

The Republican.

RENSSELAER, Friday, Oct. 2, 1874.

Election one week from next Tuesday.

Calkins and Hammond next Friday.

A nice shower fell in this vicinity, last Friday night and Saturday.

The stovepipe season is at hand—the time for testing the average Christian mind.

Mr. Karsner has our thanks for a South Bend paper.

James Spencer and A. Hartman, of Remington, gave us a call Tuesday.

A. J. Chambers, of Indianapolis, called at the Republican office Tuesday.

A velocipede made its appearance on the streets of Rensselaer, Tuesday evening.

Potatoes are selling at $1 per bushel in this place, and are very scarce at that price.

B. H. Patton and T. J. Hollett, of Remington, were in town last Sunday.

Calkins and Hammond will speak in Rensselaer on the 9th.

Wm. B. Price, Republican Candidate for Commissioner from the 3d district, gave the Republican office a call last Monday.

Farmers and others, don't forget that you can get Fruit Trees at the Rensselaer Nursery this fall and next spring.

A. W. Bingham and lady started for Southern Illinois, last Tuesday, for a four or five weeks visit.

The Hon. Anson Wolcott, of White County, passed through town, Tuesday evening, last.

J. H. Wood, Hardware dealer, has a handsome, new sign. Painted by Jack Warner.

We understand that Mr. Jonathan Peacock is a candidate for Trustee of Marion township.

Silas L. Swain will sell forty-five head of cattle, one-half mile north of Rensselaer, on the 3d instant.

The Institute closes to-day—the intelligence of Jasper county will soon be scattered to the four winds.

"Ryma's" communication was received to late for publication this week. Will appear in our next.

Prof. Bell, editor of the Indiana School Journal, delivered an interesting lecture on "Growth or Development," in the court-house, last Tuesday evening.

Mr. Cole, principal of the Remington Schools, paid us a visit Wednesday. He informed us that the schools in Remington will commence next Monday.

There will be preaching at the M. E. Church next Sunday, Oct. 4th, at 10:30 a. m. and at 7 p. m. by Rev. R. M. Brooks. All are invited to attend.

It is a common report on the streets of Valparaiso, that a silver mine has been discovered very recently, in the public square, and is being worked privately by night.

It is not a significant fact that the independent organ of last week made a general drive at the only county officers who are opposed by democratic candidates?

Prof. Brown delivered a scientific lecture on "Life and its Relation to Matter," in the court-house, last Wednesday evening. And last evening, at the same place, an able lecture, on the old subject—"Temperance."

The funeral services of William A. Little son of Thos. G. and Martha J. Willey, were held in the Christian Church last Sunday afternoon, and conducted by Elder D. T. Halstead.

Public Auction on the first Saturday of each month in the town of Remington, by L. Riley, commencing at 1 o'clock P. M. Bring on your property by the piece or by the lot.

If we had a few more good sidewalks like those of brick on the north side of Washington street, it would add greatly to the appearance of our little city, besides, being much more convenient.

Simon P. Thompson will speak at Burns' school-house, Friday, Oct. 24 at 7 P. M. G. M. G. M. school-house, Thursday, Oct. 23, at 7 P. M. Egypt school-house, Monday, Oct. 12th, at 7 P. M.

The Institute is now in progress with a full attendance. The exercises are varied and interesting, interspersed with "music by the committee." A full report of the Institute will appear in our next week's issue.

The fire-alarm yesterday, was the result of a little fire which caught in the house of Mr. D. T. Halstead, and which was extinguished with but slight damage, before the arrival of the "fire company."

On Wednesday evening, after the lecture was over, a small portion of the audience repaired to Spitzer's hall, and, to the music of the "Fiddle," spent a few pleasant hours in "tripping the light fantastic too." "Only that and nothing more."

Mr. B. F. Underwood, of Boston, so say the bills, will lecture in the court-house, to-night, to-morrow night and Sunday night, October 2nd, 3d and 4th, on religious and scientific subjects. Admission free. We bespeak for him a good attendance.

It is reported that the REPUBLICAN will "blow out" after the election, that it is merely a campaign paper, &c. But such reports as these are malicious falsehoods. We have "come to stay" just as long as we can get the "wherewith" to buy bread and clothes; and, to judge the future by the past two weeks, it will be years hence before we "pull up stakes" in Rensselaer.

