

Big Flour Sale ON NOW

Wheat prices are going higher every day and we look for the price to go much higher. Get in at the bottom price for a short time only.

Blue Ribbon Flour, 49 lb. sk.	Blue Ribbon and Pillsbury Blend- ed, 49 lb. sack	Pillsbury Best, 48 lb. sack
$2.70	$2.80	$2.90

We believe that this will be your last chance to buy flour made from this year's wheat at such a low price.

A Money Back Guarantee on Every Sack

Iroquois Roller Mills
Phone 456

NEWS from the COUNTY

MEDARYVILLE

(From the Journal.)
Mrs. Frank Rowe and daughter, Mary, were Michigan City visitors over Sunday.

Harwood Call was down from Niles, Mich., for an over Sunday visit with his mother and friends.

Sam Lidgard and family, who have been living west of town for the past year, left this week for their newly purchased farm near Jefferson, O.

Miss Cameron, sister of Druggist J. B. Cameron, was here from Eton, O., to spend Thanksgiving with the Camerons, returning to her home in Ohio Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis White went to Rochester, Minn., today where Mr. White expects to receive medical attention at the Mayo hospital for asthma, which has troubled him for a long time.

Mrs. A. B. Schoonover returned to her home Sunday evening after a three weeks' visit with her sons, Ross, George and Fred of Guthrie Center, Iowa. Her son Charles met her in Chicago.

An old-fashioned "belling" was given Mr. and Mrs. John Garling Tuesday night when a crowd of their friends visited them at their farm home east of town, occupied the past season by Fred Vollmer and sister Rose.

Charles Cottrell and Mrs. Sarah Perrine, brother and sister of Mrs. Hackley, came from Pontiac, Ill., last week for Thanksgiving with the Hackley family. Mrs. Perrine returned to her home Saturday, but Mr. Cottrell is remaining for a longer visit.

Ray Roland was over from Jefferson, O., last week. Mr. Roland said that they had had snow there since they moved and when it melted off Mrs. Roland went to the garden and picked enough strawberries and lettuce for a meal. They are very much pleased with their new home.

Miss Sophia Winters, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Winters, was married last Wednesday to John Harper of south Giliam. The marriage took place at the M. E. parsonage in Barkley township and the ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dean, pastor of the Barkley church. A Thanksgiving dinner was served at the home of the bride to the home circle in honor of the young couple. For the present the happy couple will make their home with the parents of the bride.

WOLCOTT

(From the Enterprise.)

C. W. Bidwell commenced a clerkship at the Wolcott postoffice Monday.

Mrs. A. H. Dunn spent Thursday with Mrs. George Warden at Remington.

John Hanna visited with friends at Fairbury, Ill., from Sunday until Tuesday evening.

Miss Bridget Burns came Monday to visit her brother, John Burns, of northeast of Wolcott.

Mrs. John Sullivan and children, Dorothy and John, Jr., of Kentland spent Friday with Mrs. Wilder Ellis.

Mrs. A. Ellis of Chicago Heights came Wednesday evening and visited Mr. and Mrs. Q. L. Hughes until Friday.

Mrs. Alfa Kerlin and daughter Mildred of Rensselaer were the Thanksgiving guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Spangle.

Mr. and Mrs. William Farney returned home from Scottsburg Monday, having been called there by the death of her sister.

Mrs. George Stark of Corydon arrived Wednesday evening for a visit with her son, Edward Stark, of northeast of Wolcott.

Miss Anna Furrer of Fairbury, who has been visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Furrer, of east of Wolcott, returned to Fairbury Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Biddel of Iroquois, Ill., who have been visiting Paul Biddel and family of south of Wolcott, returned to their home on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. George F. Baker, Jr., of Dayton, O., visited Mr. Baker's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George F. Baker, from Wednesday evening until Sunday.

Miss Mabel McDonald of Logansport was the guest over Thanksgiving of her sister, Mrs. Charles Weirick, and her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. John Dunn.

Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Wagner of Rensselaer, who came to attend the wedding of their youngest son, Merton, to Miss Mildred Mathew, visited with their children until Saturday.

Leslie Bidwell spent Thanksgiving with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Will Bidwell, returning to his studies in the medical department of Northwestern university at Chicago Sunday evening.

Henry Wagner of Larimore, N. D., is here for a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Wagner at Rensselaer, and his brothers and sisters of near Wolcott, and to attend the wedding of his brother, Merton, to Miss Mildred Mathew.

Mrs. T. H. Mount and daughter, Miss Alma, and Mrs. Stanton Spencer and son Russell went to Lafayette Wednesday and Thursday Miss Alma and Russell were taken to the Home hospital where they were operated on for the removal of their tonsils.

Mrs. Ed Miller returned home from Fayette, Iowa, Friday, November 19, where she has been caring for Mr. Miller's aunt, Mrs. C. L. Pooler, who has been ill for the past eighteen months. She passed from this life November 11, 1920. Mr. Pooler accompanied Mrs. Miller home, expecting to stay till after the holidays.

