

UNREAL NATURAL TEETH

To produce them has required a more persistent effort of time and patience than most people realize.

The difference between teeth that appear natural and those that don't—is the material of which they are made and a knowledge of the correct position and fitting to make them look real beside real teeth.

Some dentists deserve popularity for this work.

One assurance that the merits of my work are praise-worthy—my patrons urge others to give me a call.

Arrange to make your call.

DR. HORTON

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Brief Items of Interest to City and Country Readers.

Everybody goes to the Box Ball Alley.

To-day's markets—Wheat, 87c; Corn, 54c; Oats, 43c; Rye, 65c.

Mrs. Matt Worden is visiting relatives in Remington for a few days.

Mrs. Maude Reed of Michigan City is visiting Mrs. Grant Warner at present writing.

James D. Babcock of near Bluffton was shaking hands with old friends here Saturday and Monday.

D. J. Pettit, one of the solid citizens of White county, was over from Wolcott Tuesday on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Taylor Merritt of Remington, visited their son, John Merritt and family here Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. W. H. Beam was called to California Sunday by the sudden death of her father who resides in that state.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Gangloff have rented their farm east of town to John Moosmiller and sons and expect to move to Rensselaer.

Frank Minicus came down from Chicago Heights to visit his sister, Mrs. John Kohler, and friends Saturday. He will remain a few days.

George Myers and wife of Washington, Ill., a son of Louis H. Myers of this city, visited his father and week last week, returning home yesterday.

Isaac Kight, the newly elected democratic trustee of Union tp., was down from Fair Oaks on business yesterday.

Fred W. Baker, junior member of the firm of F. A. Baker and Son, publishers of the Delphi Daily Herald, was a visitor in the city a few hours Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Leach returned Saturday from a few days visit with the family of their daughter, Mrs. C. S. Hamacher of Newton county.

The beautiful fall weather still continues. Few states in the Union can surpass Indiana in its delightful falls. But our springs are usually a different story.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Bellows returned Monday from a week's visit with their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Murphy. They went up to Chicago Tuesday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Jacks attended the unveiling of the Tippecanoe battlefield monument at Battle Ground Saturday and went on from there to visit friends in Lafayette before returning home.

Mrs. S. M. Freelove returned to her home in Goodland Saturday after a several weeks visit here with her daughter, Mrs. F. E. Babcock. The latter accompanied her home and visited in Goodland until today.

Rue Parcells, who is attending business college at Indianapolis, was home to vote and immediately took to his bed with what looked like typhoid fever. Saturday he got out again and returned to Indianapolis Sunday, to take up his studies.

Prof. Christie of Purdue will be here Friday to score the corn on exhibition at Long's corn show. It will pay the farmers, as many as can do so, to be present and hear what Prof. Christie has to say about corn growing and the scoring of same.

Mrs. Priscilla Humes, who had been sick for some time, died Monday at 1 a. m., at the home of her daughter, Mrs. W. F. Osborne in this city, aged about 69 years. The funeral was held yesterday at Brushwood U. B. church at 2:30 p. m. She leaves four grown children.

Oakel, the 9-year-old daughter of Mrs. Lennie Gant, died at about 10 o'clock Monday night from pneumonia, at her mother's home on Harrison street. At this writing arrangements had not been completed for the funeral, but it will be held today, we understand, and burial be made at Demotte.

In the issue of Saturday we said Mrs. A. J. Smith was very sick. This was a mistake, but our information was at fault and the item should have read Mrs. J. W. Speaks. Her daughter, Miss Grace Speaks, who accompanied Mrs. Jesse Wilson to Washington, D. C., recently, returned home Friday evening because of her mother's sickness.

The Democrat is prepared at all times, remember, to turn out up-to-date job printing promptly and at reasonable prices.

The Democrat has a few more of those handsome and useful Wall Charts left. We want to close them out, and if you have not already secured one you should do so before they are all gone. Remember they are but 35 cents additional with a year's subscription to The Democrat.

Mrs. Joseph Nagle is in Lafayette under the care of a physician preparatory to an operation for gallstones. She has been ailing for some months, and it was finally determined that an operation was the only cure. She will be operated on as soon as the surgeon thinks she is in condition, which is now thought will be in about ten days.

About 155 tickets were sold here for the play of "The Wolf" at Lafayette last night, in which our Rensselaer actor, Gus Phillips, plays the leading role. The Rensselaer party went down on the milk train and returned on a special after the play. Such a large turnout from Gus' boyhood home is certainly a great compliment, and one which he appreciates fully. Gus was here Sunday visiting relatives.

