

THE NEW EDISON

THE PHONOGRAPH WITH A SOUL

At last we have been able to put in stock practically every model machine that the Edison Company make.

The new records are coming out every month in ever increasing numbers.

Mr. Edison spent seven years and three million dollars in bringing the New Edison to the point of perfect realism.

W. J. WRIGHT

RENSSELAER, INDIANA

LOCAL NEWS

Miss Annetta Hansson spent Friday in Lafayette.

Henry Barger of Jordan township was in Lafayette Saturday.

Charles V. May was in Indianapolis on business Friday afternoon.

Laban Wilcox of Pardue spent the week-end here with home folks.

Mrs. J. H. Chapman and W. O. Rowles were Chicago goers Friday.

Gail Michal and A. F. Patzschke of Kniman were visitors in the city Monday.

E. C. Forbes and Ed Hemphill of near Wolcott were Rensselaer visitors Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Morton and baby spent the week-end in Gary and Hammond.

An exceptionally good lot of farming implements at the F. L. Hoover sale, Tuesday, Oct. 13.—Advt.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Watson motored to Chicago Saturday and visited until Sunday evening with relatives.

Mrs. Ella Duncan returned to her home in Lafayette Friday after a visit here with her niece, Mrs. J. K. Smith.

For this week only—all outing flannels selling up to 50c, reduced to 29c per yard. See west window.—FENDIG'S FAIR.

Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Freeland of Moody went to Commiskey Saturday for a visit with the latter's son, Omar Smith, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Bud Lewis of Kosciusko county drove down Friday and visited until Sunday with old friends in Barkley township.

L. H. Hamilton attended W. R. Wood's political banquet at the Hotel Sherman in Chicago Saturday night, spread for questioning and catechizing the Republican editors of the Tent district.

Cents and Non-Cents

(A Cereal in Ate Parts)

CHAPTER I

We know a guy

(To be continued)

Burchards
5-10 AND VARIETY STORE

Mr. and Mrs. John Dennis of near Remington were visitors in the city Monday.

A fine Schiller piano will be sold at the F. L. Hoover sale, next Tuesday, Oct. 13.—Advt.

Mrs. Fred Yester went to Hammond Friday to visit her daughter, Mrs. Archie Schmidt.

Howard Abbott, wife and baby of Indiana Harbor spent the week-end here with Mrs. Abbott's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Reeve.

J. L. Harmon and mother of Garrison, Ia., came Saturday for a visit with the Frank McCord family of just north of town.

Fred A. Phillips of Dane, Wis., was in Rensselaer Saturday visiting relatives and old friends, returning to his home Sunday.

Mrs. Walter English and little daughter of Lafayette spent the week-end at Parr with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Babcock.

Mrs. Korah Daniels went to Chicago Sunday for a visit with her daughters, Misses Bertha and Alice Daniels, who are employed there.

An opportunity to purchase fall and winter outing flannels; former price 50c, this week at 29c per yard. See west window.—FENDIG'S FAIR.

Speaking of front porch campaigns, Martin Sauer says that he has conducted several such in the past 20 years and has lost out every time.

Robert Smith and Sidney Peters went to Indianapolis Friday and drove home two new Ford automobiles for the local agent, the Central Sales Co.

Miss Minnie Waymire and her friend, Miss Nettie Ellis, of Chicago spent the week-end here with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Waymire.

Mrs. B. Graf left Saturday for her home at Des Moines, Ia., after a visit here with her sisters, Mrs. W. D. Bring and the Misses Mary and Clara Goetz.

Mrs. Mary Day returned to her home in Chicago Monday after attending the Mrs. Frances Hopkins funeral Thursday and spending a few days here with relatives.

The Democrats of White county will have a big rally at Monticello on Saturday, Oct. 23, at which Carlton B. McCulloch, Democratic nominee for governor will be one of the speakers.

The football game Sunday afternoon at Riverside park between the Rensselaer Independents and a Hoopston, Ill., team resulted in a victory for the local team, the score being 10 to 0.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Dennis and the former's mother, Mrs. William Dennis, of Indianapolis came last Thursday for a week's visit with Mrs. Dennis's uncle, John Dennis, of northwest of Remington.

Earl Obenchain and Miss Clara Bennett were quietly married by Rev. William T. Barbre Monday morning at the residence of the officiating minister. The young people will live on a farm near Wheatfield.