Change of Appointments.

WINAMAC, Sep. 4, 1874.

To the Editor of the LaPorte Herald.

On account of the arrangement for a joint discussion between my competitor and myself, a change in my appointments, as heretofore made, becomes necessary. I have therefore made the following list:

Michigan City, Oct. 2, 2 P. M.
Monticello, " 3, " 3 P. M.
Delphi, " 4, " 4 P. M.
Valparaiso, " 5, " 5 P. M.
Crown Point, " 6, " 6 P. M.
Winamac, " 7, " 7 P. M.
Rensselaer, " 8, " 8 P. M.
Kentland, " 9, " 9 P. M.
South Bend, " 10, " 10 P. M.
South Bend, " 11, " 11 P. M.
South Bend, " 12, " 12 P. M.
Republican papers of the district will please copy.
W. H. CALKINS.

Al. J. Kitt, of Rochester, on Wednesday last returned from Remington, this State, whither he has been looking up a site for a newspaper. Several citizens of Remington had sent an invitation asking him to visit the place; he did so and met with surprising success. He was promised their undivided support; also guaranteed $700 worth of advertising the first year. We would be glad to hear of his engaging in such a promising enterprise, but will say that if he should leave Rochester, will lose an honest, upright young man, of which she may now be justly proud.—Plymouth Mail and Magnet.

Matrimonial.

Married.—At John Zaborosky's, in Beaver township, on Monday, the 1st inst., Charles Johnson and Augusta Zaborosky, by Job English, Esq.—Kentland Gazette.

We would like to know whether this is Charles Johnson of the late Remington Journal, or not now of the Jasper REPUBLICAN, or not. How is this Charles? Explanations are in order and, in fact, are necessary. We always knew that Charles had an inclination to look skyward, but never were aware that 'twas toward that kind of a sky.

If the above does not mean you, how about the following, which we clip from another exchange? You can't get out of both, Charles, but you will have to own up to one or the other. Here it is:

"A pensive young man in Jasper county, while singing 'Come, love, come,' beneath his dulciana's window the other night, had love, music, wind and everything else knocked out of him by a something in a long white garment that fell out of a chamber window. It proved to be nobody but his girl, who in her anxiety to know who was serenading her, leaned too far over the window sill. Hence the result.—Fowler Herald.

We, unreservedly, deny the allegations, and denounce the "allegations."

Healthy Beds.

All persons who desire ministering to their own health should have their beds renovated by the Celebrated Lombard Steam Renovator, which removes all impurities from feather beds and destroys the Feather Midge, which is in all unrenovated beds.—It will inflate the beds to twice their former size, and will stay inflated and as light and buoyant as when new. Messrs. Flynn & Stratell have been in our town for some time, engaged in the above occupation and full reliance can be placed in their business capacity. If any work is desired in their line, you should give them a call at once. The following named persons who have had work done by them are willing to testify to their perfect reliability:

Wm. H. Rhoades, James Yeoman, Geo. Sigler, E. T. Harding, J. H. Willey, P. J. Spitzer, Sylvester Healy, Jared Benjamin.

Marriage licenses have been issued to the following named persons during the month of September: David L. Green and Jaley A. Parkison. Warren D. Swisher and Emma Elliott. George W. Rodgers and Eleanor A. Karsner. James M. McGinniss and Martha E. Henderson. James W. McCleary and Sarah A. Cooper.

Joint Discussion.

William H. Calkins, Republican, and William S. Hammond, Democratic, Candidates for Representative to Congress, will hold a joint discussion, on the political issues of the day, at the court-house in Rensselaer, October 8th, 1874. Everybody is invited to come and hear. A large attendance is anticipated.

Mr. S. P. Thompson, Candidate for Prosecuting Attorney of the 30th Judicial Circuit.

is a man extensively known as a thorough-going, enterprising and energetic worker in whatever he undertakes. It would be hard to find a man whose qualifications for such office would be better.

Should he conclude to take to himself a better-half the ladies would find his energy and perseverance irresistible.