W. H. Nicholls of Indianapolis writes the News of that city that his "father, who lives at Medaryville, Ind., was born September 5, 1816; was ninety-two years old last September. He is about three months older than the State of Indiana, and has voted for every Republican presidential candidate that the party ever had, including W. H. Taft, last Tuesday." This beats Uncle Simon Phillips' record of this city about one president.

A gay party of Rensselaer ladies, consisting of Mrs. C. A. Roberts, Mrs. John Eger, Mrs. Mary D. Eger, Misses Carrie and Mary Eger, Mrs. C. Martin, Mrs. B. K. Zimmerman, Mrs. Joe Larsh, Mrs. Fred Phillips and Mrs. Oppenheimer, went up to Lowell last Friday and spent the day with Mrs. Frank Malloy. They took fried chicken and some other accessories along with them so as not to create a sudden famine in Frank's household, and the dinner they sat down to was good enough for Tom Marshall. They returned home on the milk train the same evening and all report a most enjoyable time.

Monday night was an occasion in local Eastern Star circles that will long be remembered. The Grand Worthy Matron was here from Valparaiso and about 75 guests from Monticello, Monon and Valparaiso were in attendance, some 40 from Monticello and 20 from Monon alone. A fine supper was served before the initiatory ceremonies of a candidate, consisting of roast turkey and the necessary accessories, ice cream, cake, etc. It was one of the most enjoyable affairs of the kind ever held in Rensselaer, and the local lodge are proud over its success while the visitors are highly pleased at having been present. The Monticello ladies gave the Mystic Tie work in the initiation, and it was pronounced something grand.

Lake County Star.—The electric wiring from Crown Point to Lowell has been completed, and it looks flattering now for the electricity to be sent to that place in a few weeks, although the placing of the heavy machinery in the plant here will take some time and means a heavy outlay. The plant will be enlarged in a way that it will not have to be added to for some time to come. The fires set by railroads have come to a halt, but those burning deep in the marshes are still smoking, and will continue to destroy the land until a soaking rain falls. Where the Panhandle crosses Deep river, between Crown Point and Rush, the fire is still spreading under the surface, and in places has gone down two feet, which makes treacherous walking.

Emmet Pullins had a very exciting time getting a pair of elk into a crate in order to ship them to Logansport last week. He built a pen with a chute at one end, and at the end of the chute placed his crate with the door elevated so that the elk could be driven in and the door let down behind them. The animals would go into the chute but before the outer gate could be closed they would dodge out again. He finally devised a scheme with a pulley so that he could stand at a distance and close the gate. This worked all right, and he finally got them in the crate and the door closed behind them. No sooner were they in than they lay down as quietly as a domestic pig, and so remained the balance of the day.

The Democrat is prepared again this season to print the best looking sale bills turned out in Jasper county. A free notice of sale, in full, embellished with stock cuts, printed in The Democrat without extra charge.

Charles Peley and George Hemphill of Remington came over Monday and got Bruce Porter and "Bally" Powers to go up to the Kankakee with them for a few days. Their object in taking along such experienced fishermen of these two Rensselaer disciples of Isaac Walton, no doubt was to have something to show their Remington friends when they got back home.

David Gilmore of near Lewiston, Idaho, is visiting old friends in this vicinity, and was the guest of Geo. Pumphrey and A. J. Bellows yesterday. Mr. Gilmore resided just over the line in Benton county, near A. J. Bellows' farm, some twenty years ago, moving from there to Chicago, where he still has a son and brother. From Chicago he went to British Columbia and from thence to Idaho, where he has since resided. His wife died soon after leaving Indiana, and he has not re-married. Thomas Barton, a son of Patrick Barton, who used to run a blacksmith shop here where the Maines & Hamilton feed store is now located, lives at Lapwai, Idaho, only 1½ miles from where Mr. Gilmore lives, and conducts a general merchandise business. He married into an excellent family and is well fixed financially. Mr. Gilmore leaves today for a few days visit at Goodland, and from there will return to Chicago and from thence go to Ontario, Canada, his native home, to eat Thanksgiving dinner with relatives and to visit a few weeks.

COMMENTS ON HIS THIRD DEFEAT.

Mr. Bryan Commends Work of His National Committee, and is Still For Publicity.

Lincoln, Neb., November 6.—William J. Bryan today issued the following statement: "The election has gone against us by a decisive majority. The returns are not all in and it is impossible at the present time to analyze them or to say what causes contributed most to the Republican victory. We made our fight on a platform which embodied what we believed to be good for the American people, but it is for the people themselves to decide what laws they desire and what methods of government they prefer. I have faith that the publicity which we asked for will yet commend itself to the American people; that the election of Senators by the people will be secured; that the inequities of the trusts will arouse an opposition that will result in the elimination of the principle of private monopoly. I am confident that the people will see the necessity for the labor legislation and the tariff reduction which our platform demanded. I am confident, too, that the educational work done in this campaign will result in securing greater protection to bank depositors. The above are the most prominent reforms for which we labored, and I believe that these reforms will yet come, together with more effective regulation of railroads and independence for the Philippines.

