HOG BUYER SUICIDES.

Slump in Prices Prompts Stock Buyer to Hang Himself.

Crawfordsville, Ind., July 21.—J. E. Wyatt, age forty-five, a stock buyer and trader living at Portland Mills, near Waveland, committed suicide yesterday by hanging himself with the trip rope used in operating the hay rack in the gable of his barn. Constant worry over prospective financial losses brought on by the decline in the price of hogs, a large number of which he had contracted to buy at $9 a hundred pounds for July delivery, caused him to become mentally unbalanced. His body was found by his son, Walter Wyatt. He leaves a widow and six children.

USES KEROSENE INSTEAD OF GASOLINE.

Laporte, Ind., July 21.—Telegrams received from Winnipeg, Canada, indicate that all past known records for breaking ground with power plows were smashed at the Winnipeg exposition and fair by two plows from the M. Rumely plant, of this city. In a test of steam traction engines pulling a gang of plows, the Rumely machine broke 25 acres of ground in seven hours. A Rumely traction engine, using kerosene, pulling a gang of plows broke twelve acres in six hours. The engines, instead of burning gasoline, at a cost of 12 or 15 cents a gallon, use kerosene, costing about 6 cents a gallon. The kerosene is exploded in the same way as gasoline. Dr. E. A. Rumely believes that it will not be long before kerosene will be used in automobiles instead of gasoline, because of the difference in cost.

LARGE LIGHT MERGER

Capital Stock of New Company Stated as $30,000,000.

Announcement is made that the LaPorte, Ind., Gas Light company was included in a merger with the Cedar Rapids, Ia., Gas Light company, Ft. Dodge, Ia., Light company, Muscatine, Ia., Light and Traction company, Cadillac, Mich., Gas Light company, Mattoon, Ill., Gas Light company and Chattanooga, Tenn., Gas company under the name of the United Light and Railways company, with a capital stock of $30,000,000.

The merger company will act as a holding company for the Childs-Hulswit syndicate of Grand Rapids, Mich., which owns a controlling interest in the public service corporations included in the merger. Other properties will be acquired from time to time. The earnings of the eight properties is $861,600 a year.

Crippens Arrest Disputed. London, July 20.—Scotland Yard denies the report that Crippen and the Le Neve woman have been arrested in Wales. The officers say there have been no new developments in the case.

The Alexandrian Library. The library at Alexandria suffered plunderings on various occasions, but it remained practically intact until A. D. 650, when it was destroyed by the Saracens under orders of the Caliph Omar. Thus disappeared a noble collection that had endured some 930 years.

The Adirondack Plateau. The average height of the Adirondack plateau is about 2,000 feet, although there are many peaks that are over a mile high.

A Costly Prayer Book. Queen Elizabeth used to carry about with her suspended by a chain of pure gold a book called "The Golden Manual of Prayer," a dainty volume of 300 pages bound in "hammered virgin gold." One side of this costly volume gave a representation of the judgment of Solomon, the other the brazen serpent on the cross in the desert.

BELLE ELMORE.

American Actress Who Was Found Murdered in London.

POLICE AFTER CRIPPEN

Want American Doctor for Murdering Wife in London.

Dr. Hawley Harvey Crippen, the American physician who is sought by the Scotland Yard authorities in connection with the murder of his wife, Belle Elmore, is believed to be on a steamer bound for the United States. He is a native of Coldwater, Mich., and was educated in Indiana. Dr. Crippen, who is said to be fifty years of age, made his home for some time at 39 Hildrop Crescent, North London. Some time ago his wife, Belle Elmore, a vaudeville actress and treasurer of the Music Hall Artists' Guild, disappeared, and subsequently a notice of her death appeared in print. The fact of her demise was generally credited, but there was more or less gossip among the women intimates and this finally reached the ears of the police.

A search of the Crippen house was made and the battered body of a woman was found buried in the cellar. It had been placed in quick lime and was burned beyond recognition, but the finding of the body, together with other discoveries, has left no doubt in the minds of the authorities that the murdered woman was Mrs. Crippen. Dr. Crippen, after attending schools in Indiana and Los Angeles, completed his medical studies in Michigan, New York and Cleveland. He practiced in Detroit, San Diego, Cal., Salt Lake City, St. Louis and Brooklyn as an eye and ear specialist.

ARREST LOUIS A. CELLA

Rich St. Louis Man Accused of Running Bucket Shop.

Louis A. Cella, wealthy St. Louis man, accused of operating a bucket-shop in Washington, was arrested in New York on a charge of perjury.

At the hearing of the charges against Cella, his brother Angelo and Samuel W. Adler, whose removal to Washington for trial is sought, Henry Altamus of Georgetown, O., once employed by the Cellas, and named in the Washington indictment with the brothers and Adler, turned state's evidence. In testifying he connected the Cellas and Adler with the Standard Stock and Grain Dealers' concern, which had wire connections with the alleged bucket-shop in Washington. He swore that Louis Cella sent messages daily over the wire to Angelo; he revealed the cipher code.

Louis Cella was arrested afterward. It was said that he had testified that he was never interested in the Standard Stock and Grain Dealers' concern. He gave $5,000 bail and was released.

STRIKE ON GRAND TRUNK

Conductors and Trainmen on Entire System Quit Work.

A strike of all the conductors and trainmen on the Grand Trunk system has gone into effect. This great strike is the result of the failure to arrive at an amicable settlement. The committee demanded the adoption of the standard territorial wage, but President Mays refused to agree to this demand.

A strike vote was taken last week all over the system and the men were practically unanimous for a strike. The ultimatum of the men were made known to President Hays at a final conference, but he absolutely refused to grant the demand. Over 4,000 men are involved.

All the regular passenger trains of the road left Chicago on schedule time and a number of freight trains were also started out. All of these were in charge of nonunion men, members of the union having refused to report for duty.

Passenger trains continued to run on schedule time, being operated by nonunion men, most of whom have been hired since the strike began.

"We are having to employ a good many new men," said General Passenger Agent Elliot, "but that is all right. We have no difficulty in finding competent men who are glad to take the places of the strikers. As far as the passenger department is concerned one would not know that a strike is in progress."

No effort is being made to move freight trains at present and fear that the passenger trains may become involved in the tie-up was expressed by express company officials, who have directed that express be routed over lines other than the Grand Trunk.

Do You Want To Save Money On Clothing ???

I do not want to give you any lengthy "Hogus-Bogus" talk, about selling you $25 suits for $5—it can't be done; I want to talk sensible talk. My Boss is a Clothing Specialist and an honest man; he has made Clothing a life's study; he is operating a great number of stores, keeps large enough assortments so you can find what you want and buys in such a manner that he can save you some money. He guarantees everything he sells to be as represented. Take a tip from little Jimmy, it will pay you to investigate. That's all.
