COUNTY EDUCATIONAL NOTES

A joint commencement for Hanging Grove and Milroy townships was held at the school house at Mc-Coysburg last Wednesday night.
Prof. Clarence Thurber who has been substituting for G. Stanley Coulter of Purdue university gave the address of the evening. Trustee Poole was present and supervised the room decorating. The front stage of the school room was decorated with flags, flowers and class colors. After the ten members of the graduating class had marched in and taken their places, the stage presented an exceptionally pleasing appearance to the parents and friends of these young graduates.
Trustee Wood of Milroy secured eight pieces from the Monon band who, under the leadership of Earl Foulks gave some excellent music for the evening. Mr. Wood was unable to be present at these exercises. The Rev. John Dean gave the invocation and benediction.
Superintendent Sterrett distributed the diplomas to the ten members.
Those from Hanging Grove were Renetta Baughman, Ruth Cochran, Charles Cook, Elvin Jordan, Kenneth Moore, Roxie Smith and Thelma Timmons. Those from Milroy township were Viola Beaver, Clifford Beaver and Lloyd McCurdy.

State Superintendent L. N. Hines mailed from the state department last Friday licenses for the following applicants on the May examination: Ora Sage, Rensselaer; Eva Lilly, Tefft; Myrtle Irene Howard, Remington; Ida J. Fleming, Rensselaer; Thelma Noland, Lee; Lottie Porter, Remington; Mary Louise Hartman, Remington; Lillian Fisher, Wolcott; Florence McKay, Fair Oaks; Jennie Elb, Rensselaer.

John D. Matt, formerly of Tefft, has been employed by Trustee Fairchild of Keener township to serve as principal of the Demotte schools next year. Charity M. Wolff and Margaret Dechanty have been reemployed in the grades at this school for the coming year. Earl W.
Ashby of Terre Haute has been employed by Trustee Dugleby to take the principalship at Tefft made vacant by Mr. Matt. Lottie Porter and Grace Poole have been reemployed by Mr. Dugleby to teach in the Tefft school.

The Walker township commencement was held at the church in Kniman last Thursday afternoon.
The church was nicely decorated with flags and flowers. The Rev. C. W.
Postill of Rensselaer gave the invocation and benediction. Prof.
Clarence Thurber gave the class address. County Superintendent Sterrett distributed the diplomas to seven boys and girls. Those receiving graduation certificates were Josephine Rice, Ada Brook, Arthur Myers, Erma Pass, Seth Walker, Mabel Potter, and Chester Henricks. Trustee Pettit was present and did much to make the affair a success. Mr. Pettit secured the Jensen orchestra from Wheatfield and they gave the occasion a musical tone that was exceptional for commencements. This orchestra will likely play at commencements another year. It consists of Alex Jensen, wife and two young sons.

The Jordan township commencement was held at the Union school in west Jordan last Thursday at 8 p. m. The Rev. C. W. Postill gave the invocation and benediction. A large crowd had gathered to see and hear the exercises. Prof.
Clarence Thurber of Purdue university gave the address of the evening. The Horton orchestra from Rensselaer furnished excellent music for the occasion. Trustee Huff is to be congratulated upon the smoothness with which the program was executed. The room was nicely decorated. A piano had been taken from the Sage home to the school. County Superintendent Sterrett distributed diplomas to Ira Dewey, Mildred Griffin, Opal Fenwick, Fern Fenwick, Edna La-Foon, Gaylord Nafziger, Melvin Nafziger, Frances Nesius, Mabel Rutherford, Ruth Sage, Ernest Shumaker and Myrtle Scripture. The latter, Myrtle Scripture, was not able to be present as she was exposed to the measles and was thought to be taking down with them that evening.

FRANKLIN'S KITE EXPERIMENT

How the Patriot's Thrift and Savings Habits Gave All the Value to His Study of Lightning.

BESIDES being a good printer, a great statesman and an immortal economist Benjamin Franklin was a scientist of the highest rank.

His famous kite experiment, by which he first proved the identity of atmospheric electricity and the static kind generated by rubbing amber with silk, would have been futile and valueless but for one little "kink" that Ben Franklin thought of simply because he had made a fixed habit of saving. He felt sure that the lightning was only an electric manifestation; but in order to prove it, he knew that he must save some of the current he caught on his kite string.

To save some of it he attached a common Leyden jar—or tin foil "condenser"—to the kite string. This enabled him to save enough of the current snatched from the clouds for a decisive test. If he had not thought of saving a little, his experiment would have been only a dangerous and adle-rated caper. Saving made it great and famous.

The money you earn is soon lost—just like the electricity in the clouds —unless you follow Ben Franklin's example and provide a sort of Leyden jar or "condenser" to save part of it.

WAR SAVINGS CERTIFICATES and THRIFT STAMPS will serve for your earnings the same useful purpose that Ben Franklin's bottle and tin foil served in his kite experiment.

If science demands saving how much more does living require it.

Remember Ben Franklin's kite and buy WAR SAVINGS STAMPS.

ANARCHY EXPERT DISCUSSES FORD

UNIVERSITY PROFESSOR CALLED TO POINT OUT "RED"
DOCTRINES.

WHEN IS MAN AN ANARCHIST?

Plaintiff's Views Are Shown to Be Those of Best Loved American Thinkers and Writers.

"ANARCHISTS."

Professor Jesse B. Reeves says Henry Ford's doctrine that Humanity is constantly on the upgrade and that while it makes mistakes everything tends toward good, is "A fundamental principle of anarchy."

