HEXAMETHYLENETETRAMINE.

The above is the name of a German chemical, which is one of the many valuable ingredients of Foley's Kidney Remedy. Hexamethylenetetramine is recognized by medical text books and authorities as a uric acid solvent and antiseptic for the urine. Take Foley's Kidney Remedy as soon as you notice any irregularities, and avoid a serious malady. A. F. LONG.

NEVER FAIL.

Corn husking is almost done in this vicinity.
Leonard Keister hauled corn to Rensselaer Wednesday.
Andy Hurley hauled corn for Charles Harris Friday.
John and Kurg Burns called on William Wortley Thursday.
Jacob Dewey and family were Rensselaer goers Thursday.
Walter Hall hauled corn to Remington several days last week.
Mrs. Claude Williams and Mrs. Charles Harris did shopping in the city Thursday afternoon.
Kurg Burns and Miss Alice Dewey visited relatives near Monticello a few days last week.
John Burns returned home Tuesday from near Chalmers where he has been husking corn for the past few weeks.
Infant Bice was badly burned on the leg, while trying to extinguish a fire, some time ago and is suffering from the effects of it at this writing.

RAW LUNGS

When the lungs are sore and inflamed, the germs of pneumonia and consumption find lodgment and multiply. Foley's Honey and Tar kills the cough germs, cures the most obstinate racking cough, heals the lungs, and prevents serious results. The genuine is in the yellow package. A. F. LONG.

SURREY.

Corn husking will nearly wind up this week.
Mr. Schreag is having a good poultry trade nowadays.
Our station is doing a big business taking in corn nowadays.
Gilmore & Wells are making a new well at the place where John Zimmer lives.
Will Zacher, who has been at home for a while, returned to Chicago last week.

The Lornegan and Murphy boys shipped a car of hogs last week and done fairly well, too.
Bert Warren of Fair Oaks brought some mules and colts to share some of our rich pasture for awhile.
The fur hunters have looked the business up so close lately that there is scarcely anything left for seed.

Mr. Day of Chicago, who bought an 80 of the Makeover land, is making improvements by the way of tilling.

George Marion, who used to live at Parr but later of Michigan, has moved back and now is located in Gus Zacher's house.

It goes rather hard with the republican party of No. 1 to think their men run so far behind the ticket. We will all be democrats by and by.

C. L. Parks is getting out of horses pretty fast lately. He had one good horse to die a few days ago and a pony and colt left on the 12th and he hardly knows what may happen to the remaining two at almost any time.

Winter blasts, causing pneumonia, pleurisy and consumption will soon be here. Cure your lungs with Foley's Honey and Tar. Do not risk starting the winter with weak lungs, when Foley's Honey and Tar will cure the most obstinate coughs and colds, and prevent serious results. A. F. LONG.

IROQUOIS VALLEY.

Everybody about done husking corn.
Hiram Davis is shucking corn for Chris Morgenege.

Manly Stovrs bought a buggy of Villas Price, and now he don't have to go see in horseback any more.

Barney Kolhoff and family attended the box social at the catholic school in Rensselaer Thursday night.

Mrs. John Lewis and Mrs. Saylor of near Center school house called on Mrs. George McElfresh Wednesday.

We are soon to lose one of our neighbors, L. P. Shirer, who will soon move to Rensselaer to reside as sheriff.

HANGING GROVE.

Revival meetings began at McCoyburg Sunday evening.

Mrs. R. L. Bussell spent Wednesday with Mrs. C. A. Armstrong.

Mrs. Williamson, who has been sick for the past week, is better at this writing.

The contractors are now putting in the new steel bridge over the Howe ditch south of McCoyburg.

Mrs. Albert Warner, who got her arm broke last week, is getting along very nicely at this writing.

Frank Peregrine of Valparaiso returned home Monday after two or three days visit with relatives in this vicinity.

We understand that Mr. Gifford will begin work extending his railroad south from McCoyburg this week, and we hope he will.

Porter & Howe decided to quit shredding corn for a week or so as the fodder is so dry that it is nearly impossible to get it through the shredder. The late rains will dampen it up all right.

