they satisfy!

Thanksgiving with the old folks at home—it does satisfy! For your smoking, Chesterfields do the same thing—they satisfy!

But Chesterfields are MILD, too—that's the wonder of it.

Don't expect this new cigarette enjoyment (satisfy, yet mild) from any cigarette but Chesterfields, because no cigarette maker can copy the Chesterfield blend—an entirely new combination of tobaccos and the biggest discovery in cigarette making in 20 years.

Catarrh Deafness Cannot Be Cured
By local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure catarrh deafness, and that is by a constitutional remedy. Catarrh deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be reduced and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Many cases of deafness are caused by catarrh, which is an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Cure acts through the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system. We will give one hundred dollars for any case of catarrh deafness that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Circulars free. At all druggists, 75c.—F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, Ohio.

the county farm, was next called. Said he had no reports made to commissioners, that they were at auditor's office, thought he had copy of them at home. Witness was excused until reports could be obtained. Recalled with reports and identified them. Report for quarter ending November 30, 1914 gave 2,000 bushels of corn on hand, and no sales. Report for quarter ending February 28, 1915, gave 1,500 bushels of corn on hand, and no sales. Report for quarter ending May 31, 1915, gave 1,200 bushels of corn on hand, and no sales. Report for quarter ending August 31, 1915, gave 1,000 bushels of corn on hand, with sales of 130 bushels and thirty pounds of corn during that quarter. Report for quarter ending November 30, 1915, gave 3,000 bushels of corn on hand, with sales of 377 bushels and sixty-two pounds during that quarter. The number of bushels of corn on hand at the various times above stated were given as evidence from the superintendent's reports to the board of commissioners at the ends of the various quarters, but the amounts of corn sold were taken from the same reports by The Democrat at a different time. When asked as to the corn raised on the county farm witness stated that 1,567 bushels were raised in 1914 and 3,000 bushels in 1915, the latter amount being all included in the corn reported on hand November 30, 1915. Witness also stated that he did not know exactly how much corn was on hand at any time except after husking—that he knew exactly then—but that other times he made an estimate of the amount in the cribs.

John Suika was then recalled and with Joseph Lane acting as interpreter testified that it was in 1914 when he was hauling corn and had trouble with endgate west of county farm; that a man—whom he later identified in John Garland—came along with a four-horse team and helped him fix it. He could not remember the month of this hauling, but said he hauled two loads on Thursday, two loads Friday, three loads Saturday and three loads Monday, and he was sure it was on Monday when the trouble with the endgate occurred.

The attorneys for the state then called several witnesses to testify to the character of the defendant. The first of these was Garland Grant, who stated that he had lived a mile and a half west of Rensselaer all his life and was acquainted with the defendant. Asked what was Morlan's reputation for truth and veracity, he replied that among his neighbors it was bad.

On cross-examination by attorneys for the defense witness stated that he had never had any trouble with defendant other than a little trouble between Morlan and all the neighbors during threshing. Pressed for an answer as to who had had trouble with Morlan, witness replied that everybody along the road.

Witness for further pressed to state expressly who had said the reputation of defendant was not good, and he mentioned the names Lawrence and Wallace Saylor, Ed Grant, Sam Kershner and William Augspurger. Said it had been the talk for seven or eight years. Asked as to what had been said, he replied that neighbors said "What Morlan said was not to be depended on."

Henry Paulus was the next witness called and stated that he had lived southwest of Rensselaer five years next spring; that he was acquainted with Morlan and his reputation was not very good. Witness said the defendant was quarrelsome and could not get along with his neighbors; had never had any dealings with him and could not remember any specific statement made by any particular person against defendant.

Henry Hordeman was the next called and in reply to the question concerning Morlan's reputation said, "It doesn't seem to be good." Asked who said it was not good, he replied, "The neighbors say it is not good." He could not recall any particular thing said by anyone.

Ed Goetz was the next witness called and stated that he was 35 years old and had lived within a half mile of defendant all his life until two years ago this coming spring, when he moved to Barkley township. Had known Morlan all his life and his reputation was bad. Had heard much but could not mention any particular person as saying anything. Witness said he was a good friend of Makeover, that they had held political caucuses at his house and Mr. Morlan came uninvited.

Charles Weiss was next called to the stand. Said he lived in Newton township six miles from Rensselaer, and had lived there thirteen years. Had known Morlan several years. Asked about the defendant's character he said, "Well, I've heard a good deal. It comes up bad a good deal here lately." Heard he was not truthful. Had heard him discussed, and also heard of a shooting affair with William Augspurger several years ago. Could not state any specific remark by any one person.

John Zimmer was then recalled to the stand and stated that he was at Makeover's on July 15, 1915. Had been there the day before also. He and Mr. Makeover had been to town and the latter had purchased a new cradle, and he went over the 15th to see the same used. Was there all forenoon. Was also there on the 16th of the same month, but could not tell when he was there next. Witness said he helped John Suika bind wheat and that Harold Wickstrom and Charles Otterburg were also there. He knew the date because he had gone to Warner Bros. hardware store to ascertain the date the cradle was purchased. Was over to Makeover's week before last and the latter thought the date important so he went to Warner Bros. to make sure of it.

D. S. Makeover was recalled to the stand and a part of his testimony was a repetition of what had been gone over before. In reply to a question he stated that Suika was plowing corn on July 7 and 8, 1915. He identified a check given to Alex Elijah for cattle and stated that on July 13 they had an early dinner and he and Pete Cooper left between 11 and 12 o'clock to get these cattle. Suika was mixing concrete when they left and was there when they returned about 4 o'clock. On July 12 the men were on the farm all day moving the feed troughs from one feed lot to another.

On July 15 he testified that he and Mr. Zimmer came to town and he purchased a wheat cradle of Warner Bros. The day following the men were all in the wheat field. Witness testified that the team Suika had been working was in the pasture all day July 16. That Suika did not work the sorrel mare with a stiff neck in 1915, but had charge of a different team.

Witness testified that he remembered the trouble with Mr. Stockton and that it occurred on a Sabbath day in August, the 8th day of the month. That he came to town, the next day and was before the justice of the peace.

On August 10 witness testified that they started threshing. During the forenoon of that day the men were in the field upsetting grain shocks for the bottoms to dry, and that they threshed in the afternoon. That it rained that night and there was not much doing on the 11th. August 12 and 13 Suika was home both days hauling manure, and Otterburg was there helping him.

E. G. Warner was the next and last witness called. He testified that he had known Mr. Makeover for about twenty-five years, and that the latter was in his store on July 15, 1915, and purchased a wheat cradle. Mr. Warner read this date from the original entry in their day book.
