils from which the business community and the laboring man now suffer? Let the Republicans howl about their own panic, and not make false predictions about what will happen under a Democratic administration. They predicted prosperity four years ago, and proven false prophets. Why, then, should any sane man accept their premonitions now when they say that Bryan's election would bring business troubles. Business troubles are already here. What business men want is a cure for them, not a prolongation of the disease but the same sort of treatment which has produced the ailment.
Because business men and laboring men both know that a Republican administration has produced panic, they will not be deceived again by these false cries of Republican calamity howlers. They know that William Jennings Bryan is an honest man; they know that he will give the public an honest administration. They know that the calamity howl is for the sole purpose of deception.

RAILROAD EMPLOYES VS. MR. TAFT.
The Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers' Journal, in May, 1903, said: "Judge Taft's decision proclaims members of the B. of L. E. a band of conspirators."
Also, "We can not accept Judge Taft's decision in any other light than treason to republican institutions and the liberties of the people. It is, will be, and ought to be denounced and repudiated by all liberty loving men."
"The impudent falsehood that trusts and monopolies cheapen products and benefit the consumer is disproved by the fact that the price of commodities controlled by these monsters has been arbitrarily increased for no cause except to pay dividends on fictitious capital by methods that make larceny respectable."
—Ex-Senator John J. Ingalls.

FARMERS RESENT COERCION
Resolutions Passed by Indiana Tollers
Condemn Statements of President Sharples—Endless
Chain Among Farmers.
Chairman Mack was informed by wire today that at a meeting of representative farmers of Washington township, Marion county, Indiana, the following resolutions were adopted, and it was also agreed to form an endless chain among the farmers of the country:
Whereas, The Associated Press has sent out a statement issued by P. M. Sharples, president of the Sharples Separator Company of Westchester, Pa., saying that the hour Bryan is elected the Sharples works will close down, and
Whereas, Such statements as this will intensify the present financial panic and will also tend to bring on, if possible, other and greater financial calamity; therefore, be it
Resolved, That as farmers who have the good of our country at heart, we deeply deplore such unwarranted statements, and believing they are made for partisan purposes to intimidate and influence voters, we herewith denounce all firms making this and similar announcements, as narrow and bigoted, and in these times as disloyal to the best business interests of the nation, and in as much as the persons and firms now resorting to these unfair and unpatriotic methods maintain their businesses by patronage of democrats as well as republicans, we condemn these methods as an insult to any democratic patron which ought to be, and which we hope will be, resented.
Resolved, That we hereby call upon the farmers of the nation, irrespective of party, who believe in fair play, to unite with us through their organization and as individuals, in crushing out this unwise and indiscreet spirit which would sacrifice the country's welfare for party success. (Signed) Albert Blue, chairman; Ross S. Ludlow, secretary.

The following dispatch appeared in the newspapers of Oct. 10:
"Philadelphia, Pa., October 9.—The Sharples Separator company's works, one of the largest plants of its kind in the world, will shut down in the event of the election of W. J. Bryan, according to the statement issued by P. H. Sharples, president of the company. He says: 'The possibility of such a dire calamity to us as his (Bryan's) election seems remote, but the hour we are convinced such a thing will occur or has occurred, these works will have closed down.'"
Under date of Oct. 12 the following letter was sent to the Sharples company by Marbaugh Bros., of Monterey, Ind.:

October 12, 1908.
Sharples Separator Co., Chester, Pa.
Gentlemen—We notice in the Saturday's paper that you state you intend shutting down your factory after Nov. 3rd, in case Mr. Bryan is elected. We feel so sure that Mr. Bryan will be elected that we would advise you to close down immediately, as we will at least make an effort to let the Democrats know that you are very unfair and unprincipled and that you do not deserve the trade coming from the Democratic business men.
We have handled your separators for a number of years, but never knew until now that one political party would cause the cows to quit giving milk.
We consider this remark very unprincipled and respectfully ask that you confirm or deny this charge, as we do not want to leave this matter unnoticed, and we assure you that this will have full attention at the Hardware Convention, as we consider it an insult to any American citizen who deserves the right to vote according to his political convictions.
We are sending a copy of this letter to your Chicago office and will give this matter full notice in the Associated Press, if not denied.
We are also at this time sending a copy of this letter to the Democratic headquarters at Indianapolis. If you can conscientiously deny this charge we will forward it to the same parties.
We respectfully await your prompt reply in this matter.
Respectfully yours,
MARBAUGH BROS.