The Trustees of Keener will be glad to learn that the decision of that school-house location was made on the 6th of March last and that the refusal within 8 months last of the Superintendent to decide it, and the direction of said Superintendent to said Trustee to put the money where it would do him the most good, or words to that effect and having a similar import, were only little jokes of the Superintendent. The Trustee ought, at once, to build that school-house.

We were much gratified to see on our table a few days ago the first number of the Rensselaer REPUBLICAN. Jasper county is filled with live, earnest Republicans; but they have labored several years, under the disadvantage of having no party organ.—Now at last, this want is met; and we congratulate the Republicans of that county on the event. The REPUBLICAN looks well, and the tone of its leading editorials shows that it will be an able and efficient aid to the Republicans in the present and future campaigns. We wish its enterprising proprietors the highest political and pecuniary success.—Lafayette Chronicle.

Conundrums.

The Union propounds to Simon P. Thompson six conundrums. We condense them and give Mr. Thompson's answers.

1. Are you Independent, Republican, pig or pup?

Ans. Republican and a gentleman.

What are you?

2. Do you favor Hatch or Major for Senator; or are you running with water on both shoulders?

Ans. My vote will express my sense of duty. Will yours?

3. Why did you procure the indictment of George M. Johnson?

Ans. I never procured an indictment.

I write bills of indictment at the dictation of a Grand Jury. How would you do?

4. Why did you not investigate the escape of a prisoner from Carpenter township &c. &c.?

Ans. Ignorance! If you know who the rascal is I will write your affidavit.

What should be done?

5. Did you petition Gov. Hendricks, &c.?

Ans. Allen J. Yeoman applied for the remission. I, G. & H., 347. Gov. Hendricks remitted one half and I paid the other half to the county Treasurer. I would do so again. It was right.—What would you do?

6. If re-elected would you make this a precedent to remit one half of the forfeitures?

Ans. Ask Gov. Hendricks. As a remitter he seems to be a success.

NEXT!

Sophistry Exposed.

The statement of "Fair Play" in the Union of Sept. 24, caused us to make an examination of the records to which he referred. We were surprised at his assertions, but supposed them true as he referred to the record for his authority. His statements are false. Besides the allowance for refunding the R. R. tax Mr. Babcock received for the year ending May 31, 1874, less than sixteen hundred dollars. "Fair play" says the allowances to Mr. Yeoman talked of in the campaign of 1870, included the charges for two extra copies of the R. R. tax duplicate. This was not made till the next year—fall of 1871.

In our investigation we stumbled upon the facts that the allowances to Mr. Yeoman for the year ending at Sept. term, 1872, was $2077.85, or about as much as Mr. Babcock's allowances for last year with all the extra work made by new laws and refunding the R. R. tax besides.

We think Fair Play would have been a more appropriate nom de plume for the person who wrote that article.

OFFICE COUNTY SUPERINTENDENT, RENSSELAER, SEP. 24th, 1874.

EDITOR REPUBLICAN:

Will you please publish the following letter:

"This is to certify that J. H. Snoddy has presented the postmaster's certificate, that his report of the enumerations of 1874 was mailed in time to reach here May 15, 1874, together with his own affidavit of that fact. Accordingly I have released him from the penalty and will add $252.30 to the appropriation of Jasper county on the first day of January, 1875, which amount the county would have received had the enumeration been made on the expiration of 1874, instead of 1873, as his report was delayed in the mails."

ALEX C. HOPKINS, Supt. Pub. Instruction.

I also remark in regard to the query in the REPUBLICAN as to why I did not decide the location of the school-house in Keener township; that I decided in all points brought before me in the appeal, on the 6th of last March,—that I made the decision openly in the presence of parties concerned,—thrice I also repeated the decision, and explained the case at the meeting of the County Board last May.—I have no other decision to make.

J. H. SNODDY.

Fair play, in the independent organ, last week, stated that Sheriff Daugherty charged the County for services rendered another party. There is no truth in the statement. Also that he made an exorbitant charge—untrue again, that the County Attorney opposed the allowance—when the fact is said Atty. advocated that it was a very low charge and appealed to a disinterested person to verify the representation.

Then Fair Play garbles, just as said organ did last spring on finances, by mixing board and guarding and says that the Sheriff charged for guarding a prisoner when he was in the County Poor House—another false statement; but time would fail us to follow up all the yarns of the independent organ and its correspondents and we will just say that any who are so glib as to believe any of their statements can obtain the facts in the case by personal investigation which all should take the trouble to make before acting upon such unprincipled misrepresentations.