One of the prettiest weddings of the season was solemnized at the Sacred Heart Catholic church Wednesday morning, November 24, at 8 o'clock when Merton A. Wagner, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Wagner, and Mildred Cecelia, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Levi Mathew, were united in marriage in the presence of a large number of friends and relatives, the Rev. Father Baker officiating. The ceremony was followed with a nuptial high mass. A dance was given for the friends of the young couple at the opera house at Remington that same evening at which over 200 were present. The music was furnished by the Nierengarten orchestra.

GOODLAND

(From the Herald.)

Philip Hauser of Rensselaer was a visitor in Goodland last Friday and Saturday.

August Leins and family of Brazil spent Thanksgiving here with home folks.

Mrs. John Plummer fell the first of the week and sustained a broken ankle.

Miss Genevieve Berger, student at Manor Hall, Lynn, Mass., was home for Thanksgiving.

John Gemmell is a pneumonia patient at the home of his parents on South Newton street.

Mr. and Mrs. Brewster Hornbeck of Elgin, Ill., are here as the guests of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Burgess.

Albert Gray, who spent several days at the Gray brothers' farm near Montpelier, O., returned to Goodland Wednesday night.

Miss Anna Rider, who has been attending school at Brenau college at Gainesville, Ga., is home for a few weeks' vacation.

Mrs. John Brook of Logansport and Mrs. Agnes Hughes of Donovan, Ill., are here as the guests of their aunt, Mrs. Frank Welshaar, and husband.

Mrs. Martha Clark is spending a few weeks visiting her daughter, Mrs. E. E. Campbell in Indianapolis, who is a patient in St. Vincent's hospital.

The aged mother of Rev. Frank H. Porter, formerly of this place, but now a resident of Huntington, passed away November 24. She was 73 years of age.

James Henderson and family of America, N. D., are visiting relatives in this community. It has been 23 years since Mr. Henderson has visited this country.

Mrs. Mary Listen, who has been ill at her home on West Union street for the past year, passed away at 3:15 o'clock Thursday afternoon. The funeral will probably be held Sunday.

George Mitten and children motored to Indianapolis last Saturday to visit Mrs. Mitten, who is a patient in St. Vincent's hospital. Mrs. Mitten has been improving nicely and will return home the latter part of this week.

L. L. Reed is a patient in the Methodist hospital in Indianapolis. Mrs. Mura Reed Hood of New York City, his daughter, has been visiting him and Tuesday came up to Goodland for a visit.

Miss Cady Griffith, who is dean of women at Franklin college, spent the Thanksgiving holidays here with Miss Fanny Shults. Miss Griffith taught music in the Goodland schools several years ago and has many friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Constable attended the International Stock show this week and report that four firsts in single ear corn were won by Indiana exhibitors. J. W. Johnson and son Keith of this place won places in the prizes.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. George Dewey of Danville, Ill., November 27. Mrs. Dewey was formerly Miss Daisy McKinley, and her mother, Mrs. Charles McKinley, is at the Dewey home caring for the new granddaughter.

Mrs. Ernest Crum received a telegram Thursday stating that her brother, Floyd Tabler, a member of the United States army, stationed in Pennsylvania, had been killed Wednesday morning and that the remains would be sent to Paulding, the lad's home, on Thursday. The funeral was held today (Friday). The young man was about 20 years of age.

Mr. and Mrs. Emil Sommer and little child, who have been missionaries at Djoka Punda, Africa, returned to Goodland last Friday evening for a visit with relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Sommer had a close call going over in 1917 when their boat struck a mine just off the coast of Africa and many were drowned and all the baggage was lost and they had to remain at the coast until clothing and other necessities were sent before they could proceed to their destination.

BROOK

(From the Reporter.)

Mrs. Hatt of Clinton, Ill., is visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Otto Hood this week.

Miss Velma Carpenter was the guest of relatives in Argos, Ind., Thanksgiving.

Howard Myers went to Chicago on Monday to attend the International Livestock show.

Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Denham visited with Mr. and Mrs. Max Harner at Goodland Sunday.

Miss Cora Deardurff of Elkhart spent Thanksgiving with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Deardurff.

Frank Sawyer of Chicago returned home Saturday after visiting with his sister, Mrs. Art Welshaar.

Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Zook left Tuesday for a visit with their son in Utah and their daughter in Colorado.

Pauline Lyons and her friend, Miss Gladys Erbe, were down from Northwestern during the Thanksgiving vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Bloomster and two daughters of Hoopeson, Ill., were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Beecher on Thanksgiving. Mr. and Mrs. Louis Beecher of Rensselaer were also guests at the Beecher home.

PRINCESS THEATRE

Friday, December 10th

METRO SCREEN CLASSICS

Nazimova

"The Heart of a Child"

Dorothea had everything her way in the fight for the love of the rich young nobleman. The other girl, a celebrated dancer now, but originally sprung from the Limehouse district of London, had only herself, her personality and an inborn perception of right from wrong. Yet Lady Dorothea Lytham found herself obliged to cheat at the game of winning a man's heart. But Sally Snape played fair. Who won this battle of women's wits with the prize the love of the man they both sought constitutes one of the most compelling human and absorbing photo-plays ever screened. It is Nazimova's greatest triumph. "The Heart of a Child."

