

THE TWICE-A-WEEK DEMOCRAT

Cheaper Rugs
for the Bedroom*MATTING RUGS

in green, blue and brown colors, size 9 ft. by 11 ft. 8 in.

Priced at $9.50

These rugs come in bright fancy patterns and will make a good economical rug for the bed room.

Kolorfast Mattting Rugs

in green, blue and brown colors, size 9x12

Priced at $12.00

These rugs are guaranteed not to fade and you will find that they will stand a great deal of hard wear.

W. J. WRIGHT

Rensselaer,

Indiana

LOCAL NEWS

Give me a chance to sell you a home.—Phone 147. m17

Roe Yeoman and Charles Porter were in Monticello on business Friday.

LOTS FOR SALE; also good barn.—Apply to J. J. EDDY in person.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Potter and son spent the week-end in South Bend with relatives.

Misses Faustine West and Ione Zimmerman and Mrs. George W. Scott spent Monday in Lafayette.

Ben Welsh returned home Saturday from Indianapolis where he had been serving on the federal jury.

Mrs. Eva Myers returned to her home at Chicago Heights, Ill., Friday after looking after some business matters there.

Mrs. A. K. Yeoman, Mrs. Jesse Hammond, Miss Evaline Michael, Ronald Charais and B. D. McColl were Lafayette goers Friday.

Pvt. Ray Schafer of Camp Grant, Rockford, Ill., came Saturday on a few days leave to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Schafer, of southeast of town.

Dr. and Mrs. E. N. Loy went to Piqua, O., Saturday to visit his mother over her 90th birthday anniversary, which was Sunday. They were expected home yesterday.

Mrs. S. M. LaRue went to Chicago Saturday for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Morgan, who are spending the winter there with another daughter, Mrs. Wallace Miller.

Mrs. George Neal of Pittsburgh, Pa., came Friday evening to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. S. LaRue. She was joined Saturday by her husband, who went to LaPorte Sunday to look after some business but will return here again.

NOTICE

To our customers who have been waiting on our Austrian Patterns of China. We are now getting the Viola White and Gold and the Packard small pink border patterns.

See our Ladies' & Misses' MILLINERY LINES at $1.50 to $5.50

Ladies' Coverall Aprons at $1.50 and $1.35

All sizes and colors R. M. C. Crochet Cotton now in stock, price per ball, 15c

FREE—Wednesday, March 17, one Shamrock to each person entering this store.

Burchards
5-10 AND VARIETY STORE

J. M. Banks was here from Logansport on business Saturday.

Yesterday's local egg and butterfat prices: Eggs, 37c; butterfat, 67c.

C. A. Tuteur of Indianapolis spent the week-end here with his folks.

Orlan Grant of Lafayette visited his brother Van and family here Monday.

"Frenchy" Deschand has purchased a new Dodge car for his taxi work.

Misses Luella Harmon and Elizabeth Moore visited friends in Monticello Saturday.

Mrs. Earl West left Monday for Tulsa, Okla., for an extended visit with her parents.

Mrs. Homer Hendrickson was called to Monticello Monday by the illness of her mother.

"Buzz" Marble's big annual stock sale will take place at Wheatfield on Thursday, March 18.—Advt. ff

Mrs. F. H. Hemphill returned home Saturday from a visit with relatives at Roann, Wabash county.

W. H. Beam spent Sunday in Lafayette with his daughters, Mrs. F. X. Busha and Mrs. Dean Merica.

Mrs. Vincent Elsele is quite sick with influenza.

Give me a chance to sell you a city lot.—Phone 147. m17

If you have poultry for sale, call C. H. LEAVEL for prices. Phone 647. ff

Mrs. E. C. English returned home Saturday from a visit with her son Walter and family at Lafayette.

O. M. Turner and G. W. Turner of Kankakee township were business visitors in the city yesterday.

Mrs. W. A. Spencer of Wolcott spent Saturday and Sunday here with her sister, Mrs. C. V. May, and family at Lowell.

Miss Carrie Eger returned home Sunday from a week's visit with her sister, Mrs. Frank Maloy, and family at Lowell.

Among the Chicago goers Monday were E. L. Hollingsworth, W. L. Spitler, Mrs. G. E. Murray and Mrs. Edson Murray.

Another soft drink bottling company is desirous of locating in Rensselaer but has been unable to find a building at this writing.

W. H. Postill has purchased the W. L. Newells residence property on Cullen street, possession to be given April 15. Consideration $2,400.

Superintendent C. R. Dean attended a meeting of the executive committee of the Indiana State Teachers' Association at Indianapolis.

Yesterday's local grain prices: Corn, $1.45; oats, 86c; rye, $1.55; wheat, $2.30. The prices one year ago were: Corn, $1.35; oats, 58c; wheat, $2.11; rye, $1.35.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Fendig and two sons returned home Saturday from a few weeks sojourn in California, most of which time was spent in San Francisco and Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles William left Sunday for their home near Devil's Lake, N. D., after a visit here with the former's brothers, Claude and John Williams, and other relatives.

