Brave.

JASPER, DUBOIS COUNTY, INDIANA

Entered at the Postoffice at Jasper, Ind. as second-class matter, Jan. 1, 1908.

Subscription $1.50 Per Year.

FRIDAY, JANUARY 24, 1908

If you have any news, or want any printing, call on the Courier Phone 13-9.

Jasper had trains a plenty Sunday and Monday, all the trains from Louisville to St.
Louis and vice versa and to and from Evansville and Louisville passing through here and taking over the Monon between West Baden and Louisville. Theroute was used on account of a wreck at Corydon Junction on the main line, when a freight train broke through a trestle falling about 80 ft to the ground below. Killing the engineer, fireman, and brakeman, and injuring several others.

Declared Insane.

Elmer Whitehead a prominent teacher of this County was on Monday declared insane by a commission consisting of Judge F. L. Betz, Drs. Casper and Sturm.
Application for his admission to Woodmere has been made.
Mr. Whitehead is a young man of good habits and was considered one of the best teachers in the County close confinement to his work is considered to be the cause of his overtaxation.

His many friends wish for him a speedy recovery.

John B. Luebbers.

Mr John B. Luebbers, of Cass township announces this week as a candidate for County Commissioner from the Third District.

He served his township as trustee for one term, and transacted the duties of that office in an entirely satisfactory manner.
He is progressive, believes in being economic, and handling public funds as he would his own.

Should he secure the nomination and be elected, he will make a good and safe commissioner.

Anton Berger, Dead.

Anton Berger one of the best citizens fell of the roof of Solons Stephensons house last Saturday afternoon, he was carried home.
Drs. Casper and Sturm were called and they done all in their power to save him, internal injuries caused his death, which occurred about 3 o'clock Sunday morning Jan. 19.

Mr. Berger was born in Dubois County January 14, 1844, and consequently at the time was 64 years and 5 days old. In 1861 he enlisted in Co K 27 Reg Ind.
Vol and served his country with honor for three years. On Aug.
27 1867 he was united in marriage with Miss Helen Krodol to this union nine children were born, Joseph (dead) Anna, John, Louis, Andrew, Benjamin, Theresa Mayme and Silas.

Mr. Berger was a carpenter by trade having followed this business nearly all of his life he was a man of excellent habits he was a devotee member of St.
Joseph's church, and church marshal for a number of years.

His earthly remains were laid to rest in St. Joseph's cemetery Tuesday morning after solemn service in St. Joseph's church conducted by Rev. Francis O. S. B.

The funeral was under the auspices of the local G. A. R. Post and St. Joseph's society of which Mr. Berger was a loyal member.

The bereaved family has the sympathy of the entire Community.

RESULTS TELL.

There Can Be No Doubt About the Results in Jasper.

Results tell the tale.
All doubt is removed.
The testimony of a Jasper citizen.
What better proof can be had.
William J. Lampert, living on Fourth Street, Jasper, Ind., says: "When I began using Doan's Kidney Pills, I had suffered for a long time with a depressing backache. In the afternoon before finishing my day's work, it would become so intense that I would feel it impossible to hold out. It was accompanied by dizziness at times and my kidneys were irregular. This condition robs one of their energy, destroys ambition and causes depression. I had tried several remedies, but my misery still clung to me until reading of Doan's Kidney Pills, I was induced to procure them at Flick & Pina's drug store. I had not taken the contents of one box before I was better, and now I am quite free from any lameness in my back or any kidney difficulty."

PRICELESS RELICS SHOWN.

Warrants For Millions on Exhibition at the Jamestown Exposition.

Occupying a conspicuous space in the treasury department exhibit, Government Building A, protected by a massive brass and plate glass wing frame, is a series of warrants and drafts exhibited for the first time which will not again be on exhibition to the public without special permission of the secretary of the treasury and then only at the department in Washington. These warrants or checks are framed between heavy plate glass to enable the visitor not only to read the face of the same, but also the indorsement on the back.

One of the most interesting of these is the grant to General Lafayette made by congress in 1824 for his services and sacrifices in the war of the Revolution.
His indorsement appears on the back, showing that the grant was paid him Jan. 11, 1825. The amount of this warrant is $200,000.

The warrant for which Russia was paid $7,200,000 for the territory of Alaska is also shown. The emperor of Russia not being here in person, the power of attorney was given to his minister; hence this warrant is drawn in the name of De Stoeke. The warrant bears the indorsement of De Stoeke and was placed in the old Bize National bank of Washington for collection. Alaska's possession by the United States is associated historically with the friendship of Russia for the north during the civil war.

It is known that the government paid about 2 cents an acre for the territory, but it is not generally known that the United States has received nearly $11,000,000 in revenue from Alaska in the past thirty-three years.
In addition, Alaska has produced $125, 000,000 in gold, $80,000,000 in fur and $90,000,000 in fish, and the wealth of the country has only been scratched on the surface.

In this case are four warrants, each for $5,000,000, in payment for the Philippines. They are drawn in the name Jules Cambon, the French ambassador representing the government of France.
These warrants also show the indorsements of M. Cambon.

The $40,000,000 paid to the French company which had already won part of the Panama canal and drew in the name of J. Pierpont Morgan Co. as its financial representative also shown. The two warrants, one for $10,000,000 and one for $30,000,000 paid to the republic of Panama for the purchase of the canal zone through J. Pierpont Morgan are also displayed.

All of the above warrants and checks are the original papers in each instance and are priceless relics to the United States government. Visitors may have these warrants and checks explained to them in detail by applying to any of the attendants in the treasury department space.

The foreign nobleman puffed his cigarette dejectedly and refused to be consoled.

"And, to think," he sighed, "I proposed to her on my knees every night for two weeks!"

"And did you bag the beautiful heirress at last?" asked the interviewer.

"No. All I bagged was my trousers."—Detroit Tribune.

Without Cost to Him.

"I'm introducing an automatic machine," said the caller, "that will pay for itself in a year."

"I'll take one if it will do that," promptly said the manufacturer.

"If it will pay for itself in a year?"

"No; automatically pay for itself in a year."—Catholic Standard and Times.

On to Him.

"That was Miss Richley who just passed," said Wise.

"Yes," gasped Forchen-Hunt, "and didn't you notice? She actually cut me! What do you think of that?"

"Well, she's pretty sharp."—Philadelphia Press.

Ungrammatical.

Little owl in the glen.
I'm ashamed of you
You are ungrammatical
In speaking as you do.
You should say: "To whom? To whom?"

Not "To whom? To whom?"
Your small friend, Miss Katjidd.
May be given, 'tis true, But you never hear her say:
"Katy do! She do!"

—St. Nicholas.

A Double Chin.

with a good skin food; then, picking up the flesh between the thumb and first finger, roll it firmly, but gently. Sponge the skin afterward with cold salt water.
