

JASPER COURIER.

Mite at the residence of W. S. Hunter Monday night.

All goods are for exchange at Lehrburger, Kahn & Co.

You get more and better goods of Lehrburger, Kahn & Co. for $1.00 than any other house in the county.

Another barber-shop has been opened on the Public Square, in one of the small buildings of M. Friedman.

Go and see the new stock which embraces everything the farmer wants at L. K. Co.

We can show you the nicest, newest and best selected stock in the county. L. K. & Co.

Potatoes, and fine ones at that were selling from wagons this week at 40 cts. per bushel.

At Lehrburger, Kahn & Co.'s you will receive the highest price for your marketing.

Every one is surprised at the many beautiful things to be seen on Lehrburger, Kahn & Co.'s five cent. counter.

Administrators and guardians will find matters of importance to them in the Court rules published in the Courier this week. They should preserve them.

Gallant "fighting General Joseph Hooker" died in New York last Friday, and his remains were brought to Cincinnati for burial.

Lehrburger, Kahn & Co., keep a five cent. counter, where a thousand necessary conveniences can be had for five cents each.

A slight collision occurred on the railroad near Dale, on Tuesday—the express running into some flats, being used in hauling dirt to dress up the grade. Not much damage done.

DR. APPLE, with his unpronounceable magic lantern, lectured and exhibited to appreciative audiences at the Court-house last Friday and Saturday nights. His exhibition is a pleasing one.

CHANGED.—Mr. Leo Mayer this week severed his connection with the Cornet Band and joined the Star Band. He plays the "E" flat, is a well trained musician, and is quite an acquisition to the "Stars," and the boys are quite elated.

HAIR WORK.—Mrs. T. Withers has been putting up some very nice hair-work for ladies recently, and is doing hair work so cheaply and expeditiously that no one need go bald-headed if they will but save their combings and let her work them up. All kinds of hair ornaments made to order. Sept. 19.

The result of the action of the County Board against the town of Jasper in Court, for the grading of the Public Square, has cost the county over $300, while they were only asked for $125 as the county's share of grading expenses, and they yet have that to pay—or rather the tax-payers have. It seems to us the suit cost more than any possible benefit derived.

BURGLARIES.—On Friday night last the stores of M. Kean and N. H. Wilson, of Ireland, were burglarized. The burglars went to a wagon-shop and took a large chisel, which they used in opening the doors. They seemed to be acquainted with the localities and not a great deal was taken at either store. It is supposed $100 will cover the amount stolen. No clue to the burglars.

HORSE STOLEN.—On Thursday night of last week a horse belonging to Mr. Miller, a farmer in Madison township, was stolen from the horse-lot adjoining the farm. The horse was a black with white hind feet, and a mark of a halter burn on one of his feet, three years old. A young McCallister disappeared from the neighborhood the same night, and suspicions are indulged in that he knew something about the horse. A horse and man bearing the description of both of them was seen in Columbia township on Friday, the horse badly fagged.

IN TOWN.—Dr. Dan. Hughes, of Annapolis, Ill., called on us this week. He was on a visit to old friends in Huntingburg, where he formerly resided, and from where he used to be a valued correspondent of the Courier. We are glad to learn of his success in life, for "Faz" he deserves it.

C. L. Wedding, Esq., of Rockport, one of the leading attorneys of that village, has been attending our Court this week, as attorney for parties in action against the Town of Jasper. His speech to the jury on Tuesday was well received, though it did not convince.

Hon. T. F. DeBruiter, of Rockport, is on a visit to his relatives in this county.

MARRIED.—On Thursday, Oct. 30th, 1879, James Corn to Miss Florence Kelo, by Rev. J. B. Madden at the residence of the bride's father.

Nov. 4th, 1879, at the Ireland Hotel, by Rev. J. B. Madden, Mr. J. C. Huston to Miss S. C. Hardin.

Tuesday's Elections.

The election in New York on Tuesday resulted in the defeat of Tilden's candidate for Governor by a large majority, and the election of the Democratic State ticket except for Governor by 25,000 majority. This lays Tilden on the shelf, as it shows New York is Democratic for anybody but him.

New Jersey and Mississippi go Democratic, as usual, and Illinois, Pennsylvania and Massachusetts Republican, as usual.

COURT PROCEEDINGS.—The following are the disposition of causes not found on our first page. Court adjourned Wednesday having disposed of all business ready for trial.

Town of Jasper vs C. Kraus; jury trial; verdict for town.

Benj Zimmerman vs John Zimmerman; dismissed.

John Budd vs Chas Kraus; continued.

The County Commissioners vs Town of Jasper; verdict for town.

Anton Karlan vs Kendall, adm'r of the estate of M. Fisher; judgment for defendant.

Jos. Fuhs and M. M. Schlotthman.

Michael Sweeney and Theresia Egg.

Wm. J. Cox and Martha Poindexter.

John T. Carnahan and Eliza A. Wilson.

John McKim and M. A. Garland.

J. H. Schafer and Em. Meyer.

J. S. Main and P. J. Pruitt.

G. H. Meyers and E. Bretz.

A. C. Michel and A. C. Joachim.

Death of Zach Chandler.

The country was startled on last Saturday to learn of the death of Zach Chandler, U. S. Senator, of Michigan, and Chairman of the Republican National Convention. He had made a violent speech Friday night at Chicago, and retired to bed at the Grand Pacific Hotel, directing the clerk to have him called in time for next morning's train for Detroit. When the clerk attempted to have him roused he was found dead. He was a man of decided convictions, and was noticable among his political and personal associates, for being strictly honest and straight-forward in pecuniary matters. No taint of Indian frauds, Credit Mobilier, Freedman's bank swindle, Whisky ring perjuries, McGarrahan land claims, or similar rascally transactions pertains to Zach's memory, or management while he was Secretary of the Interior. He was also honest in his opinions and bold in their advocacy, and will go down to history as the only Senator who announced in the dark days of 1861, that he "didn't think the Union would be worth a d—n without a little blood letting!" His place in the Republican councils will be hard to fill in the canvass of 1880.

The News says that 168 colored families are coming soon from North Carolina. Some one has been here and arranged for their reception. Can any one doubt that this is a portion of the Republican programme to colonize Indiana with negroes before the next census and in time for the presidential election of 1880. This will also reduce the congressional representation of the South. It cuts both ways.—(Ind. Sentinel.)

The fashions of head gear were never so resplendent with beauty as this Fall, and Miss Kuebler's store well repays any lady for a visit. oct17-8t.

EXTRA SPECIAL NOTICE.

TESTIMONY OF REV. P. B. WILLIS COVINGTON, KENTUCKY.

Smith's Tonic Syrup.

The Best and Safest Remedy for Chills and Fever, or Fever and Ague.

Covington, Ky., May 21.

There has not been for many years, in this country such a general complaint about chills and fever. This depressing disease is now prevailing in many portions of Kentucky and elsewhere, where the people have long suffered themselves that they were entirely exempt from its influence. To those who are thus afflicted, we wish to recommend Smith's Tonic Syrup, believing it to be the very best remedy extant. Every one we have heard of using it, pronounces upon it in the very highest terms. We have lately used it in our family with marked success. The ingredients are simple, and the Tonic can be used freely without any detriment to the constitution whatever. If the directions, which always accompany every bottle, are carefully followed, it will in nine cases out of ten result in a permanent cure, whether the disease be of short or long standing. We take pleasure in recommending this medicine to the subjects of this disease everywhere, sincerely believing that the use of it will verify every word we say. P. B. WILES.