"Uncle" James T. Randle has been quite sick again at his home on Cullen street. Mr. Randle is about 89 years of age and has enjoyed remarkably good health all his life until recent years. There seems to be nothing particularly the matter with him at this time other than the infirmities of old age.

Remember that you can still get a package of 25 good envelopes for a nickel at The Democrat office—precisely the same size, grade and price that we sold them for 20 years ago. They cost us more than twice as much now, of course, but we are still retailing them at the old price. You will have to pay 10 to 15 cents a bunch for the same envelope elsewhere the country over.

Goodland, which used to sport three hotels, is now without any, the old Commercial hotel erected some 35 years ago by H. Roberts, having been turned to other use, and the Palms hotel, just across the street, has also been closed down. The old Nichols hotel has not catered to commercial trade for years, it is understood.

Monday was a typical March day, so far as being windy was concerned, and at night we got our first thunder shower of the season, there being quite a brisk rain for a time with a great deal of electricity. Yesterday was bright and pleasant except for a strong wind. The mercury at 2 p. m. registered 50 degrees in the shade.

Scarcely a day has gone by in the past six weeks or two months but from 25 to 50 new automobiles have passed through Rensselaer over the Jackson highway, and some days the number has probably exceeded 100. There was no let up to this traffic last week, even when the roads were so soft, and they did a plenty to the roads, in places, it is said.

Misses Emma and Senia Benson of Mt. Ayr were Lafayette goers Monday.

Mrs. H. J. Kannal went to Indianapolis Friday and remained with her husband until Saturday, both returning home Saturday afternoon.

William M. Crockett, a Lafayette attorney has filed declaration of his candidacy for the Democratic nomination for congress from this, the Tenth district.

John Southard was in from southeast Milroy Monday, bringing his daughter, Miss Belle Southard, deputy county treasurer, who had spent Sunday at home.

Petitions asking the secretary of state to place the name of Claude G. Bowers, editor of the Ft. Wayne Journal Gazette, on the Democratic primary ballots for United States senator from Indiana are being circulated.

The following letters remained uncalled for in the Rensselaer post office for the week ended March 14.

Mrs. Leslie Strole, Leo Maypole, Harry J. McCauley, D. Moore, Harry E. Johnson, Miss Ivah Graham, Estel George, Mrs. George Barnhart, Henry Burton. If not called for above letters will be sent to dead-letter office March 29.

HOME SERVICE SECRETARIES' CONFERENCE AT FRANKFORT MARCH 11.

"Hello, Bob, where have you been?" said Joe, as the two met on the street.

"Been up to the Red Cross office, of course," replied Bob.

"Hub! what for? I thought the Red Cross work was all done. War is over and there's nothin' more to do, as I can see."

"Good gracious, Joe, the work has just begun. You should have been with me and heard the secretary tell about the meeting they had over at Frankfort last Thursday, March 11, 1920. Eight secretaries were there, also three field representatives and the vice-chairman of Clinton county.

"The guests assembled at the Red Cross office at 11 o'clock for a social hour, and at noon were the participants at a most excellent luncheon, those present being: Miss Rosa L. Krause, field representative, South Bend; Miss Parrish, field representative, central part of the state; Miss Helen Pearson, Indianapolis; Mrs. Morrison and Mrs. Eagle, Frankfort; Mrs. Shafer, Rensselaer; Miss Etta Hess, Brook; Miss O'Connell, Winamac; Miss Jones, Fowler; Miss Moore, Williamsport; Mrs. Riley, Lebanon, and Miss Holliday, Monticello.

"At 2 o'clock the representatives met in conference and held a most enthusiastic meeting.

"Say, Joe," said Bob at this point, they discussed us boys and our troubles for three hours. It surely is wonderful the interest the Red Cross is taking in us. If all the boys knew how much they want to help us they certainly would get a hustle on themselves and go to the Red Cross office and find out what can be done for them. Then you know if we haven't any troubles of our own, maybe we can help some other Sammy."

"Why, the secretary told me more about the government insurance than I'd ever known; in fact I thought Uncle Sam was trying to beat me and I learned he was handing us a good square deal. Think of it, 99% of the boys took out insurance; 1% is still carrying out. Why? No, good? No sir, they just did not understand it. I tell you it pays to investigate.

"Then a lot of the boys were disabled and have no certificate of disability or have not applied for compensation. We ought to get busy and help locate these fellows and get them interested. And then, think of the vocational training by the federal board, for the disabled men. Have you ever thought of that? And the best part of all is, that the Red Cross does all of their work free of charge.