W. L. Wood and "Tude" Brusnahan drove up to Niles and Buchanan, Mich., Saturday, returning Sunday. They called on quite a number of former Jasper county Hoosiers residing up there and found them all doing well and contented.

Ralph Sprague and family moved last week from the Harvey Wood, Jr., property on College avenue, into the property he recently purchased on Jackson street of Emily Whitman. Harvey Wood and family, who recently returned here from Osburn, O., will occupy the property vacated by the Spragues.

The football game to have been played at St. Joseph college Sunday afternoon between the college team and the Crane Technical college of Chicago, was canceled owing to the death of one of the Crane players Friday, whose death was caused from injuries received in a game played the Sunday previous.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank B. Alter returned home Thursday from an automobile trip to different points in Indiana and Ohio. At Dayton, O., they visited two brothers and a sister of the former, Lewis and Harry Alter and Mrs. L. E. Chaney. They also visited Trail's End, the country home of Governor James M. Cox, Democratic candidate for president.

Mr. and Mrs. John Martin and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Gwin and son and Mrs. Elizabeth Gwin, all of Pleasant Ridge, drove to Battle Ground Sunday and attended the 15th wedding anniversary celebration of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Martin. The affair was in the nature of a surprise and was planned by the relatives and friends. About 60 were present and spent a most enjoyable day. Mr. and Mrs. Martin were former residents of near Pleasant Ridge and are well known by many here.

P. W. HORTON
PIANO TUNING AND REPAIRING
Telephone 24-D

C. E. Baumgartner went to Ft. Wayne on business yesterday.

Dr. I. M. Washburn was in Lafayette on business Monday.

Yesterday's local egg and butterfat prices: Eggs, 55c; butterfat, 60c.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Mills went to Indianapolis and Muncie Monday for a short visit.

The usual band concert will be given this Wednesday evening, weather permitting.

Yesterday, Discovery day, was a legal holiday in Indiana and the banks were closed.

Miss Rose Luers went to Chicago Monday for a week's visit with her sister, Miss Lucile Luers.

Lawrence McLain of Purdue spent Sunday here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George H. McLain.

Miss Irene Cunningham of Rossville, Ill., spent the week-end with Misses Aileen and Florence Allman.

Henry Luers and family of south of town spent Sunday with the John P. Ryan family in Gilliam township.

Miss Mabel Worland left Monday for Whitehall, Mont., for an extended visit with her aunt, Mrs. Linnie Devine.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Bellows of Remington and Mrs. C. L. Murphy of this city went to Chicago Monday for a short visit.

Capt. J. L. Hagins returned Sunday from a few days' enjoyable visit with old army comrades at Seymour, his old home.

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Weiss left Friday for a visit with the latter's brother and sister at Madison and Hayworth, Wis.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Luers of Kouts visited in Rensselaer Monday with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Nowels.

Miss Aileen Allman, who is teaching in the Batavia, Ill., schools, spent the week-end here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Allman.

Mrs. J. J. Montgomery went to Rockford, Ill., yesterday for a visit with her mother, Mrs. Eugene Wempler, and her sister, Mrs. Arthur Barnes.

Mrs. A. H. McCoy, who had been visiting here with her sister, Mrs. H. L. Hendricks, and her brother, W. P. Bennett, returned to her home in Laporte Friday.

Mrs. Ezra Stoner and little daughter returned to their home at Peru Friday after a visit with her father, Elias Arnold, and other relatives in Barkley township.

Dr. Wesley Thompson, who had been visiting here with his nieces, Mrs. E. P. Honan and Mrs. C. W. Duvall, left Friday for his home at Los Angeles, Calif.

The Rensselaer high school football team was victorious in the game played at Riverside park Saturday afternoon with the Logansport team. The score was 20 to 6.

Yesterday's local grain prices: Corn, 77c; oats, 45c; wheat, No. 1, $1.90; rye, No. 2, $1.40. The prices one year ago were: Corn, $1.30; oats, 65c; wheat, $2.11; rye, $1.27.

E. B. Allen has perfected a very neat "phonolamp," made by combining a phonograph and table reading lamp, and the same may be seen at the Princess theater during the evenings.

Mrs. H. B. Murray and little granddaughter Cecilia were in Lafayette Monday where the former is taking treatment for her eyes. This was supposed to be the last trip necessary for her to make there.

