MILROY

(Too late for Saturday issue) Carl Beaver is husking corn for Fred Dobbins.

Chapman Bros. shredded corn the first of the week.

Charles Dean has built a neat barn on his farm here.

Mrs. Earl Foulks was in Monon Wednesday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. George Foulks were in Wolcott Tuesday.

T. McAleer and Marion Dunn have each made a good cave.

Louise Marchand assisted Mrs.
Snyder in cooking for shredders last week.

Earl Foulks and family spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. William Banes.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Johnson of Monon spent Sunday with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Johnson.

Mrs. T. Johnson and children, Mrs.
A. Johnson and children and Mrs.
Lon Chapman and daughter spent Monday with Mrs. Anna Chapman and family.

Word was received in Monon some time ago to the effect that John Spease, Jr., who lived on the Trine farm some two years ago, was killed somewhere in the south.

GOODLAND

(From the Herald)

H. T. Griggs continues to improve in health and has developed a good appetite.

Harold Jones of Muncie and Frances Jones of Danville, Ill., were home over Sunday.

Mrs. Grace Campbell, a patient at the St. Vincent hospital in Indianapolis, is reported to be improving.

Elizabeth Bales, who is attending school at the Holy Angels' academy at Logansport, spent Thanksgiving with her parents, Mr. and Mrs.
George Bales.

School closed Wednesday for the remainder of the week in order that the kids and teachers might enjoy a vacation and recuperate from their Thanksgiving dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Dye and Mrs.
Homan and son, all of Kyser, W.
Va., motored here for a visit with the George O. Bales and Paul Homan families. Their trip through Ohio was in snow from five to eight inches in depth.

On election day John Buch had a runaway and one of his fingers was injured and when he was taken to Rensselaer on the following Saturday it was noticed that the injured member was in a state of blood poisoning, and it is feared that since he has been removed to Longcliff that said finger will have to be removed.

Mrs. Margaret Oswald and her son, Lieut. Commander Leslie Oswald, have presented the museum with a one-pound shell, a piece of black palm wood from Panama, a beautiful piece of coral from the Bermuda island, and a small piece of brass taken from one of the engines constructed by the French when they attempted to build a canal across the isthmus.
All of these things have been carefully labeled and placed away in the museum.

MT. AYR

(From the Tribune)

Charles Parks of Surrey was a business visitor here Saturday.

A. J. Hurty was called to Chicago to appear as a witness in the J. C.
Roe case Monday.

Dr. Martin brings the report that Will Johnson of Doneyan, Ill., lost a fine fresh cow Monday.

Mrs. George Sigler went to Chicago this week where she will remain with her daughters through the winter.

Dave Book and family were over from Rensselaer and spent the day Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Lawson Fonsler.

Mrs. Lloyd Hopkins has as her guests her mother, Mrs. Spangler, and Mrs. Lewella Jones both of Rensselaer.

A fine boy arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Mann Miller Thursday, November 18. This is their second child, both being boys.

Jack Hoyes and Frank Alter and their wives were over from Rensselaer Sunday to call on Uncle John Barker, who continues in frail health.
Joe Wither and family have recovered from the attack of what the doctor termed diphtheria, and there is very little sickness throughout the neighborhood.

Uncle Daniel Helmuth received word of the death of a nephew, Emanuel Helmuth, on Friday. The deceased resided at Canton, Mo., and was the son of a brother.

Kinder Kennedy and family have moved from Chicago to Brook and will live with the English family until spring, when they expect to move into a house by themselves.

Jay and Nell Makeever spent Sunday with Mary Jane Phillips at Mar-tinton, Ill., where she is staying with an uncle. They report her as convalescing nicely from her recent illness.

Uncle Jake Stutzman left last week for his new home at White Pigeon, Mich. Henry Yoder has moved into the Stutzman property, while John Miller took Henry's place with Oscar Stucker. John Tunis moved to the Frank Elijah farm vacated by Mr.
Miller.

John Carr arrived here from Ridge-land, Miss. this week and will make his home here for the coming year.
Mr. Carr comes from the cotton belt of the south and says that last year he got sixty cents for his crop of cotton, while this year sixteen cents was the best price he was able to secure.

Our high school basketball team was again victorious at Goodland last Friday night. This is the second game that we have been victorious in over Goodland and our boys begin to feel that they are real basketball players. We were unable to be present, but reports have it that it was a very good game, the score being 12 to 10. The grades game, which was a curtain-raiser for the big game, resulted in a victory for the Goodlanders by a score of 35 to 2.

J. C. Roe, manager of the Farmers' Grain company here, had an experience about four years ago while residing at Tuscola, Ill., which rendered him slightly a cripple for all the balance of his life. It happened when he was returning from Chicago to his home in Tuscola on the Chicago and Eastern Illinois railroad.
When near home the conductor aroused him saying that they were at their destination. Mr. Roe walked off the train and down an embankment of some twenty feet, sustaining an injury to one of his limbs which causes him to walk with a limp continually. He brought suit against the railroad company at the time, but has never been able to get a final hearing with them until now. The hearing was set for hearing Monday of this week, but we were unable to learn the outcome in time for this issue.

FRANCESVILLE

(From the Tribune)

Mr. and Mrs. Quince Richardson were over from Rensselaer Monday.

Harry Overman of Camp Grant has been visiting with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Overman, for several days.

Leland Williams of Indianapolis was here Friday on business connected with the Williams estate north of town.

Mr. and Mrs. John Cover and daughter of Reynolds were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fawn Gil-singer Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Thompson of Irwin, O., have been the guests of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs.
Frank Grafton, since Saturday.

Mrs. Charles Herselman and daughter of Valparaiso were the guests of Mrs. Cynthia Garrigues and Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Nelson a part of this week.

The marriage of Howard Spence to Miss Ruth Anderson took place at Plymouth, their home, last Monday. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs.
Frank Spence, formerly from southeast of Francesville.

Cards have been received here by Mrs. Marion Rotruck and others from Mr. and Mrs. Albert Leibling of Detroit announcing the arrival of Albert, Jr., on November 12th. Mrs.
Leibling was formerly Miss Johanna Schubert of this place.

Edward Gras of this place was the official time keeper at this point last Sunday for the 300-mile motorcycle endurance race which began and ended at Logansport. Only six out of the score or more machines that started "registered in" with Ed here; the others developed trouble enroute and dropped out. The average speed of those that remained was about 45 miles per hour. Daniel J. Schlammer, 20 years old of Wabash, one of the twenty-five entrants, was instantly killed seven miles north of Logansport. He was making about fifty miles per hour and was trying to make up lost time as he started late.
People living near the scene of the accident stated that while trying to adjust his clothing he let loose of the handlebars and lost control of the machine, there was a cloud of dust and he was dead when reached.