Also PATHE NEWS AND COMEDY

Admission—Adults, 25c—3c—28c.

Children, 10c—1c—11c.

Ferry Stonehill returned from Flint, Mich., last week. He has been working in the Chevrolet plant, but since all the automobile companies are cutting down the number of their employees he has come home for a while.

Miss Pauline Conn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Conn of Brook, was united in marriage with Albert Hardy at Watseka, Ill., Thanksgiving morning, the service taking place at the Catholic church. After the ceremony the young couple came to the home of the bride's parents in Brook for a short honeymoon.

The funeral of the late William Weston was held at the M. E. church last Friday afternoon. Besides the family residing in Brook his daughter, Mrs. Oren Maple of Laird, Colo.; Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Fletcher of Kentland, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Maple of Logansport, Eugene Hoover and Mrs. Kathleen Workinger of Attica and his step-son, Harry Sharpe of Indianapolis, were here for the funeral.

This community was shocked on Thursday morning to hear that Mrs. Webb Sell had died suddenly at her home in west Brook. She had been troubled for some time with heart disease, but was seemingly as well as usual. Mr. Sell went down town and brought Mrs. Fenton who was to accompany them to the farm. They failed to find Mrs. Sell at once upon their return, but finally located her in the bath room. From all indications she had died without a struggle. Mr. and Mrs. Sell have lived in Brook for many years, having retired from the farm. Since living here Mrs. Sell has always lent her aid to every worthy enterprise and will be sadly missed by all. The husband, daughter, Mrs. Quince Hood, and son, Roy, have the deepest sympathy of this community in their sudden bereavement.

A regularly organized women's club existed in New York as early as 1747.

SAY IT WITH FLOWERS

HOLDEN GREEN HOUSE
PHONE 426.

U. S. ARMY AND NAVY Surplus Stock Sale

SALE STILL GOING ON

We have just received a new supply of Army Blankets, Shoes Sweaters, Trousers, etc.

LOOK FOR FRIDAY'S PAPER FOR A FULL PRICE LIST ON ALL OF OUR WONDERFUL VALUES.

Here Are a Few of Our Specials:

Just arrived a new lot of 2:20 white back indigo Overalls, full size, triple stitched, worth $3.50

Our price only $1.98

Army Blankets, All-Wool Khaki and Grey

Only $5.45

Open Evenings Until 9:30

American Army and Navy Goods Store

Washington St. One Door East of Jarrette's Variety Store

RENSSELAER,

INDIANA

Michal's Public Sale

I will sell at public auction at my farm, 13 miles north of Rensselaer, 1/2 mile west and mile south of Kniman on Jackson Highway, on

Wednesday, December 15

Commencing at 10:30 a. m. the following:

7 HEAD HORSES 7

Black mare, 8 yrs. old; bay mare, 8 yrs. old; bay mare, 6 years old; bay horse, 6 years old; bay mare, 4 years old; black mare, 12 years old; bay mare, 13 years old.

5 HEAD CATTLE 5

Red cow, just fresh; Jersey cow, giving milk; red cow, giving milk; roan heifer; red Polled bull.

Pure Bred Hampshire Boar

FARM MACHINERY

Deering grain binder, 8-ft.; Osborne mower; Osborne hay rake; manure spreader, 70-bu. bed; Eagle straw spreader; fanning mill; 8-ft. Keystone disc; Emerson gang plow; Black Eagle corn planter, with fertilizer attachment and 160 rods check wire; endgate seeder, double fan, seeder cart and box; walking plow; Studebaker wagon and box; iron wheel wagon and rack; new Studebaker wagon on bed; Tower Gopher; 2 flexible three-section harrows; 4 h. p. Cushman gasoline engine; buggy; spring wagon; pitcher pump; water pump; steel stock tank; 30 ft. pipe and point; 25 ft. steel wind mill tower; 10 ft. line shaft; power washing machine; 35 ft. 2-inch belting; grindstone and grinder stand; trailer with stock rack; 2-hole corn sheller; DeLaval cream separator; bent wood churn; 2 Avery cultivators; Brown walking cultivator; 3 sets leather work harness; set chain harness; set single harness, saddle, mail box, gravel boards; wheel-barrow; 50 gal. steel oil barrel; 15-ft. cypress fishing boat and other articles not here mentioned.

MISCELLANEOUS.

175 bushels seed oats.
Rick of oats straw.
Nice lot of seasoned sawed stove wood.
Four dozen Chickens.

TERMS—A credit of ten months will be given on all sums over $10, purchaser giving note with approved security, bearing six per cent interest from date of sale if paid when due, if not so paid to draw eight per cent from date of sale. 2 per cent off for cash. Sums of $10 and under cash in hand, no discount.

HOT LUNCH BY LADIES' LEAGUE.

VERN MICHAL.

Col. W. A. McCurtain, Auctioneer.
Charles G. Spitzer, Clerk.