Resolutions Adopted By the Jasper County Democratic Convention.

We, your committee beg leave to submit the following report: We most heartily endorse the splendid administration of the Nation under the great leadership of Woodrow Wilson and his wise and able Secretary of State, William Jennings Bryan.

Indiana may feel justly proud of the splendid statesmanship of Senators Shively and Kern and our corps of Indiana Congressmen in upholding the policies of our President and our National Platform.

We of Jasper county are especially pleased with the wise action of our own Representative in Congress, and the 10th Indiana District may well congratulate itself on enlisting the services of that clean, honest, fearless gentleman and splendid citizen, John B. Peterson, and we hereby pledge to him our most earnest support for re-election in November.

We heartily endorse the wise and able administration of the affairs of State, in that Christian gentleman, Governor Samuel M. Ralston. He has proven to be one of the ablest executives ever chosen to that position in this great commonwealth.

We commend the able manner in which the other state offices have been conducted by Democratic im-bureaus, and especially approve the action of the last General Assembly of Indiana, in fixing State levies, so as to fearlessly meet the defects made by the prodigal administration of the financial affairs of our State by the inefficiency of the Republican office holders.

We point with pride to the able manner in which our Democratic officers of Jasper county have conducted the business affairs of their offices, and we here and now pledge to the voters of Jasper County a wise, able and economical administration of the business affairs of this County, if the nominees of this convention be elected in November,

Signed at Rensselaer, Indiana, this 13th day of March, 1914:

E. P. HONAN, Chairman.

JOHN BOWIE.
