JASPER:

ELECTION.—Next Tuesday is election day in several of the States, and where State officers are to be elected, and the momentous issues of equal taxation, equal rights, and negro suffrage, to be decided on by the people, there has been an active canvass. In some of the counties of this State, where each party has nominated, there will be a hot contest. In this county there is no excitement, and everything will go off smoothly. The following is a list of candidates before the people—and here we will say that Mr. Davis has done his duty faithfully as Commissioner, and merits a re-election by the people.

For Circuit Prosecutor.

R. A. CLEMENTS.

For Representative.

CLEMENT DOANE.

JOHN WEIGEL.

For County Treasurer.

DARING BURGLARIES.—On Friday morning our citizens were surprised and alarmed to find that during the night before the most daring burglaries had been committed by the most impudent thieves which our town had known for years, and that no clue was had to the perpetrators. The moon shone brilliantly on that night, and it is wonderful that the thieves could prosecute their schemes so openly and with so much apparent bravado, without being seen. Mr. Mann's store was entered by the cellar way, the thieves gaining an entrance to the cellar by boring through the door, a heavy, spiked one, with a large auger, so as to enable them to spring the bolt; they then entered the store room, and ransacked it thoroughly, taking what small change was in the drawer, and carrying away silks, and other light goods, amounting it is supposed in value to over $200. Goepner & Ricks' bar room was entered by boring a hole so that the lower bolt was raised, and then springing the upper bolt and lock. Here they took several bottles of brandy, boxes of oysters, sardines, cheese, crackers &c. and going back of Mr. Mann's house ate, drank, and threw the empty bottles and cans into his yard. From the amount taken from the grocery there was evidently a number of persons appetites to satisfy. They also entered the County Auditor's office, but found nothing in it worth their carrying off.

ANOTHER ROBBERY.—We are informed that on last Thursday night, the farm house of Mr. T. Summers, of Ferdinand township, was entered by a gang of ruffians, and his money demanded, and upon his denying having any, he was taken out and hung up to a tree until he was compelled to disclose where he had put $2,000, which the thieves got, when they horribly beat his family and him, leaving him lying in the road for dead. No one seems to know where this lawless gang of desperadoes came from or where they went.

COMMON PLEAS COURT.—The business in this Court was finished on Wednesday evening. Judge Laird presided with that legal ability and even handed justice which has so evidently characterized his course as a judicial officer. In the case of the State vs. Eckenfels, for assault and battery, a jury imposed a fine of $25. There were no other cases of general interest before the court.

PRAIRIE.—We are requested to say that Rev. O. A. Barnett, the new M. E. minister on this circuit, will preach in Jasper on Sunday night, the 15th inst., at 7 o'clock. All are invited to attend.

BOY WANTED.—An intelligent boy wanted to learn the printing business. To a good boy liberal terms will be given. Apply at this office.

HALF SHEET.—On account of pressure of other work, we are unable to issue more than half a sheet this week.

EVANSVILLE DAILY COURIER.—This is the title of a new democratic journal started in Evansville by Messrs. Kierolf, Holman, Holmes and Cavin. It is typographically the neatest paper ever published in that city. It is edited by Messrs. A. S. Kierolf and W. M. Holman. The first number gives evidence of an editorial ability which the citizens of Evansville will find to their interest to patronize. The local department is under the control of our old friend, J. M. Beatty, who will make it worthy of the city.

The Reported Attempt to Assassinate General Grant.

We despatched a special reporter to Guilford Station, on the Indianapolis and Cincinnati Railroad, the scene of the accident to the special train, upon which Gen. Grant was a passenger, and the detail of the information he was able to acquire will be found elsewhere. The sum of it is, that it is exceedingly improbable that any design upon the life of General Grant was entertained by any person in the State of Indiana. It was not known in the neighborhood of Guilford Station that General Grant would pass through that night; and the switch was one that was unattended and not in good order. We have much satisfaction in thus clearing up this matter, and the whole country will rejoice to learn that instead of there being a deliberate effort to murder the Lieutenant General, he was merely subjected to one of the risks to which travelers by railway are accustomed.—Cincinnati Commercial.

07 A Shreveport paper reports the arrest of Judge Weems and Sheriff Aiden, of the 10th District of Louisiana, by the Provost Marshal of Freedmen, for daring to arrest and try a negro for horse stealing. The case was invented by chaplain Galusha, of the Freedmen's Bureau, from whose learned decision I extract the following legal maxima: "The high personal worth, the eminent legal attainments, and unflinching faithfulness of Judge Weems to the Government, when all around him failed, are his sun and shield to-day. It is no part of the design of the bureau to interfere with the business of Judge Weems' Court, except in the matter contemplated in this case. White men may sue each other before him as much as they please, and we will not say a word. They may sell each other out of house and home, by decree from under his hand, and so far as this bureau is concerned, it will be all right. He may imprison and hang as many white men as he pleases, and no opposition will be raised by us. But he must not touch a negro."

FIVE HUNDRED MILLIONS.—THADDEUS STAVANAS, Chairman of the Finance Committee, says in a year or two, the "annual expenses of the Government will be five hundred millions of dollars," and "taxation must be double what it now is to meet expenses." A beautiful prospect for the future.

SWEET GREEN TOMATO PICKLES.—Peel and slice two gallons of green tomatoes, add five tablespoonfuls of ground mustard seed, two tablespoonfuls of ground cinnamon, one tablespoonful of cloves, one pound of brown sugar. If you choose, you may add one spoonful of ground cinnamon bark. Celery tops improve the flavor. These are excellent.—Maine Farmer.

RE The system on which Brigham Young conducts his matrimonial affairs. "Quick returns and small Prophets."

A Card.

MR. C. DOANE—Sir.—By allowing your name to be used as a candidate for Representative, to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of A. J. Beckett, you will confer a favor upon many citizens.

Arrest of an Episcopal Bishop.

Cairo, Oct. 1.—General Woods, commanding Department of Alabama, has, under instructions of General Thomas, ordered the arrest of Episcopal Bishop Richard Willmer and the Episcopal clergy of that Diocese. The order suspended them from exercising the functions of their offices, forbidding to preach, and their churches closed for omitting prayer for the President and other civil authorities. The prohibition continues in each case until special application is made through military channels for permission to preach and perform divine services, and until such application is approved at head-quarters.
