

JASPER, DEUBOIS COUNTY, INDIANA.

Entered as the Postoffice at Jasper, Indiana, for transmission through the mail as second class matter.

FRIDAY, AUGUST 4, 1899.

If you have any local news, or want any printing, call us through the Courier Phone, 13-2.

And now the New York speculators are buying bank stock in preference to U. S. bonds. They think the coming session of congress will legislate to help National Banks which contributed liberally to elect the Republican majority. See!

Dubois county citizens should not forget the Dubois County Fair—at Huntington Sept. 11 to 16. The new organization is making an energetic effort to make it a genuine Fair for Dubois county, and not a mere Huntington display, and while its location is a little out of the way for some portions of the county, it's the only Fair in the county, and the best stockmen, farmers and manufacturers should encourage the laudable efforts of the directors. The premiums of the speed rings will induce some good entries. Now is your time to prepare for exhibits.

MADISON TOWNSHIP TEACHERS.—The COURIER acknowledges the courtesy of Trustee J. E. Norman, of Madison township, in furnishing it with the following list of teachers in that township engaged for the next term of public schools. Principal of the Ireland high school—Prof. C. J. Evard; assistants, M. B. Cooper, Matt. Dillon, Jasper Abell, Bertha Armstrong, Lula B. Young, W. E. DeMotte, Mary M. Cox, Sam'l L. Payne, Ed Hopkins. The above will constitute an excellent corps of teachers, under whose guidance the pupils of that township will progress rapidly and solidly.

FIXED.—Oris Schudel was arrested by Marshal Milburn Sunday night for disturbing the theatrical performance at the Robson tent by loud noises, taken before Esq. Zoeller, fined $5, with $7.80 trimmings. Stayed by J. F. Friedman. Harry Seng was arrested Monday morning on the same charge, and was fined $5, with $7.80 costs. Stayed by Ignatz Ferrebach.

These two young boys got no more than they deserved. Boys and men should learn when they attend public gatherings of any kind to behave properly, and some residents of Jasper seem never to have learned the lesson. But it seems to be an on-looker that the performers at the theater might have been properly arrested also, for pursuing their usual avocations on Sunday.

The State Tax Commissioners have reduced the assessment of the Air Line $1000 a mile on the main line in Indiana, to $1400 a mile on its 116 83 miles in this State; side track 32.13 miles is placed at $3,000 a mile; rolling stock $2,000 a mile, a decrease of $500, improvements $67,000. Evansville branch—54.21 miles, $10,000 a mile. Sidetrack, 8.76 miles, $2,500 a mile, rolling stock $2,000 a mile. The Rockport and Cannelton branches are assessed at $5,000 a mile.

The Black Diamond road is not yet placed on the assessment list, though it will be, when completed, a great deal more valuable than some others.

The Board has assessed the Cumberland Telephone Co., on 215 miles of line, at $200 a mile, double what it was assessed at last year, and counting the extensions made last year, 68 miles, nearly triple.