"Besides the soldier work, they discussed all kinds, of ways in which they can be helpful to the public, as to co-operation with the county officials, township trustees, American Legion, War Mothers, tuberculosis society, churches, charity organizations, schools, lodges and any other organizations that stand for the upbuilding of the community. Home service stands for service in the community, whether it be information, financial help, education, health benefits or what not.

"The work that is being done by the different counties is wonderful. I could not remember them all, but it certainly is a splendid work."

"Well, Bob," said Joe, "you surely have opened my eyes a lot. I think I shall take a look into the work of the Red Cross and see if I can't help them along."

"Don't forget it, Joe. The next conference will be held at Fowler in June and let us do all we can to help our secretary have a good report to make that day."

Ellis

Opera House

now playing

All This Week

The Original

North Bros. Co.

Prices 25-35-50c

Seats at Long's

Phone 53

REDMEN

All members of the Improved Order of Redmen are urgently requested to be present at the Hall Friday evening, March 19th, at 7 o'clock sharp. The Monticello Degree Team will be here to confer the degrees.

A banquet will be served at the Barnes Restaurant.

BY ORDER OF THE SACHEM.

county, Ind., and died at her home on the Warren farm, adjoining Wheatfield, March 11, 1920. Mrs. Summers moved with her parents to Jasper county when about the age of one year and continued to reside in Jasper county until her death, with the exception of a short residence in Hammond, Ind.

At the age of 15 years she united with the Methodist church, and from that day her time was occupied as a church worker until her time was fully occupied with her home and family, but she remained a faithful and firm believer in the church and Christianity until her death.

On Nov. 1, 1897, she was united in marriage to Jesse Summers, who now survives her, and to this union were born 12 children, one child preceding her to the great beyond.

To mourn their loss are left a kind and loving husband and 11 children, as follows: Mrs. Clarence Holladay and Mrs. Delos Wayne, Elam, Hanley, Hildreth, Emma, George, Frances, Dorothea, Gene and Leonard Summers, an infant; a grandson, Daniel Waymire; one sister, Mrs. W. H. Tyler, and three brothers, Luther, Frank and Henry. Her father departed this life just 10 months to the day prior to her death.

She was a kind and loving daughter, sister, wife, mother and grandmother. She loved her family and friends and was loved by them and the loss to her family is beyond measure.

Read The Democrat for live news.

NOTICE TO FARMERS
We handle the Rumley line tractors, threshing machines and farm implements; also Western Utilitor, one-horse tractor, at White Front Garage.—KUBOSKE & WALTER.WANTED—PICKLES RAISED
For Square Dinge Co., at the various places—Parr, Gifford, Laura, Kersey and Tefft.

The writer will solicit the territory of the various places in the next sixty days, and would appreciate any one who would raise a part of an acre or more. Should I miss any one that would care to raise pickles, the seed can be had for asking for it at the various places:

PARR—J. E. Murphy Store.
GIFFORD—T. F. Hankins and James Cavinger Stores.
KERSEY—Cooper Store.
TEFFT—E. W. Lakin Store.JOHN S. LAKIN, Superintendent
NORTH JUDSON, IND.
PHONE 184-W
R-R NO. 1PRINCESS THEATRE

Wednesday, March 17

CHARLES RAY

in
"Bill Henry"

Gosh all tarnation, Bill was mad! He meant nothin' but good. Fact was, he had the grandest little rheumatism cure that ever brought relief to suffering humanity. And then to think that his very first "prospect" should have busted his new bicycle and chased him down the road!

Mad!!! Well, Bill just had to go and do something desperate, and he did! Fell head over heels in love, became a regular fightin' hero, and made more money than you'd ever dream, lookin' at him here.

You'll laugh and thrill and glow like any kid at a circus when you see Charles Ray as "Bill Henry."

Also
VOD-A-VIL MOVIES

Thursday, March 18

EUGENE O'BRIEN

in

"The Perfect Lover"

He was petted, pampered and loved by the women of the "Four Hundred," but he was not happy. He wanted the love of only one woman who would not fall a victim of his charms.

Who has the greater charm—the innocent country girl or the sophisticated city woman?

He gave up luxury to starve. Why? She said she loved him too much to see him happy with another woman. Was this real love? He was the perfect lover. No one could resist his charms. Eugene O'Brien in the type of role in which he has gained fame on stage and screen.

Admission—Adults, 25c—3c—28c. Children, 10c—1c—11c

Friday, March 19

MITCHELL LEWIS

in

"The Last of His People"

A VITAL DRAMA OF THE GREAT NORTHWEST

Shooting in the rapids of a treacherous mountain stream in a frail canoe and battling to death upon a rocky ledge high up a mountain side are but two of the thrilling moments in this new Select Picture.

A rugged romance of the great North woods. The story of a strong man's love for a weak woman. See the thrilling hand-to-hand struggle between one wolf, the last of his tribe, and a social sybarite on the crest of a mountain peak.

Also

Elmo Lincoln

in</div