Call For Exhibits Meets With Success.

Mrs. Robert H. Strong of Indianapolis, Superintendent of Indiana's Woman's Work Exhibit at the Panama-Pacific Exposition, who is going into each county in the state to solicit fancy work for this exhibit, gave an interesting talk to the ladies of Rensselaer on Tuesday evening, at the high school auditorium.

She told of her travels throughout the state in quest of fancy work for exhibit, and of some of the exquisite and beautiful work she had secured. She said the woman's work exhibit was to be given in the Varied Arts building at the exposition, and was given a space fifty feet by seventy feet. An artist is there now planning a scheme of decoration as a setting for this exhibit. Sculpture, pottery, china painting, and all kinds of needle work will make up this exhibit.

Only such work as excels will be chosen, as everything will be examined by expert judges before accepted. At San Francisco the best work will be awarded medals—gold, silver and bronze.

Several valuable pieces of needle work has been secured here, with more in view. The women of the county are asked to contribute, and those who wish to do so may obtain contributor's blanks and tags from Mrs. George A. Williams, chairman of the Jasper County Woman's Work Exhibit.

This week's exhibition of WOOLTEX presents the new styles in Women's Tailored Garments.

This is WOOLTEX week and our windows and apparel sections are displaying in a most attractive manner, the various delightful models in Wooltex coats, suits and skirts.

Included in the display are the six beautiful garments illustrated in the Wooltex announcement in the current issue of the Saturday Evening Post.

This is the time when the most satisfying selections can be made.

The various styles are displayed in a manner to show off all their exceptional merits and to give the fullest opportunity to compare and decide which of the many different styles are most becoming to you.

We invite you to come and view the exhibition, whether you are ready to make your purchases at this time or not.
