Scott's Emulsion

of Cod Liver Oil with Hypophosphites should always be kept in the house for the following reasons:

First—Because, if any member of the family has a hard cold, it will cure it.

Second—Because, if the children are delicate and sickly, it will make them strong and well.

Third—Because, if the father or mother is losing flesh and becoming thin and emaciated, it will build them up and give them flesh and strength.

Fourth—Because it is the standard remedy in all throat and lung affections.

No household should be without it.

Send this advertisement, together with name of paper in which it appears, your address and four cents to cover postage, and we will send you a "Complete Handy Atlas of the World."

J. G. Liggett, who has been laid up so long with the grip, has so far recovered that he is able to come down town.

Mrs. Ike Kight went to Lacross Saturday to help her son Jasper to pack up his household goods to move to Wheatfield this week where he has a meat market.

Bark Crawford and George Brouhard and son Ray went up on the Kankakee river the first of the week to help the farmers haul sawlogs and the latter two to cut them.

F. R. Erwin bought and took possession of Dr. Fyfe's stock of goods except the drugs Monday morning. The Dr. and his wife took the Coal road train Tuesday eve for Wheatfield on business.

Henry C. Goff and wife of Wisconsin, came last week to see her mother, Grandma Hurley, and brother Perry, the blind boy. They packed up their household effects and shipped them out where Henry lives and left Tuesday morning to make Wisconsin their future home.

There is a petition being circulated to build a gravel road from Fair Oaks to the county line, a distance of one mile, and one to build a gravel road on the county line beginning two miles south or opposite the old Kent ranch house, and extend two miles north or to the milk station on the Monon, a distance of 4 miles and it is reported that there is a petition for quite a lot more gravel or stone roads over in Newton county, which will intersect with ours to run from here west and on the county line. Let the good work go on. It is said that J. J. Lawler is behind the proposition.

There was a very exciting time at Tom Mallatt's Sunday eve when his daughter, Mrs. Warren Zeller's babe, swallowed an open safety pin. They called Dr. Fyfe and all was done that could be to extract the pin, but they could not get it. So Mr. and Mrs. Zellers in company with the doctor took the 4:50 a. m. train for Chicago and after searching for some time with the use of the X-Ray they located it in the side of the throat. The Dr. took a pair of forceps and gently picked the pin out, which was a great relief to all concerned, as they feared the knife would have to be used to get it.

A very sad affair took place in our town Monday eve when Mrs. Simon Kessick died very suddenly about 8 o'clock. She had done a large washing, besides scrubbing and baking at Frank Husted's (the agent's) in the south part of town and had about got through with her day's labor at about 5 o'clock when she took a very violent spell of twitching, drawing up of the muscles and staggering, and finally fell to the floor. She lay on the floor all drawn up and never spoke a word after she had the attack. She was a very large woman and could not be easily lifted to a bed. Her husband preceded her to the unknown about two years ago. She leaves four children ranging from 3 to about 15 years, a father, Joseph Gaines, who resides in Virginia, a brother and several sisters in Minnesota. Her father arrived here Wednesday morning and one sister and oldest daughter arrived in the evening. She was a member of the M. E. church, having become so last summer during a revival held here. The funeral was held Thursday at the Methodist church, and interment made in the Fair Oaks cemetery. She also leaves a host of friends and another sister, Mrs. Al Helsel, who lives near. This is a very sad affair and the bereaved ones have the full sympathy of the entire community.

Ladies' Misses' and Children's coats at reduced prices; and they make appropriate Xmas gifts, too.