Ford's counsel reads quotations from Emerson, Whittier, Lowell, Holmes and Abbott, showing that they held the same view.

Question: "Were these men anarchists?"
Witness answers, "No."

Mt. Clemens, Mich.—Who is an anarchist—and what is anarchy?

The Chicago Tribune, which called Henry Ford an anarchist, and was promptly sued for $1,000,000 as a result, introduced an expert witness on anarchy in the trial now going on in Mt. Clemens, Mich. in an effort to establish definitions of anarchy and anarchists which would convince the jury that there was no libel in the newspaper attack on the manufacturer.

Prof. Jesse B. Reeves, head of the department of Political Economy of the University of Michigan, was engaged by The Tribune to support its contentions by his testimony.

Under direct examination by counsel for the Tribune, Professor Reeves declared that the views credited to Mr. Ford by journalists who had interviewed him were identical with the views held by such well known anarchists as Emma Goldman, Tucker, Proudhon and Tolstol.

The Tribune introduced as evidence of Henry Ford's anarchy the following quotations, attributed to him in articles which have appeared in newspapers and magazines:

Fundamentals of Anarchy.

"To my mind Humanity may make mistakes, but cannot do anything worse. I think that everything tends toward good. Even this great and bloody war is helping toward permanent peace."

"I think war is largely the result of greed on the part of those who profit by it."

"The moment we get people not to acquiesce in war, refuse to go to war, there will be no more war."

These views, Prof. Reeves testified, were found in the works of every anarchist of international reputation and were, in fact, fundamental principles of anarchy.

Thereupon counsel for Mr. Ford took the witness.

"Professor Reeves," said counsel,
"was Benjamin Franklin an anarchist?"

"No."

"He said, 'There never was a good war, or a bad peace.' Was he an anarchist because he said that?"

"Certainly not."

"Professor, is the idea that Humanity is on the upgrade, as Mr. Ford believes, a fundamental of anarchy?"

"Yes, anarchism holds that Humanity is all right, it only needs to be let alone and it will work out its own salvation."

Were They Anarchists?

"Yet this idea was held by Emerson, Whittier, Bronson, Abbott, William James, John Fluke, Oliver Wendell Holmes and James Russell Lowell.
Were they anarchists because they believed this?"

"No."

"Isn't it true that many wars in the past, not all but a majority, were brought on by the quarrels, greed and avarice of rulers?"

"I think many wars have been brought on, I think this war was."

"Do you agree that it is very foolish for the people of the countries involved to allow themselves to be slaughtered in such wars?"

"As we look back on it now, yes, we would say that."

"Well, that is precisely the sentiment you call anarchy in Mr. Ford."

Much testimony having been offered to show that Mr. Ford held jobs open for employees who were called into the armed forces of the nation and that he also provided aid for their dependents where the latter were in need, The Tribune, which originally charged that Mr. Ford would not do any of these things, is now attempting to prove that the assistance which he gave was late and was a result of the Tribune's attack.

Checks Produced.

Counsel for Mr. Ford has produced stacks of cancelled checks showing that regular monthly allowances were sent out to soldiers' dependents who applied for aid, beginning as soon as the case could be investigated and the records made, and continuing until the husband returned to work.

NEAREST.

A Southerner in one of the cantonments below the Mason and Dixon line, when called up for examination, was asked:

"What is your nearest living relative?"

"What you mean, 'relative,' mister?" returned the recruit.

"Oh, I mean your nearest living kinfolk."

"Wal, that's my aunt you're talking bout."

Several other questions were answered satisfactorily, when there came:

"In case of death or accident, who shall be notified?"

"My mother," immediately came from the selectman.

"But you told me just a few minutes ago that your aunt was the nearest living relative that you have," objected the officer.

"You asked me who my nearest living kin was, didn't you? Wal, that's Aunt Liz—she lives jest two miles from where I been livin'; mother lives five."

Harmony.

"It is a mistake to think women in politics will divide the home. Now, I always vote the same ticket as my husband does."

"Do you?"

"Certainly. But I tell him first what that ticket is."

THEIR CLASS.

"Some theorists say everything in life is attuned to one key. What keys are the slippery places in life tuned to?"

"Why, naturally to see sharp or be flat."

WHAT REAL THRIFT MEANS.

Some interesting ideas on thrift are set forth in the South Bend News-Times, which says:

"The government, through its campaign to encourage popular savings in Thrift and War Savings stamps, has brought the word 'thrift' into common usage than ever. One hears it on every hand. Yet how many people who use it realize that thrift is a preliminary process and entirely distinct from saving?"

"The thrifty person is not the one who puts 25 cents into a Thrift stamp which should be put into a new pair of shoe laces, or $5 into a W. S. S. which should be set aside that week for meat."

"Thrift only paves the way for saving. It considers carefully present needs and future possibilities, and decides what are necessary expenses, setting aside such a portion of the income as will provide for them. It also determines what are unnecessary expenses, and stops the outgo of money for them."

"That is not thrift which neglects either process, nor can there be any security in savings when either is neglected. The essential item of expenditure, temporarily ignored, will have to be met finally, probably by taking from the savings what should never have been put there. The unnecessary expenditure off repeated means no savings at all."

"Thrift holds the scale between the two, and upon the nicety with which a balance is maintained between legiti-mate expenditure and waste will depend present comfort and future prosperity."

Receivers are the closet skeletons of habitual spendthrifts. Government War Savings stamps will lead the way to financial stability.