Peregrine's had a big family reunion at Geo. Parker's Sunday, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Millard English of Kirksville, Mo. Those present were C. A. Armstrong and wife, Ed Peregrine and family, F. L. Peregrine and family, Washington Cook and family, R. L. Bussell and wife, Mrs. John Phillips and Mrs. Mary Ann Robinson, Floyd Porter and wife, Gertrude Downs and John Monartz of this township and Frank Peregrine of Valparaiso. All of the brothers and sisters were present except C. R. Peregrine of Danville. They were served with a fine dinner about 12 o'clock, and in the evening they all left for their respective homes, hoping they might have many more such happy meetings.

A Sure-enough Knocker.

J. C. Goodwin, of Reidsville, N. C., says: "Bucklen's Arnica Salve is a sure-enough knocker for ulcers. A bad one came on my leg last summer, but that wonderful salve knocked it out in a few rounds. Not even a scar remained." Guaranteed for piles, sores, burns, etc. 25c. at A. F. Long's drug store.

OBITUARY.

Francis Antrim, the fourth son of Mr. and Mrs. Frazier Antrim, was born in Gillam township, Jasper county, Ind., October 31, 1888, died at the home of his parents in Wheatfield township, Nov. 15, 1908, at the age of 20 years and 15 days, of consumption.

He was an exemplary young man of excellent character. His habits were above reproach and he was beloved by all who knew him.

He leaves to mourn their loss a father, mother, four brothers, four sisters and numerous relatives and a host of friends. One brother, Owen, preceded him to the great beyond only ten months ago.

The remains were shipped and arrived at this place last Tuesday morning at 11 o'clock. Immediately upon their arrival they were taken to the Christian church where Rev. Lynn Bates, pastor of the M. E. church, preached an excellent sermon to the assembled audience.

Six of the young friends of the departed one from Wheatfield acted as pall bearers. Interment followed immediately after the church services in the Medaryville cemetery.

The parents and relatives have our heartfelt sympathy in their bereavement.—Medaryville Advertiser.

REPUBLICAN 'SINews'

Treasurer Sheldon Files His Report of Amount and Where They Came From.

TOTAL SUM WAS $1,655,518.27

Contributors Number 12,330 and Biggest Giver Was Chas. P. Taft.

National Committee Used of the Aggregate $1,085,368.27—Rest Went to the States—Talk About the Speakership.

Albany, Nov. 24.—The official list of contributions to the Republican national campaign fund, filed here by Treasurer George R. Sheldon, shows several important variations from the "guess work" prophecies which had been made. The amount subscribed for the election of William Howard Taft was exactly $1,655,518.27, and this sum was given by 12,330 contributors. The official figures show that the unofficial forecasters let their imagination run away with them somewhat in fixing the size of individual contributions.

Largest Individual Gifts.

Charles P. Taft gave $110,000 toward the fund of his brother, instead of over $150,000, as had been published by the "forecasters," and after this the size of the checks takes a decided slump. Andrew Carnegie, J. Pierpont Morgan, William Nelson Cromwell and Whitelaw Reid were said to be a quartette who gave another $100,000. The official figures show that Carnegie and Morgan gave only $20,000 each, Cromwell only $15,000 and Reid $10,000. The only man who gave $25,000 and the highest individual contributor except C. P. Taft is Larz Anderson, of Boston. Anderson is a brother-in-law of Nicholas Longworth and has a close personal feeling for the Roosevelt administration.

Spent at Chicago and New York.

The net amount received and disbursed at the New York and Chicago headquarters was $1,035,368.27. In addition there was collected by the national committee's finance committees in the states and turned over to the Republican state committees for use in their own states $620,150.

Gave $5,000 and Up.

Among those who gave $10,000 and upward, besides those noted in the foregoing were the Union League, New York, $34,777; Union League, Philadelphia, $22,500; Frank A. Munsey and Jacob H. Schiff, New York, $10,000; Fred P. Smith, Michigan, $10,000; Edith Agness Corbin, Washington, $10,000. There were two contributions, one the product of several contributors, of $5,000; one of $7,500; one, R. C. Kerens, St. Louis, of $7,000, and one of $6,000. Among those giving $5,000 were: J. C. Schmidlapp, Cincinnati; Simon Guggenheim, Denver; Kountze Bros. J. M. W. Seligman & Co., James Speyer, D. O. Mills and Norman B. Ream, New York; A. Busch, St. Louis; G. Pinchot, Washington, and thirteen others.

