Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Stucker returned home Monday from a visit with relatives at Delphi a few days.

Mrs. O. C. McClure went to Hammond Monday to visit with her husband, who is a street car conductor.

The biggest bargains in footwear ever offered in Rensselaer, are now to be found at Fendig's Exclusive Shoe Store.

Remember that L. H. Marclay's sale next Saturday, west of town, will take place at the regular time, beginning at 10 a. m.

Paul Glazebrook was up from Purdue and spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Glazebrook of north of town.

Prof. E. S. Tillman was up from Lebanon Sunday to visit with his wife. He has a very desirable position as biology instructor in the Lebanon high school.

Philip Hedson, who is preparing to move on the B. O. Gardner farm near Pleasant Ridge, is at present at the home of his parents north of town, sick with the measles.

J. M. Sauser, who has been in the army or the past 24 years, went to Ft. Sheridan, Ill., Monday to retire. Mr. Sauser owns property in Rensselaer and will return to make this his future home. He had been visiting with Ed Goetz of west of town, for some time.

Ed Reeve and family moved Monday to the Mrs. Ralph Marshall ten acre farm just at the west side of town, their son Leo and wife accompanying them. John Schanlaub and son-in-law who have been occupying the place, have moved on to a farm a few miles west of town.

Mrs. Mary E. Richmond writes The Democrat from Winnebago, Minn., where the family are now located, and says they have had lots of good old winter there. It has been steady winter since the last of November, with snow two feet deep on the level and a part of the time 30 degrees below zero.

Rev. A. E. Clem of Thorntown came yesterday to assist his brother-in-law, Rev. O. E. Miller in the revival meetings, now being conducted at the First Baptist church. Last Saturday evening the meetings commenced and four conversions were made at that time. Rev. Miller says the meetings will continue two weeks longer.

Mrs. O. A. Garriott and children of Hammond came down Sunday night for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Leach. The strike in the car shops there in which her brothers were working is still on and no prospect of early settlement. The boys could work, of course, if they had a cordon of police with them all the time, but they prefer to wait and see what will be the outcome.

Glen Baker of Barkley tp., returned Friday evening from a month's visit with relatives in Chicago, Pontiac, Ill., and Sparta and Manchester, Tenn.

C. A. Bonner, A. A. Fell and W. E. Peck of Remington were in town on business Thursday. Mr. Bonner left the same afternoon for Lowell and Valparaiso on a business trip.

It is reported that Rensselaer is to have another bucket-shop, to be located in one of Leopold's upstairs rooms on Washington street. Rensselaer must be a rich field for this sort of gambling.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Chapman of Alfa, Wyo., who have been visiting here with the latter's sister, Mrs. J. W. Ward, returned home Monday accompanied by Mrs. Chapman's mother, Mrs. Perrigo of Monticello.

Wm. Walter spent Sunday with his brother James who is in a Chicago hospital recovering from an operation for hernia. He reports him as getting along nicely, but it will be a couple of weeks likely before he leaves the hospital.

The two little sons of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Hopkins, who for the past five months have been staying with the latter's parents, south of Monticello, because of Mrs. Hopkins' poor health, were brought home last week. Mrs. Hopkins has been taking treatment from a Chicago specialist for a nervous trouble, and is thought to be improving somewhat at present.

"Just A Woman's Way," a successful comedy drama by Sidney W. Pascoe, to be produced at Ellis' Theatre, next Friday, Feb. 4, tells a strong and affecting story of the troubles of a young wife in defending her hearth and home from the wiles of a scheming woman who has become an inmate of her happy home. The time of the play is two years, and the five acts in which it is produced prove an interesting exposition of the dramatist's ability in accomplishing multum in parvo.

BIRTH ANNOUNCEMENTS.
Jan. 31, to Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Moorhead of Limon, Colo., at the home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Nevill of Rensselaer, a daughter.

NOTICE OF SPECIAL MEETING OF COUNTY COUNCIL.
Notice is hereby given that the County Council of Jasper County, Indiana, will meet in special session Monday, February 7th, 1910, at 11 o'clock a. m., in the Commissioner's Court Room, to transact such business as may be properly brought before them for consideration.

JAMES N. LEATHERMAN, Auditor Jasper County.

NOTICE.
As I am going to Colorado soon, I must insist on a prompt settlement of all accounts due me. Please give cash or note and avoid the extra expense incurred by a suit. Respectfully,

I. M. WASHBURN.

M'CANN IS SENTENCED

Chicago Police Inspector Given an Indeterminate Term.

Then Granted Superseas by Justice Carter Pending Arguments Before the Supreme Court.

Chicago, Feb. 1.—Justice Orrin N. Carter granted to Police Inspector Edward McCann, convicted of grafting, a writ of superseas. This action was taken after Judge Barnes had sentenced the inspector to an indeterminate term in the penitentiary. The carrying out of this sentence, as a result of Justice Carter's action, is delayed, pending arguments before the supreme court.

The entire court proceeding did not consume five minutes. After Judge Barnes had passed sentence he signed a bill of exceptions presented by Colonel Lewis, who with the inspector and the deputy sheriff departed to appear before Justice Carter.

WOMEN NOW FACE PRISON

May Williams and Bessie Roberts Are Indicted in Van Norden Hold-Up.

New York, Feb. 1.—A joint indictment has been found against May Williams and Bessie Roberts, who are charged with holding up and robbing Warner M. Van Norden on the night of Jan. 20 in Thirty-Third street.

Van Norden told the police that $28,000 in bills was taken from his wallet by the two women. Robbery in the first degree is charged. Both women were arraigned this morning.
