POSSUM RUN
 (Too late for Saturday issue)

Eber Hahn was a Rensselaer goer Monday.

Ross Pollock was a McCoysburg goer Saturday.

Mrs. T. J. Parker and daughters and Mrs. James Campbell took dinner with Mrs. Markin Tuesday.

Ray Hahn visited over Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Hahn.

Mr. and Mrs. William Hurley spent Wednesday night with Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Parker.

Everett Parker and David Hahn and family called on Mr. and Mrs.
 James Campbell, Jr., Sunday.

James Campbell, Jr., T. J. Parker and son Everett and David Hahn attended the Otis ranch sale Tuesday.

The big dance at James Campbell's, Jr., Wednesday night was well attended and all reported a fine time.

Organization of a Sunday school at the Oak Grove school house is being talked about. The date will be published later.

This looks more like spring. One can see the grass peeping up a little.

Kenneth Davission was taken quite sick Wednesday and a doctor was called for him.

James Davis and family, Earl Parker and family of Zadoc spent Sunday with T. J. Parker and family.

Roscoe Pollock and wife have moved onto the farm where Jacob Myers lived, near Laura.

George Marches, who are now living in East Chicago.

Will Robinson and wife came in from Idaho Monday after a short visit in Gary at the Knotts home.
 When they left Idaho, over a week ago, spring work on the farms was begun. The Robinsons have disposed of their Idaho properties and are still undecided as to a new location. A trip, "in a little old Ford just rambling around" in New York is being contemplated.

Alberta Reep, Eva Balaird, Katherine Avery, Ivan Hill, Olive Dur-kes, Ethel McKinley, Hazel Beason, Vera Hardesty, Elsie Smallfelt and Grant Hansell were White Post representatives in the county spelling contest at Winamac last Saturday.
 White Post did not carry home any of the honors, but several of the contestants stood up for five hours and were almost "all in" when they met their Waterloo.
