POLITICAL NOTES.

C. A. Tuteur, the democratic candidate for prosecuting attorney, was campaigning over in Newton county Wednesday.

Hon. William J. Bryan, secretary of state, will speak in Lafayette this afternoon. It is probable that several from this vicinity will go down to hear him.

The Hon. William J. Bryan will also speak at Monticello and Delphi today, at Monticello at 1:30 p. m. and will go from Monticello to Delphi, and thence to Lafayette.

No one who failed to register in Jasper county last Monday can vote at the general election on Nov. 3, and any person so registering and moving from one precinct to another cannot vote at such election.

The democrats of Jackson tp., Newton county, nominated the following ticket last Saturday: Trustee, Edwin Long; assessor, Wade McKeever; justice of the peace, J. M. Hufty; constable, Jasper Wright. The republicans of Jackson tp., will hold their convention tonight.

At the close of the progressive speaking here Tuesday afternoon, William Kinney of Princeton tp., White county, was nominated for joint-representative of the counties of Jasper and White. This makes a complete district ticket for the progressives.

The republican speaking here Thursday afternoon in the opera house was very slimly attended. The speaker, J. W. McCordle of Indianapolis, is said to have made a regular calamity speech, and such talk doesn't go very far with the farmers these days, nor with anybody else.

Mahara Bros. in Colored Musical Comedy Field.

Miller & Brown, the two most popular colored performers on the American stage, with 20 other artists, will present the new musical comedy, "Mr. Ragtime" at the Ellis theater on Saturday, Oct. 10.

This organization has played all the large cities and is now enroute for a tour of the southland. The Mahara Bros. are well remembered as producers of "The War Correspondent," "The Girl Over There," "The Devil," and "Mahara's Minstrels" which toured United States, Mexico and Canada for the past thirty years and are known by every man, woman and child the country over.

Their past reputation assures followers of amusements an evening of enjoyment and pleasure.—Adv't.

Church Services at Newland.

There will be Catholic services at Newland on Sunday, Oct. 11, service to begin at 8 o'clock. After mass there will be instructions for the children.

John H. Nagel went to Lafayette yesterday for a few days' visit.

Mrs. Thomas Wheeler of Dover, Okla., came this week to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Walters, of Gillam tp.

We got a little shower of rain in Rensselaer Thursday afternoon, barely enough to lay the dust. Over about Remington and as far north as St. Joseph College a good rain fell. We have not had a good rain here now for a month, and it is needed quite badly again.

On October 8th, twenty-five men gathered at the Brown cemetery in Barkley tp., to remove the old board fence and replace it with a beautiful woven wire fence purchased of the Cyclone Fence Co., Waukegan, Ill., and paid for by the Ladies' Aid of the Barkley Christian church. At the noon hour nine women came with well-filled baskets and spread a sumptuous dinner in the "shade of the old apple tree" of fried chicken, pumpkin pie and many other good things that goes to make a good picnic dinner. It is needless to say the men did ample justice to the dinner with, as they called it, Adam's ale to drink, made in mother's coffee boiler.—One That Was Present.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Yeoman, former residents of Newton tp., came Wednesday and will spend the winter here with Mrs. Yeoman's mother, Mrs. Mary Powell, who is in poor health. Mr. Yeoman's son, Alva, is married and occupies his home farm near Columbia City. His two daughters are in Anderson. Mr. Yeoman has just sold a 25 acre farm, upon which he had been living, and cleaned up a nice profit on same. He bought this place a year ago last May at $86 per acre, and sold it for $131 per acre. He also sold his corn on the place at $34 per acre. The place was rather run down when he bought it, but he fixed it up without much actual money outlay and made a nice profit. They have sold off their personal property and expect to spend the winter in Rensselaer, but have no plans further than this.

Often times a good stove is rated a poor one, when the failure to produce the heat is entirely the fault of poor coal.

Throw in Good Coal

It will cause most any stove or heating plant to throw out the heat.