In order that it may be known what the Sharples concern's silly threat amounts to it is only necessary to call attention to the offer of a Chicago separator manufacturer to give work to all persons who lose employment in the Sharples plant.

"MUCH SUFFERING THIS WINTER"
The Indianapolis News (Ind. Rep.) of Oct. 9, says:
We have shown how the trusts by keeping up prices lessen the demand for their products and so throw men out of employment. Fred Starek, writing from Wheeling to the Cincinnati Enquirer, for employment by closing plants at will. In Wheeling there is a branch of the National Tube Company, which is constituent part of the United States Steel Corporation. This mill was closed a year ago when the panic struck the country, and has been closed ever since. The result was that 4,000 men were thrown out of work and have been, most of them, unemployed ever since. Now it is not to be said that the trust is necessarily to blame for this. For it is quite conceivable that it found it possible to produce more cheaply elsewhere. But still there are 4,000 men out of work. Other mills across the river have been closed since November last and as a consequence 2,000 more men, 500 of whom live in Wheeling, have nothing to do.
The other day we were told in an official report that "five thousand children who attend the public schools of Chicago are habitually hungry," and that "ten thousand other children in the city, while not such extreme cases, do not have sufficient food."

Commenting on the above facts the News says:
Undoubtedly there will be much suffering this winter, and many calls for relief. For the panic and depression have lasted much longer than most people thought possible. There have been few concessions in the matter of prices, so that we have a most unusual combination—namely, hard times and high prices. Probably those people who have about as much as they ever had, and who have not been forced to change their style of living, do not realize how much distress there is, especially in the manufacturing centers.
The notorious political blackmailer, Muhall, the creature of the Republican committees and VanCleave's anti-labor union association, came into the state originally to work for Watson's nomination. Since his nomination he has solicited bribery support for Watson when his time was not employed with his other schemes.

GUARANTEEING DEPOSITS.
The Republican party went wrong on the bank guaranty proposition because the interests that control it would not let it be right. Having gone wrong it stays wrong and is forcing some of its leaders to stultify themselves and deny their own convictions. Take the case of Congressman Fowler, chairman of the house committee on banking and currency. He is now quoted as saying that the proposition to guarantee bank deposits is a "preposterous and ridiculous scheme."
And yet it was only the 8th of last January when Mr. Fowler introduced in congress a bill "To establish a simple and scientific monetary system * * * and to guarantee all deposits," etc. On January 27 Mr. Fowler made a speech in favor of his bill in which, among other things, he declared that the guaranteeing of deposits was necessary to "prevent panic and the hoarding of money." Answering the very objections that Republican writers and speakers are now raising, Mr. Fowler said:
"Mr. Chairman, the oldest bank president in some town, or possibly the president of the largest bank in some town, may say that he will not have the advantage in the future to which he believes himself entitled if deposits are insured; therefore, there will be two classes who will oppose this principle. But banks, like other business institutions, will gain not by mere age and respectability, or by mere bulk of capital, but rather by ability to meet the requirements of their customers. Square dealing and capacity will tell for just as much after deposits are guaranteed as before."
"Mr. Chairman, is it not too high a price to pay to lay upon the altar of some man's ambition all the business interests of this country and still continue the habit of panics, the destruction of credit, and waste of business? On the one side there is personal ambition, vanity, the supposed advantage to a few hundred men; on the other side, millions of depositors with sixteen billions of deposits to their credit in our banks and the families of 20,000,000 American tollers. Which side shall we choose? Where does the duty of congress lie?"
"Mr. Chairman, so far without a single exception, I have proved to my own personal satisfaction, actually and morally, that these objections to the guaranteeing of deposits have come from distinctly selfish motives. These I assert must yield to the greater good."

The only explanation of Mr. Fowler's present attitude is that during the campaign he is talking merely as a Republican who feels bound to support a bad platform, while last winter he was expressing his honest opinions.