The Rensselaer public Schools will commence on the 26th of October with the following named persons as the corps of teachers:

James A. Burnham, principal.
Miss Banta, first intermediate.
Miss Mattie Benjamin, second intermediate.
Miss Celia Wilkinson, primary.

Real Estate Transfers.

The following are the real estate transfers entered for record in the Recorder's office for the week ending Sept. 30th, 1874:

M. C. Mead to Alphaeus Blumore for $850, lot 6 & 7 in block 5, Chambers & Morgan's add. to Remington.

Caroline V. Clark to S. P. Thompson for $250, undivided 32, 29, 7—160 acres.

S. A. Morgan to A. Langreier for $2000, plus $2, 27, 7—10 acres.

Thomasetta Skinner to A. McCoy & Thompson for $800, w 1/2 se 17, 28, 7—80 acres.

William Bearenger to L. J. Press for $500 se 31, 28, 6—40 acres.

C. C. Pierson to John M. Miller for $500 se 31, 28, 6—40 acres.

Admiral Jasper county to Francis M. Curtis for $4.50 nw 32, 28, 6—40 acres.

Moses Willson to Charles Pullen for $40 n 1/2 se 32, 30, 6—20 acres.

What the Press Say of Us.

We have received the initial number of the Jasper REPUBLICAN, the new paper, started at Rensselaer. It has the ring of the truth in it, and we hope the Republicans of that county will give the new enterprise a liberal support.—Crown Point Register.

We have received the first number of the Jasper REPUBLICAN, published at Rensselaer, by Charles M. Johnson of the late Remington Journal. It is a seven column folio, and presents a neat appearance. We wish its editor much success in the accumulation of a large pile of greenbacks, and hope that the REPUBLICAN may ever be the champion of pure Republican principles, and be ever ready and willing to condemn wrong and expose fraud and dishonesty whenever they may beset the name of republicanism.—Benton County Herald.

The Jasper REPUBLICAN is the title of a new paper, started at Rensselaer in the interest of the Republican party. It is a very neatly printed seven column paper, edited and published by Chas. M. Johnson. We wish the publisher good luck in everything but his politics.—Winamac Democrat.

The Remington Journal establishment has been removed to Rensselaer, and on last Friday made its appearance as the Jasper REPUBLICAN. Peculiarly, we wish it success.—Monticello Constitutionalist.

The Jasper REPUBLICAN is the title of a new newspaper just started at Rensselaer, Indiana, by Charles M. Johnson, editor and proprietor. The REPUBLICAN is neatly printed and will stand by the Republican party. The people of Jasper should give this enterprise a liberal support, as a good county paper is indispensable in these days of progress. Success to Bro. Johnson.—Columbus (Ind.) Republican.

The Jasper REPUBLICAN is the name of a new paper just started at Rensselaer in the interest of the Republican party. Judging from the first issue it will be a sprightly sheet. Success to it.—Crown Point Herald.

Vol. 1, No. 1, of the Jasper county REPUBLICAN is on our table. Mr. Johnson, of the Remington Journal, is editor of the new paper. The first issue is well gotten up, and in mechanical skill and editorial ability reflects credit on the proprietor. We wish the new paper abundant success.—Winamac Republican.

Mr. C. M. Johnson, who has been conducting a paper at Remington, has just commenced the Jasper REPUBLICAN at Rensselaer. The character of the Remington paper and the appearance of the Rensselaer paper alike given promise of success and usefulness to the latter.—Porter County Vidette.

The Jasper REPUBLICAN, published at Rensselaer, by Chas. M. Johnson, fills a long felt want. It is not ashamed to be the organ of the grand Republican party, and will, in so doing, undoubtedly represent the views of a large majority of the voters of Jasper county. In the number before us we see evidence that the REPUBLICAN has started to stay, and we congratulate the Republicans of Jasper, on their possession of such a paper, and the editor of their cherished cause and its principles.—Logansport Journal.

We have received the first copy of the Rensselaer REPUBLICAN, a bright sheet, Republican in principles, and the organ of the party in Jasper county. We wish it success.—Mishawaka Enterprise.
