THOMAS BROOKS FLETCHER.

his message upon every community." Mr. Fletcher comes with a reputation of being a dramatic orator. It is said that he dramatizes his message by an intensity of energy which holds his audiences from the very start.

Writing of Mr. Fletcher to the committee in charge of the local course, the Redpath Bureau, through which Mr. Fletcher was secured, says: "It is difficult to write of Fletcher without using superlatives. He is one of the biggest men Redpath has ever had on the platform. His personality is such that, to put it truly, he simply must be heard to be appreciated. No one can use the right word to describe Brooks Fletcher and his lecture. When you have told all about him you find that what you have said is inadequate."

Mr. Fletcher is a newspaper editor. He lives in Marion, Ohio, and is editor of the Marion Tribune.

THE MONTAGUE LIGHT OPERA SINGERS.

Light opera, always popular, is featured in costume by the Montague Singers. In the repertoire of this veteran organization are scenes from "The Serenade" by Victor Herbert, "Robin Hood" by Reginald DeKoven, and the "Pied Piper" selections from "The Mikado," "The Red Mill" and "Madam Butterfly," and a complete operetta, "A Japanese Romance," all of which are given in costume.

Incidental solos, duets and quartets from the best song literature give pleasing variety to the program. One or more readings such as a sketch from "The Blue Bird" by Maeterlinck give further diversion without departing from the superior quality of the Montague program.

Doubtless much of the success of this company year after year is due to the fact that there is no let-up in their musical study. New program features are constantly being developed and in this way return engagements are welcomed without the necessity of duplication.

COUNTY EDUCATIONAL NOTES

(By Co. Supt. Sterrett)

The churches of Jasper county responded exceptionally well to the call from State Supt. L. N. Hines to preach last Sunday on an educational topic that would awaken the people of the county to the educational needs to lift Indiana from 17th towards first place. The teachers are putting on splendid programs throughout the county—some in conjunction with box socials and others on an afternoon. Patrons of each community are taking part in these programs. The Rev. John Dean gave a very interesting talk at Pleasant Grove in south Barkley last Friday evening as a part of a box social program. Miss Evelyn Hauser, the teacher, reported all parents present except two mothers who were unable to be there. Marie Wiegand Harrington gave a similar school affair at Aix and John E. Alter of Union township gave an excellent address. It was the same that Mr. Alter gave at the dedication exercises at north Marion a week or so ago. These talks will assist in removing the conceit from many of us Hoosiers. It is almost impossible to know that Indiana ranks so low educationally. But if one could visit the schools in our southern counties the reason could be readily seen. Jasper county has advantages far above the average counties in Indiana. Very few single-cylinder schools are being built in Jasper county and when one is built it is built strictly according to law. The economy and efficiency of the several-room school is being recognized all over the state. Rensselaer city schools gave an excellent program at the high school auditorium last Friday evening in behalf of this cause. The large auditorium failed even in standing room for the interested patrons of the school. The school reached homes in Marion, Hanging Grove, Milroy, Jordan, Newton, Union, Barkley and Gillam townships. Such a program on a smaller scale should be given in every school house in Jasper county before the month of November passes. Literature is in the hands of every teacher and the initiative of the teachers will be watched by parents, pupils, trustees and county superintendents.

Thomas Kessinger returned last week from a several months stay on

THE ZANDORFF ENTERTAINERS.

This company consists of Athel Lindorff, harpist, and Florence Zander, reader and impersonator.

The harp has always held a deep place in the hearts of the people. It is among the earliest known of all musical instruments. But the harp of today is much different from that of early times. The modern harp possesses three thousand separate pieces his farm in Saskatchewan, Canada.

Mrs. T. L. Smith returned last week from a summer in the west with her daughters in Idaho and Montana.

Mrs. John Miller and daughter

Bertha returned home last Monday after a week's visit with relatives and friends at Logansport and Kokomo.

Fred Comer arrived from Kalamazo, Mich., Tuesday to visit a few days here in his old home. He also visited his sister, Glenn Comer, who is in the sanitarium at Rockville.

Bernadine Wright suffered quite an injury last Tuesday as she was passing the big door of the Rowe garage at the same time a car was being driven out, the car throwing her to the pavement and injuring her head. For a while it was thought she was quite seriously injured, but is reported to be on the mend today.