Not a Personal Matter. "I desire to commend the work of our national committee. I am entirely satisfied with Mr. Mack as the chairman and with members of the committee. I realize that they could have done no more than they did, and as for myself I put forth every effort in my power to secure victory for our cause. The nomination came from the hands of the voters; I have obeyed their commands and have led as best I could. Words will not express my gratitude for the devotion which has been shown by millions of Democrats during the last twelve years.

"Neither am I able adequately to express my appreciation for the kind words which have been spoken since the election. If I could regard the defeat as purely a personal one, I would consider it a blessing rather than a misfortune, for I am relieved of the burdens and responsibilities of an office that is attractive only in proportion as it gives an opportunity to render a larger public service.

Will Serve as a Private. "But I shall serve as willingly in a private capacity as in a public one. God does not require great things of us; He only requires that we improve the opportunities that are presented, and I shall be glad to improve the opportunities for service presented by private life.

"In this hour of national defeat, I find some consolation in the cordial support given by my neighbors; by the citizens of Lincoln and by the people of the State of Nebraska. With a Democratic Governor and a Democratic Legislature, we shall be able to put in practice so much of the Denver platform as relates to State Legislation, and I trust that our State will set an example that will be an influence for good in the nation."

Jasper Guy of Remington makes farm loans at 5 per cent interest with no commission but office charges. Write him.

Linen finish type-writer paper, all the popular shades and also in white, with envelopes to match, are carried in stock at all times by The Democrat.

STATE PICKS A JURY

Defense in the Lamphere Case Then Proceeds to Pick It to Pieces.

VENIREMAN KNEW HIS RIGHTS

Insisted on Being Asked a Question That Let Him Out—Some Official Election Figures.

La Porte, Ind., Nov. 10.—In the trial of Ray Lamphere for the murder of Mrs. Gunness and children the state "passed the jury," thereby expressing its willingness to accept the twelve men who then filled the jury box. The twelve men with whom the state was willing to trust the case were: Henry Mills, retired farmer; James Emery and Andrew L. Ames, farmers; Charles Schlaak, merchant; William Gray and Charles F. Nelson, farmers; Charles Travis, retired farmer; John Bentz, farmer; V. W. Bartholomew, hardware dealer; L. B. Collins and O. L. Small, farmers; E. R. Hart, retired manufacturer.

Defense Retires Two Men. Then the defense had an inning, and during the examination of the veniremen by Attorney Worden, of the defense, he challenged Ames and Small, whose answers to the questions as regards the death of Mrs. Gunness and their opinions as to Lamphere's guilt or innocence were not satisfactory to him, and both were excused for cause. Of those examined by the defense, and who appear to have been perfectly satisfactory, so that it appears as though they will remain on the jury as finally accepted, are Charles Nelson, Charles Schlaak, V. W. Bartholomew and Henry Mills.

Special Panel Exhausted.

Attorney Worden's questioning touched on whether the veniremen had formed an opinion on the death of Mrs. Gunness, and whether they had reached any conclusion as to the guilt or innocence of Lamphere. The special panel of twenty-five having been exhausted another special venire of the same number was ordered. Throughout the proceedings Lamphere exhibited considerable concern at times and held whispered consultations with his attorney. At other times, he sat down low in his chair, apparently oblivious.

Oberreich Was Excused.

One of the dramatic incidents of the proceedings was when Venireman Oberreich, having been passed by the state, half arose in his seat and exclaimed, as Prosecutor Smith asked another venireman if he was opposed to the infliction of the death penalty, "Why didn't you ask me that question?" The state's attorney then returned of Oberreich and directed the question to him and the reply was "I am." He was peremptorily excused for cause.

WESTFIELD HAS A BIG SHOW

Good as a Circus, but Was Only Some Citizens Paying Election Bets.

Noblesville, Ind., Nov. 10.—Westfield has had a big show. It was the time for paying some novel election bets. I. B. Anderson guessed wrong on the race for judge and according to agreement he carried five bushels of coal from the office of the Home Fuel and Supply company, of which he is president, to the home of Jason Lipard. L. L. Lenfesty believed the entire country would be favored with a Democratic landslide. He acknowledged that he isn't a good prophet, and he also carried a supply of coal to the residence of L. O. Bishop.