Men Who Gave Below $5,000.

There was eight contributors of $4,000, including Cornelius N. Bliss, of New York; two of $3,500; eleven of $3,000; thirteen of $2,500, including Charles M. Schwab and Elliott Root; twenty of $2,000, including John Jacob Astor, of New York, and B. F. Jones, of Pittsburgh; twenty-four of $1,500, including C. G. Davis and F. E. Grimes, of Chicago, and J. G. Battelle, of Detroit; one of $1,300, W. B. Ridgely, Chicago; four of $1,250, including Clarence H. Mackay, of New York, and H. H. Huntington, of San Francisco; one hundred and twenty of $1,000, including many Chicago men; one of $800, and nine of $750, including F. M. Alger, R. A. Alger, T. H. Newberry and P. H. McMillan, of Detroit.

Contributions of $500.

Of $500 contributors there were two hundred and fifty, most of which were from New York, Boston, Pittsburg, Chicago and Philadelphia.

FATE OF SPEAKER CANNON

His Arrival at Washington Thursday Expected to End Talk.

Washington, Nov. 24.—The arrival of Speaker Cannon at the capital not later than Thursday is awaited by his friends with the belief that his presence will put an end to the reports that President-elect Taft will oppose his reelection to the speakership. As the members of the present congress who are to serve in the Sixty-first congress arrive the interest in the speakership grows, and is rapidly becoming the principal theme of discussion.

The attitude of Speaker Cannon on the tariff is understood by most of the representatives to be the principal objection that will be urged against his reelection as speaker, and it is believed that he will make his position so clear when he arrives, both by word and action, that there will be complete and agreeable understanding reached between the speaker and Taft in regard to the revision. It is understood that no arrangements have been made for a conference between the two. Speaker Cannon's friends say that he would hardly go to Hot Springs to confer with the president-elect without an invitation.

The statement of Chairman Payne, of the committee on ways and means, that a new tariff bill will be framed during the coming session of congress for enactment into law at a special session fell far short of ending the discussion as to how the tariff will be revised. The framing of a bill at this session is taken by some who say they are fighting for a thorough revision of the tariff as an indication that the schedule would be reviewed too hastily and without intention of much change. Others say they can be no party to interference by the executive or president-elect with the organization of the house.

CARNEGIE IS CALLED UPON

Tariff Inquiries Would Like Him to Talk to Them.

Washington, Nov. 24.—Chairman Payne, of the house committee on ways and means, has sent a telegram to Andrew Carnegie in New York city, asking him to appear this week, preferably tomorrow, to give the committee such information as he possesses in regard to the iron and steel industry and tariff schedules.

Sitting in a long night session to consider the tariff schedules on tiles, lime, cement, carbons and kindred articles the committee put in full time at work. In the course of the night session H. L. Sheppard and Orin F. Perry, of the Rockland-Rockport (Maine) Lime company, were put through a grilling examination when they asked that the present duty of 5 cents a hundred pounds on lime be maintained. Perry asserted that his company was organized in 1900, when seven or eight firms were purchased. He admitted the price of lime had advanced ever since.

Chairman Payne asked why Perry's firm was the only one that demands a duty. "Because we are so near to the Canadian manufacturers and because ours is the best made in the United States," he replied. "Why we have the best in the world right in New York," declared Payne, with a show of state pride. "Yes; we sell most of our product in New York," retorted Perry. Using figures supplied him, Representative Clark figured out that the company is making 24 per cent profit.

As to the Money Question.

Washington, Nov. 24.—General revision of the financial system cannot be hoped for at the coming session of congress, but the members of the national monetary commission expect there will be a law passed corrective of some of the developed evils in the administrative features of banking. These probabilities were evident when the commission held its first meeting preliminary to the making of its report.

Taft Has a Tired Feeling.

Hot Springs, Va., Nov. 24.—Ohio political affairs were discussed between President-elect Taft and W. B. Gullbert, auditor for that state. An extended golf game with his brother Henry, and General Edwards, and several hours in the saddle brought the president-elect home at dark in possession of a good healthy tired feeling.

WIND'S AWFUL WORK

MORE THAN THIRTY ARE DEAD

Tornado Rips Up the Northwestern Part of Arkansas—Several Towns Demolished.

