Proved Her a Flirt.

Senator Penrose at the dedication of Pennsylvania's splendid capitol at Harrisburg said of a certain speech that had been made at a private dinner before the dedicatory ceremonies:

"That speech was pregnant with meaning. It revealed in every sentence its author's character. Brief and full and illuminating, it reminded me of the beautiful young lady who murmured to herself one afternoon as she paused uncertainly on a street corner:

"What a bore! For the life of me I can't remember whether I'm to meet Morris in Tasker street or Tasker in Morris street."

The Day and the Knight.

Lord Kelvin when a professor at Glasgow university was occasionally obscure and complex when the interest of a side issue led him off the beaten track. This was made the subject of an epigram which contrasted his methods with those of his assistant, Day, to his disadvantage. The occasion chosen was that of his return from having received his knighthood, and a student wrote upon the blackboard, "Work while it is yet Day, for the knight cometh when no man can work."

Eating an Orange.

Fine oranges grow in Florida, and some of them are eaten at the table.
The Florida style is to sever the orange at the equator and serve the north and south hemispheres on a plate with a spoon. All the signs of the zodiac are in the divisions of the orange. Chisel them out with the spoon and eat them. Leave the partitions. It is bad form to messuring him.

Cholly—Doctor, tell me the

"That man," said the great detective, "is evidently a genius."
"Why do you think so?" queried the ordinary person.

plained the G. D.—Chicago News.

At the Flood.

Hearing of a rising river at the headwaters of the Euphrates, with a falling barometer and indications of a flood in the valley, the Pithecanthropus changed his mind and frankly admitted it to Noah. His manner was that of a chastened and softened person.

"You monkeyed too long," said the patriarch. "We gave you a chance to come in with us, and you wouldn't take it. Now we have arranged for all the stock we care about trying to float."

The general liquidation which followed had the usual effect upon all but the insiders.—Puck.

It's easy for a sharp man to make a tool of a dull one.

There is nothing like a good business plant for raising money.

It's easy for a man's wife to dress well if his creditors can afford it.

A man talks about love as though he felt ashamed of the conversation.

Women like to talk of the days when they were single and had a good time.

Every man likes to hear a wise woman talk—because she always talks to him about himself.

Life would be awfully mono-

Never judge a man's good or Nothing jolts a small minded man like being forced to admit that he is in the wrong.

Black-Draught Stock and Poultry Medicine

I have had occasion to use your Black-Draught Stock and Poultry Medicine and am pleased to say that I never used anything for stock that gave half as good satisfaction. I heartily recommend it to all owners of stock.

J. B. BELSHER, St. Louis, Mo.

Sick stock or poultry should not eat cheap stock food any more than sick persons should expect to be cured by food. When your stock and poultry are sick give them medicine. Don't stuff them with worthless stock foods. Unload the bowels and stir up the torpid liver and the animal will be cured, if it be possible to cure it. Black-Draught Stock and Poultry Medicine unloads the bowels and stirs up the torpid liver.
It cures every malady of stock if taken in time. Secure a 25-cent can of Black-Draught Stock and Poultry Medicine and it will pay for itself ten times over. Horses work better. Cows give more milk. Hogs gain flesh.
And hens lay more eggs. It solves the problem of making as much blood, flesh and energy as possible out of the smallest amount of food consumed. Buy a can from your dealer.