Anderson and Lenfesty paid their bets at the same time and were accompanied on their journey by the Westfield Drum corps. The principal attraction of the evening was the parade of the wheelbarrow brigade. C. R. Johns, C. A. Chance, R. E. Johnson, Joseph Cook, Emmanuel Stanbrough and H. B. Clond had perfect confidence in the election of Watson for governor. They lost, and as a result they hauled H. B. Stout, Merl Horton, L. L. Lenfesty, O. B. Catterson, R. S. Catterson and Bert Meirs, all Democrats, a distance of four squares in wheelbarrows.

Republicans Have Pluralities.

Indianapolis, Nov. 10.—The secretary of state's office has completed the totals on five additional state offices. Frank J. Hall, Democrat, for lieutenant governor, received a plurality of 1,672; Fred A. Sims, Republican, for secretary of state, was successful by a plurality of 492; James Bingham, Republican, for attorney-general, received a plurality of 738; Oscar Hadley, Republican, for treasurer of state, won by a plurality of 837, and John C. Billheimer, Republican, for auditor, was elected by a plurality of 788.

Cured of Wife Desertion.

Terre Haute, Ind., Nov. 10.—Pearl Robertson, after spending a night in jail charged with wife desertion, was released on his promise to return home. He left his wife says, because a child born to them was a girl and not a boy. Robertson confirmed the wife's statement.

Beet That Looks Like a Pig.

Oakland City, Ind., Nov. 10.—Sam Hope, a farmer, has a beet that weighs nine and one-half pounds. It is almost a likeness of a pig. The nose, legs and tail are formed by roots and small roots resemble bristles.

BEAUTIFUL PEARLY WHITE TEETH

USUALLY CAUSE A PLEASURE LONG TO BE REMEMBERED. They are usually the results of the very closest attention at the proper time. If you have postponed this important duty, you will be glad to know how I can help you to "make good."

One reason you will likely commend my operations—I am a firm believer in works that makes my patients so well satisfied that no desire will enter their minds that they could have done better at another dentist.

Come in and get a few facts about your teeth.

DR. HORTON

AMERICAN BEAUTY Style 1066
Kalamazoo Corset Co., Makers
Laced front. High bust. Tapering waist. Very fine quality linen finished batiste. Lace and silk ribboned trimmed at top, with silk bow. Hose supporters front and sides. White only. Sizes 18 to 30. Price $3.00.

AMERICAN BEAUTY Style 1066
Kalamazoo Corset Co., Makers
Extra long extended hips. High bust. Straight seams. But conforming with draw string. Fine quality batiste. Handsome lace and ribbon trimming. Hose supporters front and sides. White only. Sizes 18 to 26. Price $2.

DEMONSTRATION AMERICAN BEAUTY CORSETS

NOV. 9 to NOV. 14

You are most cordially invited to attend the Corset Demonstration at our store during the above dates.

Miss Frieberg
EXPERT CORSETIERE

representing the Kalamazoo Corset Co., Kalamazoo, Mich., will be present and will be pleased to advise you in reference to the particular model you should wear to secure ease, comfort and a stylish figure—to produce that attractive personal individuality so desired by every woman of refinement.

These Dainty Corsets are not expensive $1.00 and upward

Our stock of these up-to-date corsets is complete—great care being used in choosing those styles that will be just what you require—We also want you to see the elegant exhibit brought here by our demonstrator.

Please call even though you may not care to purchase at present.

THE G. E. MURRAY CO.
RENSELAER, INDIANA

"THIS ONE COULD GO."
"Is that so?"
"Yes."
"Who are they?"
"Er—er—"
"Whom did you say?"
"Doggone if I haven't forgotten their names."

dering if there would be any one left to listen to the others."

Could Find Them.
Lady—I want a divorce, but I am afraid I have no good grounds.
Lawyer—How much is your husband worth?
Lady—About $4,000,000.
Lawyer—That ought to be grounds enough.

If you are in any danger of being called upon to eat your own words it certainly is up to you to look out beforehand that they are palatable.

Undoubtedly your neighbor has many faults, for which same give thanks, for who would care to live next door to an angel?

A great deal of mental tribulation is saved in this world by always remembering to be consistently selfish.

The more desirable it is to lose a person the harder it seems to become to detach him.

There may be nothing new under the sun, but clever made-overs are extremely numerous.

It is necessary for every good man to be well managed. That is why he either marries or goes into politics.

Fierce.
"Well, I should say that there are some people in this world that I don't like."
"Is that so?"
"Yes."
"Who are they?"
"Er—er—"
"Whom did you say?"
"Doggone if I haven't forgotten their names."
Mildly Complimentary.
"I notice you are on for the last speaker of the evening."
"No; I am about the middle."
"Yes, on the programme, I know, but after you have spoken I was won-