Little Rock, Ark., Nov. 24.—According to advices received here, more than thirty human lives were lost and many other persons were injured in a tornado which swept the northwestern section of this state, completely demolishing several towns and razing vast tracts of timber. The section reported storm-swept is removed from both telegraph and railroads.

The tornado, approaching from the southwest, crossed the Arkansas river several miles south of the settlement of Piney, and proceeding in a north-easterly direction, swept through the towns of London, Wallerly, Pethro, Lodi, Lewisville, Paterson and Berryville, and outlying portions of Mulberry, either completely wrecking or laying waste the larger part of these places, and destroying timber and crops throughout the immediate country.

At Piney it is stated that twelve persons were killed and others injured. Practically the entire settlement was demolished. At London ten are reported to have lost their lives. Wallerly and Jethro are reported destroyed, several fatalities occurring in each place. In the vicinity of Mulberry the death list is placed at five. At Berryville, one woman, Mrs. J. O. Hoskins, was seriously injured.

Taft to Dine with Ingalls

Hot Springs, Va., Nov. 24.—President-elect Taft will eat Thanksgiving dinner with M. E. Ingalls, former president of the Chesapeake and Ohio railroad. Mrs. Taft will go to New York, where she will be joined by her three children—Robert, Helen and Charles—as the guests of Henry W. Taft and his two sons.

Indiana's Popular Vote

Indianapolis, Nov. 24.—The popular vote for president in Indiana was as follows: Taft, 348,998; Bryan, 338,262; Chafin (Pro.), 18,045; Watson (People's), 1,183; Debs (Socialist), 13,476; Preston (Social Labor), 643; Hise (Ind.), 514. The plurality for Taft over Bryan is 10,731.

IN GREAT AGONY.

Young Player Died as Result of Football Injuries.

Grand Rapids, Mich., Nov. 22.—Albert Emmer, aged 19, died today as the result of injuries received in a football game at Sparta three weeks ago. The boy was Captain of the Lions, composed of local high-school boys. In a rush at Sparta he was knocked down and bruised in the kidneys. The injury was thought slight at first, but he has been in bed for a week, and died in great agony.

FOUND DEAD IN HIS ROOM.

Dr. S. H. Lywyer, Aged Dentist Dies Suddenly at Brazil.

Brazil, Ind., Nov. 19.—Dr. S. H. Lywyer, aged sixty-seven, was found dead in his room in the Rigby Hotel, here, this morning. He had been taking treatment at a sanatorium in Battle Creek, Mich., but returned here two weeks ago. Heart disease is believed to have been the cause of his death. Dr. Lywyer was for years the leading dentist of this city. His wife died several years ago, and his only survivors are two sons, Prof. Albert Lywyer, occupying the chair of mathematics in Robert's College, near Constantinople, Turkey, and Paul, a member of the Purdue football squad, at Lafayette.

BUTCHER IS REPENTANT.

Asks Forgiveness of Public for Mixing Tallow with Lard.

Warsaw, Ind., Nov. 21.—Because his conscience hurts him, Frank Spera, a former resident of Akron, Ind., has caused to be inserted in various newspapers in this vicinity the following announcement:

"I want to make restitution and beg pardon of the people through the newspapers. When I was in the butcher business in Akron, I mixed tallow with lard and sold it to my customers. I ask all of these people in Jesus' name to forgive me of the offence; and if there are any who are not satisfied with just forgiving me, if they will send me a statement of the amount that they think they were wronged, honestly, between God and man, I will make all wrongs right."

AUCTION FOR PHONOGRAPH.

Sheriff Cries an Imaginary Sale and Friend Makes Record of It.

Columbus, Ind., Nov. 21.—Sheriff Irvin A. Cox has found a new diversion. When not acting in his official capacity he is an auctioneer and cries sales in this and neighboring counties. His line of talk, including "make it a half, make it a half—do I hear 50 cents bid?" and all that sort of thing, has made such a hit with a friend living in this city that the sheriff had to do all this stunt in front of a phonograph. The friend set the machine and then the sheriff cried an imaginary sale. He put up a piece of furniture, told of its good qualities, then had a spirited bidding contest with himself, urged the bidders to make higher bids and finally, after the regulation three warnings, knocked it down. Then the phonograph owner packed up his record and went home, his face wreathed in smiles. He says he would rather have that record than a selection from grand opera.