Mrs. Bert Courtright and sister, Miss Stella Taylor, of Remington, and A. L. Courtright of Crown Point were in Rensselaer Monday to see the former's husband, who is a patient at the county hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Rose of Barkley township returned home Monday from Cissna Park, Ill., where they had been visiting the latter's mother, who is 86 years of age and has recently suffered a fracture of the hip.

Mrs. Barbara Hoshaw, who for the past year or more has been living with her son at Dysart, Ia., has returned to Rensselaer to make her home. Her sister, Mrs. Lena Hauser, of Dayton, O., who accompanied her here, returned to her home yesterday.

Mrs. Arthur Freeman of Newman, Ill., and Mrs. Ralph Shoemaker of Glendive, Mont., who had been visiting their brothers, Ed and Jacob Gilmore of Rensselaer and James Gilmore of Union township, left Monday for the home of the former, Mrs. Shoemaker expecting to spend a few days there before continuing on to her home in Montana.

ELLIS OPERA HOUSE

AFTERNOON and NIGHT

Saturday, October 16, 1920

HANS AND FRITZ

IN

A MUSICAL COMEDY FOR YOUNG AND OLD

THE CAPTAIN
CINE AND MUSIC
K THE KIDS

Charming Chorus of Sweet Sixteens

MANAGEMENT GUS HILL

NIGHT PRICES 75c, $1.00, $1.50
AFTERNOON—Children 25c; Adults 50 and 75c

SEATS NOW AT LONG'S. Phone 53

Mail orders accepted. Address Ellis Opera House

Many Jasper county people went to Lafayette yesterday afternoon to see and hear Governor Cox and Thomas Taggart, who spoke there last evening.

Judge and Mrs. C. W. Hanley and their son, Cope Hanley, and wife and Mr. and Mrs. George W. Hopkins motored to Lebanon Sunday and spent the day.

W. R. Brown was reported in a very critical condition as The Democrat went to press yesterday. His two sons, Clint and Everett Brown, of Huntington are at his bedside, and the daughter, Mrs. Charles Harmon, of Evansville, was expected last evening.

A four-course wedding breakfast was served at 9:30 Saturday morning at the E. T. Harris home in honor of Miss Neil Meyers, who was married yesterday afternoon to Mr. Elmo Blakemore of Kennett, Mo., the hostesses being Misses Muriel Harris and Mildred Biggs and Mrs. Rex Warner. About 26 young ladies were present. Those from out of town were Misses Aileen Allman and Irene Cunningham of Batavia, Ill., and Mrs. Marceline Snorf and Miss Neil Biggs of Chicago.

DEMOCRATIC WOMEN'S SCHOOL

OF CITIZENSHIP

At the regular meeting of the Democratic Women's Citizenship school at Democratic headquarters next Friday afternoon, Oct. 16, at 2:30 o'clock, a school of voting will be conducted, sample county ballots having been prepared for the purpose of instructing the women in making their ballot. Don't miss attending this meeting as it is important that we know about these things.—COMMITTEE.

An armload of old papers for 5¢ at The Democrat office.

"The forthcoming election carries with it an especial significance in that it comes at a time when the eyes of the world are upon America for leadership. The decision made will register America's place among the nations of the earth, either as a helpful factor in leadership, or as a nation which is willing simply to take its place in the ranks."—Gov. Cox.

G. F. DESCHAND'S REAL ESTATE AGENCY

188-a., near Gary, all under cultivation. First-class.

200-a. good black soil, within 6 miles of Rensselaer. Easy payments.

120-a. good land, on rock road.

80-a. good clay soil.

12-a. No. 1 land, clay soil.

12-a. well improved, 4 blocks from court house, Rensselaer.

Residence on main street, Rensselaer.

Call and See Me at Rensselaer Garage

o18

CAR OF COAL ON TRACK

We now have a carload of egg-size cook stove coal. Get your order in at once.—J. C. GWIN & CO., phone 6.

NOTICE

Marion Township Farmers' Federation will meet at the court house Friday, Oct. 16, at 7:30 p. m.—P. H. HAUTER, Chairman.

WHEN YOU HAVE ANY

POULTRY

to sell call Phones 461 or 39 and we will call and get it.

HIGHEST PRICES PAID

Wallace & Herath

CARLOAD of POTATOES

South Dakota Early Ohios

Will be in shortly. These are good, ripe potatoes and it will pay you to buy some for seed as well as for eating. Leave your order and I will reserve the number of bushels you want.

CHAS. PELEY, Rensselaer