REPUBLICAN MACHINE

INSULTS THE MINISTERS

Issues a "Confidential" Circular to Republican Chairmen Asking Them to "Organize the Preachers" for the Republican Party.

Mr. Marshall Defends the Ministry Against This Republican Affront.

Some time ago the Republican State Central Committee sent out a circular containing "Confidential Suggestions to County Chairmen." One of the paragraphs in this circular was as follows:

"Organize temperance people. Organize the preachers. Organize the business men. Organize first voters.
Organize the women."

This suggestion of the Republican State Committee to the county chairmen to "organize the preachers" into Republican campaign adjuncts was such an amazing breach of the pro-prieties that it doubtless caused many of the Republican county chairmen to gasp. But the Republican managers did not realize what a stupendous blunder they had made in offering such an affront to the ministers of the state until Thomas R. Marshall in his Terre Haute speech read the "confidential suggestions" to a large audience and in behalf of the preachers resented the insult that had been cast upon them. The inability of the Republicans to understand that ministers are ordained to preach the gospel and not to be organized into political clubs or drum corps for the benefit of the Republican party was made plain by Mr. Marshall. On this point (using his exact language) he said:

"It has always been my impression that when a minister was consecrated with holy oil that he was enlisted to fight the battles of the Lord, and not the battles of the Republican party, and I will take my chances on there being a great majority of ministers who still believe that the peculiar mission of the minister is to preach the gospel and not to beat a bass drum in a political procession."

But no sooner had Mr. Marshall thus given publicity to the impertinent instruction to "organize the preachers" than the Republican managers saw what a mistake they had made—the mistake of being caught in a complicated piece of business. Seeing no other way to break the force of Mr.
Marshall's revelation, they caught up the "bass drum" phrase, caused garbled reports to be printed in Republican newspapers, and yelled out, in big, black headlines, that "Marshall Attacks the Preachers."

Speaking of the matter the Indianapolis News said:

"Certain politicians have tried to make it appear that the Democratic candidate has insulted the ministers of the state—that he is 'opposed' to the ministers. Those who know Mr. Marshall will need no enlightenment on this subject. He is an honest, clean-living gentleman, a man of the highest character, and, we believe, a member of the Presbyterian church. The idea that he would head a crusade against the official representatives of the Christian religion is absurd, and is fostered largely by those who are trying to use the ministers to further their own schemes. What Mr. Marshall was dealing with at Terre Haute was not the preachers, but the politicians."

After quoting Mr. Marshall's language, the News added this:

"That there are ministers—we hope all of them—in Indianapolis, who hold precisely this view, was proved by the action of the Ministerial Association on Monday, when it struck out of its resolutions all reference to candidates or parties. What Mr. Marshall objected to was to organization of ministers by county chairmen, and that was all he objected to. We think that the ministers will agree with him. We think further that honest people will not be impressed by the criticism made by those who take certain words from their context and thus seek to give a false impression of what was said."

The professional Republican preacher—the kind that can be depended on in every campaign to do political work for his party—swallowed the story about the "attack on the preachers," and began to expatiate upon it with his usual partisan zeal, and perhaps will continue to do so. All others, however, will take good care not to be misled by such disreputable tactics.

The campaign of the Republicans, so far as it has progressed, has been marked by so much false pretense and prevarication—lying is the better word —that it is explainable only on the theory that the Republican managers and their helpers can find no honest ground to stand on.

The Cause of Many

Sudden Deaths.

There is a disease prevailing in this country most dangerous because so deceptive. Many sudden deaths are caused by it—heart disease, pneumonia, heart failure or apoplexy are often the result of kidney disease. If kidney trouble is allowed to advance the kidney poisoned blood will attack the vital organs, causing catarrh of the bladder, or the kidneys themselves break down and waste away cell by cell.
Bladder troubles almost always result from a derangement of the kidneys, and a cure is obtained quickest by a proper treatment of the kidneys. If you are feeling badly you can make no mistake by taking Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy.
It corrects inability to hold urine and scalding pain in passing it, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often through the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized.
It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases.
Swamp-Root is pleasant to take and is sold by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful new discovery and a book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail. Address, Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.