FOUND IN CEDAR LAKE.

Body of Wealthy Farmer, Who Disappeared Eleven Days Ago.

Hammond, Ind., Nov. 21.—The mystery concerning the disappearance of Charles Buboltz, a wealthy Cedar Lake farmer, was partly cleared up today by the discovery of his body in Cedar Lake by Tony Hetzler, who was dragging the lake. Buboltz disappeared from home eleven days ago after making a deposit of several hundred dollars in a Crown Point bank. How Buboltz met death puzzles the police.

There are theories of both murder and suicide. Around the leg of the corpse a wire had been fastened. On one end of the wire was a loop, as if it had held a weight, and the authorities, who the day after Buboltz left home, found an empty boat containing Buboltz's cap drifting near the Armour ice houses, do not know whether he rowed out in the lake, weighted his body and jumped overboard or not. The inquest will be held at the Crown Point morgue today.

DIDN'T TAKE THE CHILDREN.

Deputy Sheriff's Heart Failed When They Clung to Their Mother.

Muncie, Ind., Nov. 21.—Although Deputy Sheriff Thomas Kiger was armed with all the necessary papers for taking into legal custody the two children of Mrs. Minnie Dunkin, who had been declared by the Circuit Court unfit to rear the children, the officer did not take them. Kiger found the two children, one a mere infant, clinging to their mother's skirts, and the woman hysterical at the thought of losing them. The deputy sheriff tried to reason with the woman, but he did so in a half-hearted way and then left the house with the children still in the woman's possession, while he made a report to Judge Leffer.

"You didn't obey the orders of the court?" asked the judge with an attempt at severity.
"I can give up my job," said Kiger.

"Well, you needn't," said the court. "I'll hear more evidence in this case before I do anything further."

FT. SCOTT BANK IN TROUBLE.

Controller of Currency Appoints Receiver for the First National.

Ft. Scott, Kas., Nov. 21.—Controller of the Currency Murray today appointed James D. Bradley, bank examiner, as receiver of the First National Bank of this city. This action was taken when the controller received a telegram from President Hornaday asking that a receiver be appointed, owing to a run on the bank which has lasted two days. The bank has a capital of $100,000, and according to the last report has a surplus of $25,000.

The First National, which closed its doors today, was one of the oldest banks in the State. Grant Hornaday, the president, stated that the failure was the result of malicious reports spread by enemies of the bank. He said the bank's assets exceed the liabilities by $127,000, and that the depositors would be paid in full. The depositors number about two thousand, many of them small merchants. The bank was organized in 1870 and the officers at the time of closing were Grant Hornaday, president; F. A. Hornaday, cashier, and Charles Love, vice-president.

COURT A MODISTE'S SHOP.

Main Point in Case is Whether Expensive Gown Fits Purchaser.

Lafayette, Ind., Nov. 20.—Judge Henry H. Vinton's courtroom of the Superior Court was transformed into a modiste's shop yesterday in a case involving an expensive tailored suit which, according to the plaintiff in the case, Mrs. Bertha Brown, head waitress at the Mudlavia Springs Hotel, is a very bad misfit, although the defendant, Charles W. Zeigler, an Attica merchant, contends that with a few slight alterations the dress would fit perfectly.

Mrs. Brown paid for the suit in advance and when it was delivered refused to accept it. She asked to have her money returned and, upon being refused, brought suit to recover the $150 paid for the suit. The case was brought to this county on change of venue. The gown was brought into court and expert dressmakers testified to court and jury as to the merits and defects of the garment. Mrs. Brown, when on the witness stand, proved more than a match for the attorneys, who cross-examined her. She declared that the suit did not fit her in a single place. "Didn't it touch your body anywhere?" asked Dan W. Sims, counsel for the defendant. "If I did I couldn't tell just where," the witness replied. She told Mr. Sims it would be impossible for her to explain just where and why the suit did not fit because he would not understand the terms. The attorney wilted. The trial is still in progress.

They Take the Kinks Out.

"I have used Dr. King's New Life Pills for many years, with increasing satisfaction. They take the kinks out of stomach, liver and bowels, without tuss or friction," says N. H. Brown, of Pittsfield, Vt. Guaranteed satisfactory at A. F. Long's drug store. 25c.
